Pope's Items.
We are sorry to state that Mrs. Ann Bragg is very sick, but we trust that she may soon recover.
Mrs. Seanie Williams is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Blanche Cox, in Raleigh, this week.
The children and several young ladies have been enjoying the recent bad weather skating on Long's pond. If the ice had been soft as sand some nice pictures would have been taken.
We have a new enterprise at Popes. Mr. W. M. Perry has opened a blacksmith shop. Its pretty hard on R. L. Conyers and C. C. Holmes as they are in the same business, but you know competition is the life of trade.
Its wonderful to think of the improvement. We have a friend that has a saw that cuts more wood in one day than a family can burn in one year. We will have no more wood choppers in Popes section.
We were glad to hear Uncle Hard Frazier and wife, of Pumpkin Center, with us Sunday. Uncle Hard don't come up in the summer as he makes so much tobacco he sticks right at home.
Mrs. Scott Woodlief, of near Wake Forest, died on Saturday morning, February 21. She was the daughter of William Frazier, and was 38 years old. She leaves ten children—five girls and five boys. She was a good woman and had many friends and relatives to mourn their loss. She was buried at Popes church Sunday afternoon, where a host of friends and relatives gathered to pay the last respects. The services were conducted by Rev. Mr. Harrell, of Franklinton. The husband and family extend their many thanks for the service and assistance of their friends in her sickness.

Jackson Bend Items.
Perhaps you have never heard of this place before, but just the same there is a little town springing up here and we don't know what else to call it besides Jackson Bend. We think that as good a name as any.
Work is going forward on grading the main line of the Montgomery-Lumber railroad here.
We are being out and hauled to Spring Hope by the Montgomery Lumber Co. from around here and we have about ten trains a day now.
We learn that work will soon commence on the new bridge over the railroad here. The bridge will be a fine one.

men, brick and lumber have already been hauled.
After a town is built here sure enough, Jackson Bend may not be the name of the place, but it's alright to start off with at first, anyway.

Perry's Mill Items.
We are having some very bad weather.
Mr. Charlie Lambert and Mr. Cook paid Miss Lula Pearce a flying visit last Sunday.
Mrs. Johnnie Moore and sister, Miss Lilly Pearce, visited Mr. G. H. Cooper's last Wednesday and Thursday.
Mr. and Mrs. Eli Wheeler visited their daughter, Mrs. Joe Pearce, last Sunday.
Mr. M. S. Perry is all smiles. Its a fine little boy.
Wishing good luck to the good old Franklin Times, and its many readers.

Rock Springs Items.
Just to let you know we are still living.
So much snow and rain in February after such fine weather in January seems tough. And all the people that did not sow their plant-beds early will be rather late now.
Rev. Hartsell preached a fine sermon Sunday.
Several of the Bunn people were at church Sunday.
There was a box party at the school house Friday night. The weather was so bad there was only three boxes present. However they sold well, bringing better than $15.00.
Mr. D. E. Harris is on the sick list at present. Hope for his speedy recovery.
Mr. H. J. Strickland, of La Junta, Colo., who has been visiting his people in our neighborhood, returned home Sunday. Mr. Paul Strickland and Miss Sadie Strickland and Miss Minda Greene accompanied him as far as Franklinton.
Mr. William Wheelers and sister, Altonia, went to Ransdale Chapel Sunday afternoon.
The road near the church is the worst place between Bunn and Louisburg. It's very near impassable. It has been bad all winter and should be worked. Best wishes.

Privett Items.
Rev. W. D. Harold lectured on "Cooperation and Organization" at the academy Jan. 28th. On the following Sunday morning he lectured on "The Seven Worlds." Both talks were highly instructive and enjoyed by a large audience.
On Feb. 6th the Barac class entertained the Philatheta class. Several contests on historical subjects were enjoyed. A special delivery letter was brought in and found to contain jokes on each one present. Misses Rosa Pearce and Belle Glover delightfully rendered several musical selections; vocal and instrumental. Salad, beaten biscuit, cocoa and wafers were served.
Rev. G. M. Duke preached at the academy Monday night, Feb. 9th. Tuesday morning at the opening exercises he talked to the school on "Be attentive; be careful, be dutiful and be honest."
The school girls, of Miss Smith's room, entertained the older boys Friday afternoon at a valentine party. Hearts and arrows formed the decoration. "Delivering the Valentine Post" was the chief attraction of the afternoon. After an hour of fun, hearts were matched to find partners' and dainty refreshments were served.
Miss Maude Lancaster entertained a few friends Thursday night at the home of Mrs. B. F. Pearce. Rook was the chief feature of entertainment. Miss Lancaster delighted her guests with several vocal solos. The refreshments were hot chocolate and wafers.
The home of Mr. L. D. Lloyd was burned Friday morning. It seems that Mr. Lloyd carried a tank of gasoline, thinking it was kerosene oil, to an open fire-place and poured some on the coals. The can exploded and in an instant the entire room was in a blaze. The family escaped, though badly burned, and Miss Lloyd who was visiting her brother, is critically ill from the burns. We understand that there was no insurance on house or furnishings.
Miss Pauline Smith has organized a Girls' Tomato Club at Flet with the following members: Corinna Alford, Ora Bunn, Nona Massey, Dollie Massey, Bertha Medlin, Beatrice Pearce and Mamie Pearce. It is the first club organized in the county and it is indeed fitting that the community who first voted special school tax and one that succeeds with everything undertaken, should have the first club.
Mr. and Mrs. John Allen and Miss

Belle Glover spent Monday in Raleigh.
Mr. A. C. Perry spent Wednesday in Raleigh.
Messrs. E. O. Pearce, A. A. Medlin, D. C. Pearce, B. F. Johnson and T. C. Brannon made a business trip to Wake Forest and Henderson Monday.
Miss Maude Lancaster, Miss Pauline Smith and Miss Marie Etta Mitchell attended a teachers' meeting in Louisburg Saturday.
Mrs. A. C. Perry is visiting relatives in Raleigh.
Mrs. Paul Jones and Miss Hazel Jones, of Wakefield, spent Tuesday with Mrs. T. C. Brannon.
Miss Belle Glover who has been visiting Mrs. John Allen, returned to her home in Mooresboro Sunday.
Prof. K. A. Pittman, of Wake Forest College, will lecture at the academy Saturday night Feb. 21 at 7:30. This is one of the monthly lectures given at the academy. Prof. Pittman is highly recommended and a large crowd is desired.
Our school is in splendid condition with an enrollment of 130 and a good average attendance. The following is the honor-roll for the month ending January 2nd.

The Methodist Church.
There will be services at the M. E. church next Sunday at 11 a. m. and at 7:30 p. m. conducted by the pastor. Both services will be in preparation for the revival to begin on March 23. The congregation was very large last Sunday. Let every Methodist in Louisburg be in his place at church next Sunday and help to keep up the spirit and maintain the standard that have been set for this year.
