WILSON TON TYPE.

Secretary Daniels in Address at the Washington Birthday Celebration in Chicago, III., Peb. 24. Secretary of the Navy Josephus Daniels, in his address at the Washington's Dirthday celebration here today, declared President Wilson had beeded the admonitions of Washington and in that spirit had received the approval of the people of the United States.

"We have witnessed in the last year exhibitions of the true American spirit in a way that would do the heart of George Washington good if he were alive," said Mr. Daniels, "in the pirit of Washington, President Wilson entered upon his duties a year ago. As the leader, he summoned the mem ers of the party to labor with him in redceming its pledges. But he did not stop there. 'He called on men of every party for counsel and cooperation.

Washington, in his farewell address, warned the country against 'baneful effects of the passions aroused by the extremes of party spirit." When Washington's advice was accepted, from rancorous partisanship emerged the era of good feeling. Are we not on the verge of another era of good feeling?"

Mr. Daniels declared that he believ ed the day of clean cut party division of important legislation was past. Republican and Progressive votes, he said, helped pass tariff and currency bills, which were milestones in the path along which the Democratic party traveled to redeem its pledges.

Congressmen Leave Poorer, Clark.

24.—Speake Washington. Feb. Champ Clark told a Christian Endeav or mass meeting today that the world was growing better every day. He said the reason many persons took a gloomy view of the times was because the telegraph enabled newspapers to chronicle, the crimes and disasters of all the world within a few hours.

The speaker declared that nothing made him madder than to hear people say that public men of the present day were corrupt. The people's representatives in Washington, he said, "honest, conscientious servants." Ninety-nine per cent of the men sent to Congress, he added, leave poorer than they came, although they could acquire fortunes by stooping to dishonesty.

Mr. Clark said he hoped to see his own church, the Christian or Campbellite, and the Baptist, one great denomination.

Continue Improvements.

Washington, D. C., Feb. 26.-Fairfax Harrison, president of the Southern Railway Company, said today:

"Southern Railway Company, believing in the continued prosperity and growth of the territory it serves. and, recognizing the necessity of enarging its facilities to keep pace with at growth, has, pending the im-evement of the market for long erm securities, sold ten million dollars of five per cent three year notes secured by the pledge of development and general mortgage four per cent bonds of the company, which for some time past have been held in the treasury,of the company available for sale.

"This new capital is to be applied by Southern Railway Company in carrying through to completion plans for improvements and betterments to and upon the property of Southern Railway Company which were included in the general plan for the future of the railroad made at the time the development and general mortgage was created in 1906. The particular improvements now to be undertaken are chiefly additional and enlarged shops, yards and other freight terminals which have been greatly desired, and have been earnestly recommended for everal years past to facilitate mical operation and to enlarge the opportunity of the company for securing competitive freight traffic as well as for taking care of local bush These improvements will be under-taken at once and pushed to completion as rapidly as possible.

"In addition to the improvements provided for, as above stated, Southern Railway Company has also arranged to finance, through a ten-year equipment trust, the acquisition of additional modern rolling stock, largely of steel construction, representing an aggregate cost of more than five million dollars. Blus for this additional rolling stock are now being received from manufacturers and the orders for immediate construction will be placed promptly."

WASHING. AN EFFECTIVE LAW AGAINST WOMEN FIND THIS IS BLIND TIGERS AND THE 80. CIAL EVIL.

> A Statute Which Works Well in Guil ford-Social Service Conference

Wants It Made State-Wide. At a recent meeting of the North Carolina Conference for Social Service it was unanimously voted that a movement should be started to have the next legislature make State-wide present Guilford county law "for protection of public morals." The law is briefly explained by Mr. A. W. realister as follows:

1. The enforcement of this law, n the Stallem'case, makes it imposible for a property owner to rent life property for immoral purposes. A recent newspaper article states that in such cases, where the renting for imnoral purposes is persisted in. the property is forfeited to the city; but this is an inaccuracy. It is not forfeited to the city, but the owner, besides being subject to the heavy penalties imposed by law, has to give bond that the house will not be used for such purposes within twelve months, and unless he can give acceptable bond, the house is placarded and must remain vacant for a period of twelve months. The enforcement of this law subjects any man who knewingly rents his property for immoral purposes to what amounts to confiscation, and therefore renders it impossible for him to do it.

2. It makes it unlawful for any reeper of a house of prostitution to permit any unmarried female under the age of 18 years to remain in such

3. It provides a minute code regulating the dealing in cocaine, opium, and all similar drugs by wholesalers retalers, doctors, and others.

4. The statute then provides that the county attorney shall secure from the internal revenue collector the names of all persons who have paid license tax for dealing in intoxicating liquors, and such certified lists are made prima facte evidence that such persons are violating the law against selling intoxicating liquors.

5. The law also prohibits any from advertising, giving, presenting, or participating in any obscene, indecent immoral, or impure drama, play, or exhibition, show or entertainment, and provides for the removal of sheriff, police and other officers who fail to perform their duties, for drunkenness, and for other causes rendering them unfit

If properly enforced, it ought to be easy to break up gambling, retailing, and the white stave, traffic and business in Guilford county, and whereever else it is adopted.

"Running a Bill."

It seems economical, but really it is You feel that because you are not parting with cash at the moment you are temporarily saving money; and you are usually sure that when the bill comes in, you will be better off financially than you are at the moment. Of course this idea is delusive; you find on the first of the next month that the bills are larger and the accumulated fund less than you had expected.

Running a bill is subtly demoralizing. When you open a new account you are scrupulous to pay the bill very soon after it is rendered; you wish to impress your creditor with the fact that you are an uncommonly desirable patron. After awhile you feel that he has learned this fact, and you let him wait for his check while you impress a new set of creditors with your punctuality and solvency, So you keep putting off the creditors who are "old friends,", until finally it becomes s scramble to prevent their sending in an account headed by that discouraging item, "Bill rendered." When you sink into the "bill rendered" class. you have entered the second stage of hadelteiness. The third is marked by the receipt of dunning letters, the fourth by personal visits from collectors, the fifth by menacing communiations from lawyers: It is difficult for men and women who have the habit of "charging" everything to put aside money for inestment. They have adopted a costly way of living. The ability top urchase what you will, although your pockets ere empty, is an expensive luxury. The chops that permit charge accounts are the shops that ask high prices; charge account usually means that you pay from five to ten per cent more for a thing than its cash value.

If you adopt the pay-as-you-go principle, you will considerably reduce your own high cost of living .- The Youth's Companion
