VOL. XLIV

LOUISBURG, N. C., FRIDAY, MARCH 13, 1914.

NUMBER 5

CHAMBER COMMERCE

PERMANENTLY ORGANIZED ON MONDAY NIGHT.

Mr. F. B. McKinne, Cashler First National Bank, Made President .- Mr. S. A. Newell Made Secretary.

With fifty or more members present and an enrollment of one hundred and thirty-four the Louisburg Chamber of Commerce met in the courthouse on last Monday night for the purpose of effecting a permanent organization.

Amid much interest the meeing was called to order by Mayor Jas. A. Turndue, with Mr. T. W. Watson, temporary secretary, at the desk .- After the roll call the report of the membership committee was called for and Mr. G. L. Crowell reported seventyfive new members, for the committee.

The report of the nominating committee was then called for by the president and Mr. B. T. Holden made the report for the committee. The following names as nominations for the various offices:

President-F. B. McKinne.

First Vice-President-P. S. Allen. Second Vice-President-Dr. A. H. Fleming.

Third Vice-President-Capt. P. G.

Secretary-S. A. Newell. Treasurer-W. N. Fuller.

Upon motion the report of the committee was adopted and the nominees declared elected to their respective

The newly elected officers were es corted to their positions by several committees and after short and interesting talks from each business was taken up.

Mr. T. W. Watson was asked to make report relative to his success in securing copies of constitution and bylaws, and responded by presenting a set of each from the Raleigh and Rocky Mount Chambers of Commerce.

A motion to appoint a committee on constitution and by-laws prevailed and the president appointed Messrs. S. A. Newell, M. S. Clifton and T. W. Watson. This committee is to draft a constitution and by-laws and report at the next meeting.

Mayor Turner offered the following resolution which was carried by a rising vote after it had been amended so that it would be raised by a voluntary subscription to be solicited by the entertainment committee:

"We, the Chamber of Commerce of burg on April 3rd, 1914, as follows:

"Fifteen dollars for the school having the second largest per cent of enrollment. the largest number of pupils in the The burned buildings will be replaced parade on that occasion."

After some discussion a motion prevailed that the organization solicit voluntary subscription to the amount of ten dollars and donate the sum to the Matthew S. Davis Literary Society of the Louisburg graded school to be used as a prize.

The following resol Mayor James A. Turner, was unanimously passed:

"We, the members of the Louisburg Chamber of Commerce heartily endorse the proposition of building the railroad from Louisburg to Rocky Mount, and we wish to go on record as favoring the $100,000 bond issue for same by Louisburg township. President McKinno deeming the question oft he County commencement a very important one, announced the following committee as an entertainment committee for the occasion:

The Public School Examination. The Public School Examination. March 20th marks a new day in the school calendar of Frankin County. On that day an examination, covering the work of the seventh grade, will be given at every public school house in the county and to those who successfully pass it a certificate will be publicly awarded at the County Commencement.

A committee composed of Messrs. A committee composed of Messrs, Mills, Craven, Winston, Bullard, White, and Miss Arrington is preparing this examination which will be sent out to the teachers. These questions are not to be made public until March, 20th and they cannot be used on say other date.

if for any reason an examination can not be conducted in a particular school on that date, applicants may assetly arrange to take it at the nearest Messrs. Jas. A. Turner, W. R. Mills and Rev. W. M. Gilmore.

The secretary, was instructed to place a three months subscription to good news-clipping service.

Upon motion the committee on constitution and by-laws was instructed to limit the dues for the first year to

A motion to adjourn till next Mon day night at 8 o'clock prevailed.

This marked theb eginning of wha seems to be a most successful organization as much earnest enthusiasm was evident and work along the prop er line was discussed in a most b ness-like manner, and with the ability er, temporary president, to whom the of the excellent corps of officials we credit of reviving this organization is

THE ALARM OF THE CLOCK

Will Tell the Time See the Curtain Wrang Down.

Tomorrow night at nine o'crock the Alarm Clock will give the signal that all is over in the Franklin Times great Auto Contest. It will tell the hour that will reveal to the world the winners in this short but interesting campaign. It will tell who will sit at the steering wheel of the Franklin Times beautiful Five Passenger Ford Car, and drive it home as their own. It will also tell who will sit for hours while their fingers runlightly over-the keys of the excellent Prescott Piano, thinking how easily they won it. And, at the same time, five other young ladies will be awarded a beautiful Gold Elgin Watch as leaders of their

The time is short, indeed very short, but you can do a lot of work during the remaining hours. You can get ten votes to one on your past record, for the public has become, nearly as much interested as the contestants themselves. You'll find them ready to help you with two, three, five and ten years subscriptions. Try them proof.

Take off a few minutes for calculation; figure what you have done, then figure what you think your competitive candidate has secured, then don't stop until you are sure that you have passed that Be sure you are rightthen stop. But, be sure! .

Hines House Burned.

On Wednesday night of last week the home place of Mr. H. A. Hines, Louisburg, appropriate fifty dollars deceased, in Cyphress Creek township for prizes to be given at the County was destroyed by fire and with it the ments were served in three courses Commencement to be held in Louis- office and kitchen buildings that stood nearby. Very nearly all the contents Twenty-five dollars for school that were lost and with them alot of meat has in parade the largest per cent of about 1,000 pounds. The fire started between 12 and 1 o'clock and the origin is unknown. There had been no fire in the building since 12 o'clock the day before. The total loss is esti-"Ten dollars for the school that has mated at $5,000, with no insurance.

Inspection.

at once.

The regular annual inspection of Louisburg Rifles, Company D, will be held here today and a big barbecue dinner will be, a part of the program, of Miss Lola Jackson. Bad weather day and Monday at home. All the members have been ordered to report for duty and a nice drill is exreport for duty and a nice drill is exthe weather permitting

Wilder-Lane.

We acknowledge receipt of the following announcement:

Mr. Royal Elslworth Wilder , Miss Ivie Horner Lane

Married Saturday, March the seventh nineteen hundred and fourteen Rocky Mount, North arolina.

Woman's Missionary Society.

The Study Circle of the Woman Missionary Society met on Monday afternoon with Mrs. T. B. Wilder. The neeting was opened with a hymn, 'One More Day's Work for Jesus and a scripture lesson read by Mrs. D. E. McKinne.

Mrs. W. E. White conducted the les on which was an unusually interesting and instructive one. Mexico was the subject. Its climatic and topographical features were discussed in onnection with its peoples, resources animals and history of its three gree historical epochs.

After the study period ice ore and coffee were served and the circle adjourned to meet next Monday afternoon at the personage.

success from every view point. The attendance was gratifying throughout, especially on Sunday. There were fifen or more churches of the union represented.

With the aid of charts and a stereowhith the aid of charts and a stereoprof. Middleton presented the Sunday school work very clearly and forcibly.

Mr. Upchurch's addresses along mission lines were illuminating and soul-inspiring, and can not fail to bring forth good fruit.

The Institute made a profound impression on all who attended, and new ideals and new standards of church work have been set up.

The Cedar Rock community excelled themselves in taking care of the visitors.

tors.

Mr. Middleton delivered a lecture on Sunday school work in the Louisburg Baptist church Thursday night, using his stereopticon. Rev. Mr. Upchurch spoke Sunday night, following his address with an exhibition of stereopticon views representing the stereopticon views representing the work of the Home Mission Board, of Atlanta, Ga.

Miss Hall Entertains.

The Chaffing Dish Club was very attractively entertained on Wednesday evening by Miss Lynn Hall.

Each member was required to prepare some article of food upon the chafing dish, and varied and amusing were the results.

An animal contest followed, in which each guest was handed a card bearing the picture of an animal, and requested to reproduce the animal in chewing gum. The best animal, a fish, was made by Mr. J. D. Lee, and he was accordingly awarded fish prize a largeand valuable box of animal crackers.

Aftert he contest unique but appropriate refreshments/ were served The menu consisted of Pigs in Blankets, fried eggs, biscuits and potatoe pie with whipped cream.

Those present were Miss Julia Bar-Green, Miss Mary Stewart Egerton, Miss Mabel Davis, Miss Loulia Jar Miss Lynn Hall, Miss Mamie Jones, Mr. Henry Paschall, Mr. J. D. Lee, Mr. George Walker, Mr. E. H. Malone, Mr. William Jackson, and Mr. William Lambertson.

Tuesday Afternoon Book Club.

The Tuesday Afternoon Book Club Raleigh.

The Tuesday Afternoon Book Club Raleigh.

Was entertained on Tuesday afternoon Rev. A. D. Wilcox left yesterday for Washington, N. C.

Washington, N. C. the topic for discussion and a very interesting sketch of his life was given by Mrs. Palmer.

Mrs. Palmer read and discussed his "The Female of the Specie is More Deadly Than the Male."

Mrs. Parham read "Beanie" and Mrs. Ned Ford "The Mare's Nest." After the program delightful refreshand the guests reluctantly took their leave.

Those present were Mrs. J. A. Turner, Mrs. Ned Ford, Mrs. S. J. Parham, Mrs. David McKinne, Mrs. W. R. Mills, Mrs. T. W. Watson, Miss Sallie Pleasants.

The club was glad to have with Mrs. J. J. Persons. them as guests, Mrs. F. B. McKinne, Mrs. W. E. White, Mrs. Holden, Mrs. A. D. Wilcox, Miss Earley, and Mrs. W. B. Winston and Mrs. R. R. Harris.

At Mapleville.

On February the twenty-fifth the Mapleville Book Club met at the home

Each member responded to roll call with a quotation on the life of Washington. Short sketches about Washington were read by Mrs. H. H. Hobgood, Miss Mary Best and Mr. G. M. Beam. The music was furnished by Misses Gladys Brown and Lola Jack-son. Probably the most enjoyable feature of the program was the violin solo by Miss Jackson.

the club had finished its bustness delicious refreshments were ser-ved by the hostess. The next meeting wed by the hostess. The next meets will be with Mrs. J. B. Yarborough.

Wednesday Afternoon Bridge Club. The regular meeting of the Wednesday Afternoon Bridge Club \met with Mrs. J. L. Palmer. A delightful twotable game ofb ridge was played, after which delightful refreshments were served. Those present were Mrs. Garland Ricks, Mrs. Joe Mann, Mrs. S. J. Parham, Miss Virginia Foster, Miss Eleanor Cooke, Mrs. J. L. Palmer Miss Annie Greene, Miss Annie Allen Philathen Festival All Fext Week. The Philathea Class of the Meth-list Sunday School in Louisburg wi erve salads, sandwiches, deserts inds, tex, coffee, occur in the Sprufft soon next week, ex from three until six

CURRENT LITERATURE BOOK

Delightful Afternoon Spent With Mrs. Mortimer C. Pleasants.

The Current Literature Book Club was most charmingly entertained by Mrs. M. C. Pleasants, on Thursday afternoon. As the guests arrived they were met by their hostess and shown into the library, beautiful with its mellowed lights, bright wood fire, ferns and potted plants. Germany, the afternoon's subject, was handled in an admirable manner by Mrs. T. W. Bickett, who is teacher for the years course. An excellent paper, a number of sketches on the lives of famous Ger-man musicians was read by Mrs.

Walter M. Gilmore. Miss Mabel Davis read a paper on the Religious life of Germanyof today and Germany's religious and political life, before the Lutheran Reformation was discussed by all members of the club. Miss Elba Henninger of the Louisburg College, gave a reading, Edward Markham's sweet poem, "The Great

Guest Comes. After this hour of delightful study delicious salad was served, foilowed by a nut and cherry salad with whipped cream, cake and coffee. All too soon the hour of adjournment arrived and the suests reauctantly took their leave, voting this one of the most delightan meetings of the club.

Those present were: Mrs. W. . R. Mills, Mrs. W. B. Morton, Mrc. W. E. White, Miss Mary Arrington, Mrs. W. M. Gilmore, Mrs. T. W .Bickett, Mrs. J. J. Barrow, Miss Mary Yarborough, Mrs. P. G. Alston, Mrs. S. P. Burt, row, Miss Eleanor Cooks, Miss Annie Mrs. F. B. McKinne, Mrs. T. B. Wilder, man, Mrs. Ivey Allen, Miss Louise Allen, Mrs. M. C .Pleasants, Mrs. John King, and Mrs. A. W. Alston.

PERSONALS.

Mr. D. S. Ford went to Selma Tues day. Mr. K. P. Hill spent Wednesday in

Miss Eleanor Cooke left Saturday

to visit her friends in New York. Messrs. J. E. Nash and A. W. Macon visited Richmond the past week.

Mrs. Loyd Liles and daughter, of Charlotte, are visiting her people here. Mr. R. B. Wicker is at the bedside of is brother at Sanford, who is very ill. Messrs. P. S. Allen and J. D. Hines returned from the northern markets Tuesday.
Mrs. F. A. Riff, who has been visiting her people at Salisbury, returned home Saturday.

Mayor Jas. A. Turner, Messrs. J. R. Coille and J. E. Thomas went to Raleigh Tuesday.
Misses Mary Mangum and Fati Harris, of Wake Forest; are visiting at Mr. H. L. Candler and Miss Clara

Aycock returned from the northern markets the past week.

Messrs. B. F. Cone and E. W. Moore of Spring Hope, were visitors to Louisburg the past week. Mr. J. R. Collie, Chief Clerk to House Claims Committee, spent Sun-Miss Elizabeth Connell, who has been visiting friends and relatives near Ingleside returned to her in Henderson Wednesday. Mr. S. S. Williams, who has been at Maysville, Ky., returned homethe past week where he spent several days before returning to Greenville.

Mr. I. J. Deitz, who has been here the past few weeks helping in getting the L. J. Deltz Co., open and ready forb usiness, left the past week for his home at Downingtown, Pa.

Rev. B. Lucien Malone, who has een the poular pastor of the Episcopal church here the past two years or more, left for Gadsden, Ala., the past week to mike up his duties in a new field. He is a young man of splendid rements and possesses exceptional shifty, Louisburg's people recog-nize their loss in his departure and congratulate the citizens of Gadsden upon having won his favor.

Franklinton Items Saturday, March 14th, (tomorrow);

ompany, Franklin Guards.

Ground is being proken for the rection of the new bank building on corner of Main and Mason streets. odliding, we learn, will be three We are glad to state to the many la of Capt. I. H. Kearney that he down town last Saturday and day, and we hope he is of T. W

Whedbee on Main street is fast nearing completion. When completed will be an ornament to Main street.

A. S. Joyner and J. H. Harris went to Louisburg Tuesday. We saw W. M. Person, of Louisburg, on our strets last Monday.

We learn that Mr. R. C. Sandling of Clinton, is very sick. He is a brother of J. C. Sandling and Mrs. J. P. Wilson of this township. Mr. J. C. Sandling left here Monday to be with him for several days.

A series of meetings commenced last Sunday night at the Methodist church and will continue for several days or as long as any interest is manifest. Services are held at 10 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.

There will be no moving picture show during the meeting at the Methodist church as the manager was asked to close during the meeting.

Miss Rena Jones has returned from a visit to Norfolk.

Messrs. Robert, Elmo and John Speed were called to the bedside of their mother, who is very sick at her home at Laurel.

Mr. Eddie McGhee has accepted a situation with the Crescent Drug Co. Mr. Geo. Harrell has taken a position at the S. A. L. Railway telegraph office.

The Seaboard Air Line will construct or put in a 10-car siding here for the accommodation of the car-load traffic. This siding will run on the bitck of the freight depot, being an extension of the short spur track which is already there.

Miss Myra Vann, who has been visiting at Mr. A. H. Vann's, returned to her home in Edenton last week.

There will be a special service at the Methodist Sunday school on Sunday, March 22, in honor of the birthday of Miss Fanny Crosby, the great hymn writer.

Rey. Mr. Maxey, of Suffolk, Va., will assist the pastor in his meeting at the M. E. church. Mr. Maxey preached two very able sermons to large congregations Monday night and Tuesday morning.

. COUNTY COMMENCEMENT Friday, April 3, 1914, at Louisburg. Program: m.—Parade of School Children. -Presentation

Diplomas to pupils having successfully passed examination on public school branches. 11:45.a., m. Declamation contest by one repre-sentative from each township.

Presentation of medal to winner. of 1:00.p.m.—Basket picuic at Graded School. 2:30.p.m.—Athietic Contests by representatives various schools. Presentation of prizes to successful contestants.

You may just look out for a big time in Louisburg on Friday, April 3rd. A big parade of all the schools in the County.

A declamation contest in which selected representatives of the various townships will compete. Presentation of diplomas to graduate of the public lomas to graduates of the public schools. Big basket picnic. Ex-citing athletic contests in after-noon. Everybody invited. Bring your family and a basket. Some of the prizes to be given are as follows:

By the Louisburg Chamber of By the Louisburg Chamber of Commerce: $25 to the school having in the parade the largest percentage of its enrollment; $15 to school having second largest percentage; $10 to school having greatest number of pupils in the parade.

A gold medal will be given to the winner in declaration contest and suitable prizes for athletic contests.

letic contests.

Watch next week's Times for further details. . . .

LIST OF LETTERS. The following is a list of letters remaining in the postoffice at Louisburg, N. C., March 13, 1914, uncalled for. Mrs. Bettle Bowden, Bryant Gay, neys. In the morning when I got up, Leslie Green, Mrs. J. H. Harris, Y. C. I felt weak and lame. After I used Perry, Miss Willie Green Wheeless, Ironie Williams, Tom Warder, Miss Athelee White, Joe West.

The following have been returned to writers from the Division of Dead Let-

Sarah Dixon Persons calling for any of the above ters will please say they saw

M. W. YARBOROUGH, P. M.

ORPHANS AT LOUISBURG

GREETED BY THE BIGGEST AV-DIENCE YET.

The Concert One of the Best in Years. The Receipts Amounted to $113.25. A Most Enjoyable Evening.

The Oxford Orphan Singing Class composed of fourteen bright little boys and gi and git alled their appointment at the Or a House here on last Friday he delight of one of the night larges diences ever present in the local (re. The class was under the nt of Mr. Alderman and Miss manas Brancial de was composed of the following sa: Hattie Hartsell, Eather Watk Lillian White, Sadie Dixon. Nettle Brummitt, Maggle Johnson. Manie Murphy, Hazel Kennedy, Dora Sherrill, Eula Scott, George Vickers. Allen Britt, Leroy Smith, Fred Jones. At the proper hour Rev. W. B. Morton responded to a request to lead in prayer after which the rendition of the ollowing well arranged program; 1. Chorus-Swing Song .. F. N. Lohr

Song-When Uncle Joe Plays a Rag on His Old Banjo. Morse illen Britt, Fred Jones, Leroy Smith,

George Vickers. 3. Recitation—A Composition on the "Hawse" Leroy Smith

Solo and Chorus-The Sunny South Lillian White and Class 5. Song—The Daity Maid.. .. Slocum Sadie Dixon, Eula Scott, Esther Watkins

6. Chorus-Who Will to the Greenwood Hie..... Perkins Class Recitation-Intellectual and other

Duet-Peterkins and Polly (Dutch song illustrating costumes and customs).....

......Koogle Hazel Kennedy, Leroy Smith Recitation-Fool Young'uns.. Riley

Esther Watkins 10. Duet-The Boatman's Song Franz Lillan White, Nett's Brummitt 11. Chorus-The Oars are Splashing Lightly.. Adam Geibel

Class 12. Recitation-How Jinny Eased Her Mind Thomas Nelson Page · Maggie Johnson 13. Song—Whistling Jim.. Morse

Allen Britt, Fred Jones, Leroy Smith, George Vickers 14. The Gypsies' Festival....N. Earle

Girls and George Vickers As each piece was of the highest order and the rendition of it so well performed by the little ones it is alnost impossible to call special attenion to any number with the idea of giving any special credit for splendid work. However, owing to the character of the number and the size of the pupil rendering it, we can't help but feel more or less partial to the recitation of little Esther Watkins in "Fool Young'uns," and the little Dutch song of Hazel Kennedy and Leroy Smith entitled "Peterkins and Polly." These two were of especial merit and did much credit to the little perform-

The whole concert reflected great credit upon the institution and its management and our people were liberal in their appreciation of it, both financially as well as in expressions. The receipts at the door amounted to $108.00 and was increased to $113.25 the next morning. The children were all cared for in the homes of Louisburg citizens who are always glad to have the class with them.

THEY ALL DEMAND PT.

Louisburg Like Every City and Town the Union Receives It.

Peofle with kidney ills want to be hen one suffers the tortures thing back, relief is eagerly for. There are many reme that relieve, but not permanentoan's Kidney Pills have brought asting results to thousands. Here is of merit from this vicinity.

J. D. Fuller, Asylum St., Oxford, N. C., says: "I suffered a great deal from backache and pain in my kid-Doan's Kidney Pills, the aches and pains left and I felt better in every way. I take Doan's Kidney Pills occasionally when I feel that I need a kidney medicine and they always help me. I know that this ren represented and I don't be ply ask for a kidner rem. Doan's Kidney Pills the king