TAR DROPS.

—Don't forget to swat the fly.
 —What about the Y. M. C. A. movement.
 —We can at least have a reading and rest room.
 —The opera house is to be rented tomorrow.
 —Allen Bro. Co., have recovered their mill property.
 —There seems to be more talk about a new court house.
 —Many of our people are buying automobiles.
 —A big number of our people are installing electric fans.
 —The rains the past week have been quite a blessing to everybody.
 —A few more nice buildings on the King property will make it a most desirable residence section.
 —The rains the past week have been a great help to the farmers as well as to the general public.
 —The town has changed the main line from the power plant to Middle street from across the lots.
 —Mrs. H. C. Beck gave a dinner party to Misses Julia Barrow and Eleanor Cooke on Monday evening.
 —The Misses Jarman have moved from the old King residence to the home of Mrs. Jordan Barrow.
 —The large plate glass front has been put in the new building on Market street.
 —Attention is called to the page advertisement in this issue of Mr. R. Z. Egerton. Some big bargains are being offered.
 —Little Miss Mary Page Wilder entertained a number of her friends at dinner and the "movies" on Tuesday afternoon.
 —Quite a number of our people went up to Raleigh, the past week, to attend the congressional and State convention.
 —Mr. A. D. Wilcox gave a stereoptical lecture on temperance to the junior members of his church and the Knights of Ezilote on Monday night.
 —Would it not be well for parents who have children attending school in the town to take interest enough in the schools and their children to visit the schools at least one time during the term?
 —Work on the new residence of Mr. F. B. McKinnie on Middle street is being finished. It is a large house and will be completed in a handsome manner.
 —Pull together, brethren. We are all here for the same purpose. Then live and let live. The best way to build up a town is for each and every man to pull together and not strive to rend and tear down.
 —We are requested to state that the regular quarterly conference at Shiloh Methodist church will be held on Saturday and Sunday, and that Rev. J. H. Hall will be present and preach. The public is invited to be present.
 —Nothing adds more to the attractiveness to a town, and makes a better impression upon visiting strangers, than newly painted residences, good sidewalks, clean streets and alleys, and withal, a good number of shade trees and ornamental shrubbery and flowers in your yards. It is indicative of refinement, culture, good taste and thrift.
 —Although six states in the union are without compulsory school attendance laws, and four others have laws that apply only partially, definite progress during the past decade is reported in a bulletin just issued by the United States Bureau of Education. Since 1905 eight states previously without compulsory laws have adopted them, and it is thought to be a matter of only a few years when compulsory school attendance will be in effect in every state or territory of the United States.
 —Now is the time for you to paint and fix up and make home look as if there was a little enterprise around you. Take the garden rake and collect all the old rubbish of 1913 in a pile and set fire to it—don't burn the house down in the operation—and let it be burned up and never to collect there again. Then go for that pile of ashes collected during the winter and remove it far hence so that your yard will look as if some one was living there. There is no place like home, therefore make it a beautiful, delightful, enchanting and your attachments for it will be the stronger.
 —It is all fool-de-rol to be everlastingly hankering to live in a large city because of larger opportunities. Of course a man who has really outgrown his native village has a moral right to seek larger opportunity elsewhere, but that man is as rare as a pearl in an oyster. Thousands of our youth, however, are annually rushing to our larger cities believing themselves to be talented and capable to become famous and successful in the midst of the large and dazzling opportunities of the city. Alas! only to be compelled to turn the grindstone for sharpening the tools of other.
