

A WARNING TO MANY

Some Interesting Facts About Kidney Troubles.

Few people realize to what extent their health depends upon the condition of the kidneys.

The physician in nearly all cases of serious illness, makes a chemical analysis of the patient's urine. He knows that unless the kidneys are doing their work properly, the other organs cannot readily be brought back to health and strength.

When the kidneys are neglected or abused in any way, serious results are sure to follow. According to health statistics, Bright's disease which is really an advanced form of kidney trouble, caused nearly ten thousand deaths in 1913, in the state of New York alone. Therefore, it behooves us to pay more attention to the health of these most important organs.

An ideal herbal compound that has had remarkable success as a kidney remedy is Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great Kidney, Liver and Bladder Remedy.

The mild and healing influence of this preparation, in most cases, is soon realized, according to sworn statements and verified testimony of those who have used the remedy.

If you feel that your kidneys require attention, and wish a sample bottle, write to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. Mention this paper, enclose ten cents and they will gladly forward it to you by Parcel Post.

Swamp-Root is sold by every druggist in bottles of two sizes—50c. and $1.00.

Military Company Stands Inspection.

Company D, Louisa Rifles underwent its annual inspection on last Saturday morning, with quite a good percent present. The inspection was conducted by Capt. R. C. Langdon, of the U. S. Army, and Col. Stringfield, for the N. C. N. G., assisted by Col. W. L. McGhee. From what we can learn the company made a pretty fair showing in all its working.

Resolutions of Respect.

Inasmuch as the spirit of our beloved co-laborer has been released from its earthly tabernacle, it is resolved:

1st. That, in the death of Mrs. P. G. Alston, we, the members of the Woman's Missionary Society, do most fully realize the inestimable loss we have sustained.

2nd. That while our hearts are saddened by this blow, yet in our sorrow we can thank God for her having lived; that we can feel that the whole hearted devotion to her Church, and her beautiful consecration to God's service, no matter in what form came the call, dominated by an intelligence of the highest order, has made her life a blessing to our community and an influence for good unending.

3rd. That to the bereaved family we extend our heart-felt sympathy, and pray that "Our Father," whom she so joyfully served, may ever sustain and comfort them.

4th. That a copy of these resolutions be placed on the Minutes of the Society and a copy sent to the Franklin Times and the Raleigh Christian Advocate.

When Croup Comes Treat Externally

The old method of dosing delicate little stomachs with nauseous drugs is wrong and harmful. Try the external treatment—Vick's "Vap-O-Rub" Salve. Just rub a little over the throat and chest. Death of Frank Hollingsworth

Last Sunday morning about 9 o'clock God saw fit to take from his happy home circle Frank Hollingsworth. Frank was born October 8, 1896, and died February 6, 1915. He was taken seriously ill with pneumonia on Sunday and in spite of all that his family, physicians, and many friends could do to relieve his intense suffering, the death angel came like a thief in the night and bore his soul away to him that gave it. From the flower garden of time an angel has plucked one of earth's fairest, brightest, rarest flowers, but the Master saw it and wanted it to adorn Heaven. The mission of his life seems short, but the music which his presence called forth in the heart of his loved ones will never cease.

His father died when he was only 10 years of age, and his mother died when he was 16. He has been a dutiful boy from childhood days.

He was a member of Peach Tree Church, and also a member of the Baraca Class at Justice Sunday School. The Baraca buried him. The pall bearers were: Messrs. Wilson Gay, Elijah Wheelless, David Moyer, Joe Wheelless, Walter Stallings, Ernest Wheelless. He was laid to rest in the family burying ground, Rev. C. C. Williams conducted the services.

Frank was a bright, faithful pupil in Justice school. Now his desk is vacant. We sadly miss his bright, cheerful face. We wish so often for the touch of a vanished hand, and to hear a word from a heart so sincere. We long to hear the music which now is still. But while we miss him so much, we believe that the Lord knows best, and so we pray that he will help us to be submissive to his will.

'Tis hard to break the tender chord
When love has bound our hearts,
'Tis hard, so hard to speak the words
"We must forever part."

Dearest loved one, we must lay thee
In the peaceful grave's embrace,
But thy memory shall be cherished
'Till we see thy heavenly face.
But we shall still be joined in heart
And hope to meet again.
Vivian Wheelless & Nordin Stallings.

Double Series of Sermons.

You are invited to attend the following double series of sermons by Rev. A. D. Wilcox, pastor of the Louisa Methodist Church.

The morning series, entitled "The Religions of the Modern Mind," deals with the fundamentals of faith and the certainties of religion. The evening series is an interpretation of the last five commandments. The morning series will be held at 11 o'clock and the evening series at 7:30 o'clock.

The subjects for the series are as follows:

Sunday morning, Feb. 14th—"The place of faith and reason in the Christian Life." Sunday evening, Feb. 14th, "Murder."

Sunday morning, Feb. 21st—"The Old and New Conceptions of the Scriptures." Sunday evening, Feb. 21st, "Adultery."

Sunday morning, Feb. 28th—"The Deity of Jesus." Sunday evening, Feb. 28th—"Theft."

Sunday morning, March 7th—"Miracles." Sunday evening March 7th—"False witness."

Sunday morning, March 14th—"Sin; its forgiveness and punishment." Sunday evening, March 14th—"Covetousness."

B. Y. P. U. Institute Mars Hill College.

The B. Y. P. U. Institute held here the past week by Miss Beulah B. Bowden met with great success. The one hundred and fifty-three students who attended the Institute are expecting to receive certificates, except the seventeen who have already received certificates from a former Institute. The lectures by the following each day on different subjects were very interesting and proved very instructive.

Monday—Rev. J. R. Owens, "Relation of the B. Y. P. U. to the church."
Tuesday—Prof. R. L. Moore, "Spring Motto."

Wednesday—Prof. J. B. Huff, "Training in B. Y. P. U.—Mr. W. L. Price, "Called by God to B. Y. P. U."
Thursday—W. H. Whitmore, "Social Problem."
Friday—J. H. Hoiman, "The True Union."

The Institute at this particular school will mean lots to the State of North Carolina because there are students here from almost every county in the State and from six other States. On their return home they will be prepared to take up the B. Y. P. U. work in their community. The students of this College feel very much indebted to Miss Beulah Bowden for her efforts and zeal in this Institute.

Mapleville Book Club.

The Mapleville Book Club was very delightfully entertained at the Academy last Monday afternoon by Mrs. J. H. Uzzle.

An interesting and instructive paper on "St. Valentine's Day" was read by Mrs. J. B. Yarborough.

A piano solo was rendered by Miss Gladys Brown.

A paper heart with a beautiful bird painted on the first pages was given to each person present. On the second page a flower contest was given.

Each question had to be answered with the name of a flower. The contest was very interesting and resulted in Rev. G. M. Duke's getting the bouquet.

The nice fruit cake, pickles, and fruit served by the hostess were quite welcome after having such a lovely guessing contest.

The club was well attended, Misses Helen Edwards, Eleanor and Camilla Yarborough being the invited guests.
