ACT QUICKLY.

Delay Has Been Dangerous in Louisburg.

Do the right thing at the right time. Act quickly in time of danger. In time of kidney danger Doan's Kidney Pills are most effective.

Plenty of evidence of their worth. Mrs. W. C. Jones 221 N. Bloodworth St., Raleigh, N. C., says: "My back ached constantly and often I had pains across my loins. Sometimes I was in such bad shape that I could hardly get up after sitting awhile. I did not get my proper rest at night and I suffered intensely from headaches. The doctor's medicine brought me no relief. Doan's Kidney Pills drove away the aches and pains and restored me to better health than I had enjoyed for years." (Statement given January 30, 1908).

Over two years, Mrs. Jones said. "My back or kidneys haven't troubled me much since I used Doan's Kidney Pills."

CRUDE THOUGHTS FROM THE EDITORIAL PEN

Talks to Mothers on the Boy Problem.

Miss Mary Harrington, a teacher in an Iowa City School, recently gave an address at a Mother's and Teacher's Institute that every mother should read.

Miss Harrington's address, was one of special merit in that it was practical and logical and the idea beautifully expressed.

Questions Mothers Can Answer. "Some of the neighborhood questions which might be controlled by the co-operation of the mothers are: "Why is there a different standard of action and ideas for the boys than for the girls?"

"Can the night street corner boys be kept at home?" "Why was home good enough until he was ten, eleven or twelve years old when he answered the call of the street?"

"Why do the girls consider it their place to be at home?" "Will this double standard of action for the girls and boys ever conflict?"

Chiefly Boy Problem.

"I believe the neighborhood problem is chiefly a boy problem. The boy's life is divided into three periods, infancy from birth to six years of age, childhood from six to twelve, and the adolescent period from twelve years to manhood. The trying time in the government of a boy is in the adolescence. One-third of all the population of this city is in the adolescent age and so you see we are dealing with one-third of all the people."

"Why should parents relax the reins of guidance for the boy in his teens, when he is in the most critical stage—the street gang stage. This relaxation is not intentional on the part of the parents, it is only that the boy himself feels the call of the street and the gang and the parent fails to go with him. In a way the gang spirit is legitimate, but the father should in spite of go with the boy and the mother and the home should receive the gang. Recall in memory the pleasures of your young days when you went with a crowd and have sympathy with our child in that same enjoyment."

Boy's Club Meets at Home.

"The best type of boy's club is the world meets in the home kitchen or in the living room. The evening lamp is the home's light house and the hour after sunset is the Sabbath of the day. The evening hour and the home ought to be made so that the children will love it. The parents should provide books and papers and magazines and games for school day evenings. On Friday and Saturday evenings extra social affairs may be held, an occasional party and a meeting of the crowd or the gang in some home under careful supervision. The boys and girls ought to meet together in these evenings and there should be an understanding and a neighborhood standard for going home in time. So every mother would know just when the children would be at home."

"Do you ever know your boy's friends? Do you ever take time to take an extra loaf of raisin bread or an extra pan of ginger bread so your boy can share with his friends, who will by that token know that mother is also their friend?"

Mothers, Will It Pay?

We are forcibly struck the other day by the truth of a remark made by a man who at the time was under serious difficulty over the crop that had sprung up from the wild oats he had sown when a boy. A little friend of his was putting over some chastisement, when he gently remarked, "Take all your corrections kindly and be thankful to any one who cares enough for you to tell you of your mistakes or warn you when you first begin to go astray. For," he continued sadly, "the more corrections you receive and profit by when young, the less you will receive from the world when older."

Whenver You Need a General Tonic

A truer statement was never uttered. What a responsibility, then, upon parents. Will it pay to close our eyes to the fact? All our corrections should be made with an eye to the future as well as the present. There should be a principle involved. Let our children see that it is our duty to punish them sometimes, never a pleasure. In our desire that their young lives be full of joy and gladness, will it be wise to refrain from imparting to them a knowledge of the sterner realities of life? Will it pay to allow them to go untaught? We must teach them so judiciously the difference between the trend upward and the trend downward, that of their own accord they will eschew those pleasures of a doubtful nature. We cannot guard our boys and girls too closely. Many a fair flower languishes and dies before it is time. It will not pay to close our eyes to the signs around us, thinking our boys and girls proof against these influences. Above all things, teach the girls to be natural. Do not allow them to get into these simpering, giggling, foolish ways that so many misses appear to think smart, and yet do not cause them to feel that you desire to put "old heads on young shoulders." Far from it. Let young people be young people still, but the while not forgetting that there is far more real happiness in being pure and true than can be found along any other line.

Pope's Items.

Everyone is invited to come out to Pope's next Sunday as the choir from Wake Union will sing on that day, February 14th.

Miss Maud Fuller, of Raleigh, spent Monday with her people here, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Fuller.

Miss Zelma Holmes spent last week in Henderson with friends.

Mr. Vannie Williams was one of the many visitors to Pope's Sunday. He is one of the frequent visitors from Louisburg.

Mrs. Vick Holden is visiting her son, Mr. J. T. Holden.

Mrs. Geo. Kearney spent Sunday with her sister, Mrs. Ray Perry.

Misses Nannie and Bee Bee Frazier, of Harris Township, spent Sunday with Miss Lizzie Pergerson.

We have some very forgetful people here, as one of our neighbors went to town last Sunday in his buggy and forgot his horse and buggy and came home on foot.
