BIGGER GUNS FOR COAST DEFENSES

Congress is Asked to Change 12-inch to 16 Inch Guns.

Washington, Feb. 15—Guns of a greater range and power than any that could be arrayed against them, was asked for the American coast defense in the army board report, submitted by Secretary Garrison and made public today by the House appropriations committee.

The board advised that the old-type of twelve-inch guns and mortars are not equal in range power to the major calibre guns afloat. Garrison recommended immediate improvement in some coast defenses, so that the range of the old twelve-inch guns will be increased to twenty thousand yards. The board suggested that whenever it is necessary to construct new works that the large guns should be sixteen-inch weapons.

Certain obliging "experts" are charging the high cost of flour to the war.
Certainly—of course—just so! And this poor old war will be scapegoat for every piece of speculative skullduggery for the next fifty years to come.

THAT COLD YOU HAVE

may bring sickness, doctors bills and loss of work; you know that serious sickness usually starts with a cold, and a cold only exists where weakness exists. Remember that.

Overcome the weakness and nature cures the cold—that is the law of reason. Carefully avoid drugged pills, syrups or stimulants; they are only props and braces and whips.

It is the pure medicinal nourishment in Scott's Emulsion that quickly enriches the blood, strengthens the lungs and helps heal the air passages.

And mark this well—Scott's Emulsion generates body-heat as protection against winter sickness. Get Scott's strengthens and builds up.

FASCINATING SPRING MODES

Boleros and Short Skirts Combine in Jaunty Costumes--Turkish Trouser Skirts.

New York, March 4.—With the first breath of Spring weather, costumes begin to take in Spring-like colorings.
Hats in gayer colors or trimmed with bright flowers and feathers announce to the world that Spring has returned, even when the suit or dress remains of the somber colors of winter.

Collect cloth has been the rage of the winter suits and is very popular in the spring for it is light in color and combines with many things. A new cloth called buck-skin covert is the newest of this type.

A few days ago I received announcement cards from Fifth Avenue dressmaking establishment, of a private view of their newest models. From the general salesrooms I was guided into a gray and gold elevator and from there to an artistic room also in gray and white and gold. The simplest of small stages occupied one side of the room. A few chairs were placed carelessly around the room, and we made ourselves comfortable for the review.

French costumes. The waist was in double effect, slashes several times front and back through which the creamy white chiffon blouse peeped.
A short pleated poplin finished the lower edge of the waist. This was worn over a full skirt with a pleated ruffle on the bottom. An interesting thing to remember is that these pleated ruffles which are used on the bottom of so many skirts are pressed flat and put on the lower edge without a heading of any kind.

In these dresses the long tunic was shown in many different styles. Sometimes with a pleated lower skirt showing just below, and again with an underskirt of filmy lace.

One of these frocks I will describe in detail. The skirt had a long blue tunic striped with a thread of yellow and crossed with a satin stripe. This was slashed up about eight inches and faced upon the upper side with plain blue. The pleated underskirt of plain blue just peeped out from beneath the tunic.

A short bolero jacket also slashed and bound with plain blue is worn over a white chiffon blouse with a narrow pleat down the center having a narrow frill on either side. The long sleeves had deep faring cuffs of the striped silk with a frill of the chiffon around its edge. The collar of the blouse was very high with a frill of chiffon above and below.

Another little dress which sported a short bolero jacket and chiffon blouse having deep bell sleeves of the chiffon, had a skirt which showed a new evolution of the tunic skirt. The skirt was of blue chiffon taffeta with two box-pleatings around the bottom.
The skirt was the full length in the back, but the front was the depth of the two box-pleated ruffles shorter, and beneath, were two box-pleated frills of white chiffon. The effect was stunning.

Contrast is a strong note in the color combinations of the season.
Many dark jackets were shown with white or light colored skirts. Wide leather belts were used on some of the dresses. One white serge dress had a red patent leather belt which was very effective indeed.

A white chiffon afternoon dress showed the ruffled sleeves with sur-plice fronts of blue lace and a loose panel of the blue lace in the back. The usual skirt was made of chiffon with three graduated bands of shirred silk applied. Each band was shirred upon a cord top and bottom which gave the band a very pretty finish.

A mode which is having quite a vogue and is both graceful and effective has been inspired by the Turkish trousers. This dress, however, is not a trouser, skirt, far be it! There is a foundation skirt made shorter than the outside skirt and the lower edge of the outside skirt is gathered and caught to the lower edge of the underskirt and the skirt itself is bloused, if that term can be used, all around the bottom. The dress which I saw having a skirt like this had a very wide belt with large round disks or moons embroidered on it in red and silver and gold.

A coat and a dress showing the long and the short-waisted effects are shown in the illustrations. The coat in diagonal blue serge, with full skirt and belt with pockets upon each side is a late and practical model for the Spring coat. In the illustration the coat is worn with a sand-colored skirt.

In plain and moire taffeta is the dress illustrated made in the latest basque effect. The bodice is given the long-waisted appearance by a panel front which is cut in one with a wide crushed girde. This fits around the waist and hips rather closely combining very well with the full faring skirt.

On many of these dresses where a little color is needed to give the proper note for contrast a corsage bouquet was used. There are many different kinds of these flowers, those made from velvet or silk or chiffon and those made of ribbon. The newest ones show a picot edging and are often made of picot-edged ribbon. The trimming on some of the early spring hats is very simple, often being but a strip of narrow ribbon, usually grosgrain, with a strand of beads, in dull white, blue or other dull color which will form a pleasing contrast placed just above it.

New handkerchiefs are showing Narrow-colored frills around their edge of pink blue or violet. The very sheerest of linen is used for those handkerchiefs and the result is fluffy and dainty.

Girls Stop Washing the Hair With Soap.

Soap dries your scalp, raising dandruff, then hair falls out.

After washing your hair with soap always apply a little Danderine to the scalp to invigorate the hair and prevent dryness. Better still, use soap as sparingly as possible and instead have a "Danderine Hair Cleanse." Just moisten a cloth with Danderine and draw it carefully through your hair, taking one strand at a time. This will remove dust, dirt, and excessive oil. In a few moments you will be amazed, your hair will not only be clean, but will be wavy, fluffy and abundant, and possesses an incomparable softness and lustre.

Besides cleaning and beautifying the hair, one application of Danderine dissolves every particle of dandruff; stimulates the scalp, stopping itching and falling hair. Danderine is to the hair what fresh showers of rain and sunshine are to vegetation. It goes right to the roots, invigorates and strengthens them. Its exhilarating and life-producing properties cause the hair to grow long, strong and beautiful.

Men! Ladies! You can surely have lots of charming hair. Get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter and try it.

Begin the study of diplomacy in your own home, and the rest of the lessons will come easy.

ANNOUNCEMENT

Beginning with next month this Bank will distribute each month in this community a series of folders treating each month of a different farming subject.

The War has brought home to all of us the imperative necessity for diversification of crops. Experience has shown that every farmer can greatly increase the yield of his farming rightly according to new scientific methods.

Each of these papers will be complete in itself, and each will give explicit directions for obtaining the maximum yield of the crop discussed and will give the proper crop-rotations to be practiced to maintain and increase the fertility of the farm.

The farmer who follows these suggestions should double or triple the revenue from his farm.

If you would like to have them, send us your name and address on a postal card.
