

LOUISBURG TO-BACCO MARKET

OPENS NEXT THURSDAY.

All three Warehouses Opens the Same Day—Big Preparations—Bring a Load.

It has already been seen that the Louisville Tobacco Market would open on next Thursday. All the local warehouses will have their opening sales on this day. The buyers will all be present on time and everything will be in readiness for a beginning without a hitch.

The Louisville Market is taking on life that looks as if things pertaining to it will be made to move around this fall. Those interested in each warehouse are busy getting everything in readiness for the opening sales and it really begins to look as if they are determined to make Louisville lead the State this year. From what we can learn indications point to a pretty fair break at all warehouses on next Thursday and prices are expected to be fairly good. At any rate the warehousemen are going to do all in their power to get the biggest prices possible for the tobacco put on the Louisville Market. Try a load on the opening day and see what you think of the results. Louisville is going to go after the business and therefore it will be to your interest to come here.

Goes Over to Court.

The case of State vs. K. A. Perry, for having more whiskey than is allowed by the law and for the purpose of sale was tried before J. L. Palmer, J. P. Monday morning with Messrs. W. H. Yarbrough, R. B. White and E. H. Malone representing the State and Messrs. B. T. Holden and W. M. Person representing the defendant. The State introduced Chief of Police Cooke, of Franklin, and Deputy Sheriff W. N. Fuller, whose evidence was to the effect that Roger Macon, a negro, was seen to get off a train in Franklin with a suit case. He was afterwards seen leaving Franklin on Mr. Perry's car. Deputy Sheriff Fuller and Pace having been led to believe there was an excess of whiskey on the car met the party on the South side of the river, stopped it and made an examination. They found the suit case in charge of the negro with about five gallons in same and seized it and arrested the negro. All this took place on Saturday night, August 14th. On Monday evening following as a further step in the case Mr. Perry was arrested by the Sheriff and his automobile seized. On Wednesday Mr. Perry's attorney took out claim and delivery proceeding to recover the automobile, and the Sheriff gave bond and still held the car. Both sides rested at the conclusion of the evidence of the two witnesses and argument begun. The State contended that it was a violation of the State law for any person to receive whiskey in any quantity in excess of one quart in each fifteen days for any purpose whatever, while the defense contended that there was no violation as the defendant had never become in possession of the whiskey, and that it was for personal use and was therefore not within the meaning of the law. Both sides were ably represented by counsel and Soule Palmer after hearing the evidence and argument decided to send the case up to court and required the defendant to give a bond in the sum of $200.

MOTHER AND BABY KILLED BY TRAIN.

Tragedy at Kittrell Sunday Afternoon; Father is Also Injured, Probably Seriously.

Mrs. Luther Stone and her 18-month-old baby were instantly killed and her husband and a 3-year-old son were seriously injured, when a conveyance in which they were riding, was struck by a through Seaboard Air Line train, No. 3, from New York to Jacksonville, at Kittrell, between Raleigh and Henderson, late Sunday. The husband, holding the baby in his arms, was carried for four hundred feet on the pilot of the engine. One of his arms was broken, but chances favor his recovery. The family was riding to the home of an uncle for a Sunday afternoon visit. Mrs. Stone was hurled under the train and her body was mangled beyond recognition. The injured father and his surviving son were brought to a Raleigh hospital. The accident caused great commotion among the passengers. One woman went into hysterics. The injured boy was reported to be regaining well Monday, but Mr. Stone spent a very uncomfortable night.

Hon. T. W. Bickett.

One of the much talked of men in North Carolina today is State Attorney General, T. W. Bickett. His name is heard from the mountains to the sea, and it is a foregone fact that he is to be the next Governor of North Carolina. The State has no bigger man—he measures in every way with any statesman the State has ever offered for this high trust. He is safe on every question that has to do with the best interest of the commonwealth. He is a most original and refined speaker, clear cut in his statements and no State in the Union would have a more popular Governor than North Carolina when he comes into his own. We have thought he would gain this honor through opposition but we believe the opposition will all pass away before many moons and that Bickett will go in without a dissenting voice. Let it be so.

We have read an article written by one of his friends from the west which appeared in the Sunday issue of the Charlotte Observer, and it drives so near our thought of the man, that we copy it in full in this issue. We invite you to look it up and read the entire article. It will help you to learn something of this great man who has been discovered only in recent years at the Charlotte Convention—Dunn Guide.

WORK IN FULL BLAST

PREPARING GROUNDS FOR FAIR
THIS FALL.

To Have Largest Midway of Any County Fair in State—Big Preparations.

Chairman Turner of the Executive committee, informs us that his committee visited the location for the fair on Monday in company with contractor M. F. Houck and laid off the grounds and selected positions for the buildings, stalls, pens poultry, houses etc., and also located a half-mile race track. A great deal of the lumber has already been delivered and work is now on in full blast erecting the several buildings, fences etc. The race track will be graded within the next few weeks and in a short while everything in this section will look like a fair sure enough. Chairman Turner informs us this fair will have the largest Midway of any fair in the State of its kind and that everything that is possible to do to make everybody be glad they come to Louisville on this occasion will be done.

He informs us that his committee will secure special trains and special rates to Louisville from Henderson, Kittrell, Wake Forest, Youngville and Franklin. The proper authorities are busy making up a premium list which will be published upon its completion.

It is desired that every farmer in Franklin county shall have at least one exhibit and more will make the fair better to promote its object. If you have not already prepared an exhibit get to work on one right away that you may be sure to have it in time.

Delightful Occasion at Ingleside.

On Friday last, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Dickerson, at their beautiful country home, delightfully entertained a number of their friends. Mr. Dickerson is one of Franklin County's popular and energetic citizens, and enjoys the esteem of a large circle of friends.

The programme which was so admirably carried out, could not have been more appropriately arranged for the occasion. There was everything for which one could wish for his pleasure and happiness, which is always characteristic of Mr. Dickerson's style of entertainment.

The barbecue dinner which was served about one o'clock, was one of the interesting features of the day. The dinner was followed by a dance in the afternoon, which was led by Mr. W. M. Hayes. The music was furnished by the Epsom string band. This part of the programme added much to the pleasure of those present.

There were cars also at the disposal of the guests, and of course the "joy rides" figured in the enjoyment of the occasion. All in all a more delightful day in the country was never spent, and those who were present feel greatly indebted to Mr. and Mrs. Dickerson who made the occasion possible.

Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Overton, of Kittrell; Frank Chester Overton, of Kittrell; Mrs. S. M. Fuller, Mr. and Mrs. Hester, of Kittrell; Mr. and Mrs. H. Parks, Sr., and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Parks, of Henderson; Mr. and Mrs. M. I. Newton and family, of Nashville; Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Hudson, and Mrs. W. H. Macon, of Louisville; Mr. R. I. ## GIVE BARBECUE DINNER.

Masons of Sandy Creek Lodge Royally Entertain Guests.

Upon the occasion of the visit of the District Deputy Grand Master, Prof. J. Edward Allen, of Warrenton, Sandy Creek Lodge of Masons, of Laurel about nine miles from this place gave an elaborate barbecue dinner on last Friday complimentary to the visiting Masons from other lodges in the county and district.

The meeting began about 9 o'clock in the morning and the degree work was given by a team picked from the representatives of the several lodges nearby. An address was delivered by the District Deputy Grand Master on the history of the Masonic symbols, and another by Rev. G. M. Duke Chaplain of Sandy Creek Lodge, and one of the most prominent ministers in this section of the principles of Masonry.

There were representatives present from Castalia, Windsor, Louisville, Epsom, Warrenton and other Masonic lodges making in all the largest body of Masons ever assembled in this community. The barbecue was prepared by members of the local lodge, and the occasion was one of the most enjoyable of a number of similar getting together meetings held in recent months in several parts of the district. These meetings are held in place of the customary single district meeting and prove to be a most successful plan. Professor Allen states that the whole Nineteenth district shows marked improvement, the most rapid strides having been made recently by the lodges in Youngsville, Laurel, Vaughan, and Louisville.

Great credit is due to Worshipful Master B. B. Egerton, host of Friday's occasion for its success. It is expected that other like meetings will be held in other communities. They have already been held in Warrenton, Epsom and Vaughan.

Echoes from the College.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Holmes, of Granville county, and Rev. and Mrs. L. B. Sawyer, of Millbrook, visited the College this week for the purpose of entering their daughters here in September.

Miss Elizabeth Allen returned Thursday from a visit in Western Carolina. While in Marion she was one of the three guests of Miss Virginia Blanton whose names were the same.

Prof. J. Edward Allen and Miss Louise Allen, of Warrenton, and Misses Mabel and Alberta Davis, of Jackson, visited their grand-mother, Mrs. M. S. Davis, last week.

Miss Mary Thompson, who has spent the summer at the College, will leave for Statesville next week, to teach in one of the Graded Schools of that place.

Miss Edna Allen, who supplied in the chair of Latin for Mrs. Underhill during the last six weeks of the spring term has accepted a position in Raleigh. She writes that she is one of four Louisville people boarding at the same place, among them Miss Kate Herring, another former Louisville teacher.

The College opens on Wednesday morning, September 15th. The resident ministers will be asked to be present and to take part in the opening exercises. Former students and friends of the College are cordially invited to be present. The faculty, with the exception of Miss Williams, whose place will be filled by Miss Nellie Clapp, of Greensboro, will be the same as that of 1914-15. Mrs. Underhill, refreshed by a rest in the spring and a summer in the mountains, will resume her duties with renewed strength. Miss Frey's return gives promise of an interesting class of grown people in Domestic Science. Miss Mabel Davis will assist in the English Department, and with only one exception, the various departments will be under the same efficient instructors, which will be a guaranty of a successful year's work.

Mayor's Court.

Monday morning was quite an interesting time for the violators as Mayor Joyner announced his decisions in many cases.

The first called was against Budie Ruffin, Arthur Ruffin, and Sidney Wright charged with creating a disturbance, and for shooting craps. Of course the defendants knew nothing of their misdeeds but the Mayor believing the evidence to the contrary let them off by paying a fine of $10 each and costs, amounting to $13.10 each. Sidney Wright was next before his honor and was informed he could help replenish the town's treasury by the contribution of a $5 fine and costs making a total of $8.10. This was for an assault.

Ernest Moseley was informed of the fact that he could not be guilty of disorderly conduct on the streets by the use of profane and vulgar language and allowed to go unnoticed, so he was required to contribute $5 and costs, making a total of $8.10.

Caroline Battle was let off with the costs amounting to $3.10 for disorderly conduct.

At the conclusion of these cases Mayor Joyner told his miscreants that it might be best for them to be more careful and not make it necessary for them to have to be brought before him any more for this Saturday night and Sunday violations.

This year the faculty is composed of a most efficient lot of teachers and we understand that they are going to make the coming session the best in the history of the school if the patrons will only lend a little co-operation. They are entitled to more than this. They should receive the hearty co-operation and the earnest help of both the patrons and all the Board of Trustees, and we feel sure they will get it. Let's pull together for a bigger, better school. The teachers have been assigned to the following duties for the coming session:
