THE TOBACCO MARKET

OPENED YESTERDAY WITH GOOD SALES.

At All Warehouses—Lively Buying and Fair Prices Resulted—Many Visitors.

The Louisburg tobacco market celebrated its formal opening on yesterday with a pretty good lot of the weed at each of the Warehouses—more than was expected. It was quite interesting to see the activities start up at each of the Warehouses as it was the opening up of the fall season in a line of business that usually puts life in all business after a quiet summer.

The sale begun at the Riverside Warehouse after the usual method of determining who should have the first sale and all the buyers were present apparently eager to get the weed.

The crying of the auctioneers was especially pleasing to the large number present.

From the best estimate we could get the sale amounted to about forty thousand pounds and arranged about 9 cents.

Among the other markets represented on the sale we noticed Henderson, Oxford, Wendell, Youngville, Spring Hope, Rocky Mount, Zebulon. In addition to the representatives from other markets farmers from every section and all adjoining counties were here to watch the sale and expressed themselves as being especially well pleased with the results.

Our Warehousemen say they are going to make Louisburg the best market in the State and our business men are going to assist them in making Louisburg profitable town for the farmers to visit. Come to Louisburg with your next load.

ASSOCIATION ENDS ANNUAL SESSION.

First Baptist Church in Raleigh Leads in Contributions, Reports Show.

With a very tender and impressive memorial service at 11 o'clock Friday in honor of Miss Fannie E. S. Heck, of Raleigh, whose death was reported yesterday, the Central Baptist Association, which has been holding its fifty-sixth annual session with the New Hope Baptist church six miles north of Raleigh, since Wednesday, came to a close, to meet a year hence with the Bay Leaf church, near the Falls of Neuse.

The Central Association is what its name indicates—the central and one of the leading associations of the State. It has within its borders the two leading Baptist colleges in the State, Wake Forest and Meredith. It is also the home of the Biblical Recorder, the organ of the denomination in the State. The State Board of Missions, with its secretary, Dr. Livingston Johnson, the Sunday school board and the central committee of the Woman's Missionary Union of the State, with their secretaries, are also located within its boundaries. It contains the First Baptist church of Raleigh, which is in the front of all the churches in the South, and also the Wake Forest church, which is the strategic center of the State, from a Baptist viewpoint. This association likewise contains some of the strongest and some of the weakest villages and country churches—31 in all—with a membership of 4,814. Their total contributions for all benevolent objects during the past year was $31,191.94. The First Church of Raleigh, led all the others in per capita contributions, which was $8.11 per member. The Franklin church came next with $6.46 per member; the Wake Forest church, $4.39 per member. New Hope and Brassfield led among the country churches in this respect with $2.57 and $2.58 per member.

The Laymen's Movement, under the directions of Prof. E. W. Sikes, of Wake Forest, is working wonders in many of the churches, according to the reports made at the Association. Prof. John E. Ray, of Raleigh, was re-elected moderator of the Association; Rev. George P. Harrell, of Franklin, vice moderator; Prof. E. W. Sikes, of Wake Forest, clerk and historian. Prof. Charles E. Brewer, who for thirty years or more has been the very efficient clerk, did not stand for re-nomination on account of his duties as president of Meredith College.

The report on State Missions was read by Virgil Otis Parker, of Raleigh, who also made a very strong address on the subject, holding that from a purely patriotic viewpoint nothing so contributed to the upbuilding of the citizenship of the State as did State Missions, and therefore the cause is worthy of the loyal support of everybody. In no investment can the denomination realize richer dividends.

Dr. Livingston Johnson, corresponding secretary of the State Board of Missions, Raleigh, called especial attention to the fact that this year the books of his board will close November 16, two weeks earlier than usual in order to give its thanksgiving offering.

In his address on the Baptist Orphanage work of the State, Superintendent M. L. Kester, of Thomasville, stated that the orphanage work was now $35,000 in debt, due in part to the present war conditions, but more especially to the fact that the institution has greatly enlarged its plant within the past few months. With the opening of the Kennedy Memorial

Home, and the Miles Durham Nursery at Thomasville, seventy-five extra children have been added to the institution within the past year. And then the big bequests from the Kennedy, Biggs, Little and other estates to the orphanage, all have strings to them for the present, being trust funds, and so are liabilities for the present rather than assets. By and by these funds will yield large dividends to the institution, but not yet.

W. R. Powell, of Wake Forest, read the report on Education, and Dr. R. T. Vann, secretary of the new Board of education, created by the last State convention, made a strong plea for Christian education. The purpose of the new board is to organize, systematize and correlate the four Baptist colleges and fourteen Baptist high schools in the State.

EVERYBODY FOR BICKETT.

Attorney Generalship and State Treasurer Position Matters of Much Interest.

Mr. J. H. Holloway writes the following letter regarding political matters from over the State:

Dear Mr. Editor: The process of elimination is still going on in the fight for the Attorney Generalship nomination. The politicians are trying to create a popular demand for a western candidate strong enough to sweep the field but so far their efforts have proven a failure. This is an old score crow theory that long since should have been exploded as it has been the means on several occasions of fostering undesirable candidates on the party.

There should not be any real or imaginary line between the East and the West in North Carolina politically but the capable man should be chosen regardless of the Geographical residence.

Mr. R. O. Everette of Durham at this time is far in the lead of all other aspirants. The withdrawal of Governor Doughton has clarified the political atmosphere considerably as it was the general opinion that he would prove to be a formidable candidate and in all probability a winner. Everette's friends have been doing some very effective quiet work and succeeded in working up a nucleus in every county in the State. Unless a frame up is brought about Everette is more than an even bet as the winner. He will have a loyal support in Durham county that will be practically unanimous. His ability to fill the position in an able manner is beyond question.

Everybody is now for Bickett except Col. Al Fairbrother. The Col. has been poking fun at Tom Bost for conducting a moving picture show of potential candidates in the various excellent articles that Tom has been writing for the Greensboro paper. This attitude on the part of Col. Al is very inconsistent to say the least as the Col has been running a gallery in his newspaper for more than a year and he has nominated and printed the photograph of every man in North Carolina worth over one hundred thousand dollars for Governor, whether Democratic or Republican. A majority of his candidates have never entertained an idea of running and most of the others couldn't be elected township constables in his own community. An Englishman's love for a Lord does not excel Col. Al Fairbrother's love for a rich man. Bost has never mentioned a man who was not a live possibility.

While it is a long time off, people are already discussing the probability of Cameron Morrisson's candidacy for senator the next time Senator Overman comes up for nomination. A large number of people have mentioned the matter to your correspondent since the reference recently made in a previous letter to this paper.

Forsyth's candidate for treasurer of the State is a live news item and much interest is being manifested in the matter. It was generally thought that Treasurer Leay would not have any opponent next year but the announcement from Forsyth has put a different complexion on the matter.

September 13th will be a day long to be remembered in the history of Raleigh if present plans are carried out. The city is making great preparation to dedicate the handsomest new court house, probably in the entire South. It is one of the most beautiful buildings this writer has ever seen and it is a fine monument to those who were instrumental in having it erected. Solicitor Norris has been tireless in his efforts for the building and he probably more than any other is entitled to the credit for its reality.

Yours truly,
JAMES H. HOLLOWAY,
Raleigh, N. C.

Franklin Superior Court.

Franklin Superior court, regular August term for the trial of Civil cases only convened on Monday morning with His Honor Judge R. B. Peebles presiding. Quite a number of cases were disposed of but none of any special public importance. The case of Allen and McKinnis, concerning a property deal, has been set for next Wednesday and is about the only case of any special importance on the docket. The case of J. C. Conway vs. the Seaboard Air Line Railway was nonsuited. This being a Civil court no special interest on the part of the public centers around the temple of Justice and therefore no large numbers of people have been in attendance.

There is no doubt but that court will continue through next week.

P. S.—Indications are the scrap will soon become a real fight.

DINNER TO OLD VETS

BIG FEAST AND MANY GOOD SPEECHES.

Col. Cunningham, Judge C. M. Cooke, Rev. G. M. Duke, Mr. W. H. Ruffin Make Loyal and Patriotic Speeches.

Thursday of last week was the occasion of another annual dinner to the old Veterans of Franklin county provided and served by the ladies of the Joseph J. Davis Chapter United Daughters of the Confederacy. The weather was fine and a large crowd were present.

At the appointed hour the veterans and a large number of citizens of the county gathered in the Graded school Grove where the feast was spread. In the absence of commander, H. C. Kearney, Captain P. G. Alston, acted, and presented Mr. W. H. Ruffin as master of ceremonies. Mr. Ruffin introduced Rev. G. M. Duke, one of Franklin's beloved ministers, who greeted his fellow comrades with one of his enthusiastic and always patriotic speeches, which was greatly enjoyed. Mr. Ruffin then announced that there would be no other speeches before dinner.

What was one of the most enjoyable dinners that has been served in Louisburg in many years was that to the old veterans and their guests by the ladies of the Joseph J. Davis Chapter on convenient little tables that made the occasion more enjoyable to the old heroes. The dinner was a most excellent one and was presented in generous quantities constituting a dinner more than enough for the number present. To the committee of the chapter much credit is due for so great a feast.

Dinner being over Mr. Ruffin in a most excellent speech presented to the audience Col. John S. Cunningham, of Durham. Before presenting the Colonel however, Mr. Ruffin made a most beautiful talk to the old veterans picturing to them the high places they occupied in the public's mind for the many heroic deeds they had done. In comparing the 60's with the present struggle in Europe he said "each of you were fighting for home and country and not for greed and gain for a few, thereby making of each of you a hero." Col. Cunningham was then presented and made an excellent address. He paid a beautiful tribute to Franklin county as the possessor of more real historical events than any other in the State and said it was a most noble worthy recognition that the Richmond Reunion gave in their action upon the question of the origin of the Confederate flag. He paid a most worthy tribute to the old heroes and their daughters who are striving to make their last days so pleasant, and suggests that a history of the county be written and dedicated to the old soldiers. Col. Cunningham was followed by Judge C. M. Cooke, known and loved by all of Franklin county and the State who delivered a most excellent address on loyalty. He spoke to the veterans as one of them and was well qualified to feel as they felt as he had served with them in the struggle both in and after the war. Among his remarks he introduced a resolution that the State place the old negroes who served their masters in the war on a pension, to them he said was due some recognition for the enthusiastic loyalty they presented. Their loyalty was beautiful.

Miss Jessica R. Smith was then introduced and made a most interesting address, in which she took occasion to express her appreciation to many for the assistance in the work of establishing her father's claim as the designer of the Stars and Bars. She then told in a most interesting and entertaining manner the history of how the honor had been won and concluded with references to the resolutions adopted by the Joseph J. Davis Chapter U. D. C. and the E. M. McKinney Camp U. D. V. of this county launching the movement of erecting a monument to the Stars and Bars in Louisburg.

It was then announced that the Management of the Star Theatre had extended a special invitation to all old veterans in town on this occasion to visit their Theatre at any and all times during that day to be their guests.

The citizens of Louisburg were recipients of many appreciations for the conveyance of the old soldiers to and from the grounds in automobiles.

In all it was a most enjoyable day. Below is a list of the old soldiers present on this occasion:

Directors Fair Association Meets.

At a called meeting of the directors of the Franklin county Fair Association held in Mr. J. A. Turner's office on Tuesday, the following business was transacted:

Mr. I. H. Kearney, upon a motion made by J. A. Turner, was appointed a committee of one to make arrangements with the Franklin Band for music during the Fair.

Upon a motion made by B. T. Holden it was ordered that an invitation be extended the military companies, of Franklin county, D. & F. respectively, including all officers, to attend the opening day of the Franklin County Fair, as guests of the Fair Association.

Upon a motion made by J. A. Turner the directors limited the amount to be given away in premiums to $500.00, including the amount given by the State.

Mr. E. L. Best made motion that a premium committee be appointed. The motion was carried and the following committee was appointed for the purpose of drawing up a premium list: M. McKinnis, Rev. Mitchiner, and M. S. Clifton.

The directors next ruled that the general admission to the Fair grounds should be twenty-five cents for all persons above five years of age—below this age free.

Upon motion made by E. L. Best, the following committee was appointed to confer with Mr. Leonard in regards to the lumber to be used for buildings: J. A. Turner, M. S. Clifton.

The directors next elected Mr. J. R. Collier assistant secretary.

A meeting of the Executive committee was also announced for Friday, September 3rd, at 4 o'clock in J. A. Turner's office, and the secretary was instructed to notify the members of this meeting.

There being no other business the meeting adjourned.

Walls Fell In.

A most serious accident was providentially averted yesterday morning when the west and north walls to the rear end of the Star Theatre fell in. A crowd of convicts were at work excavating preparatory to enlarging the new Theatre when the bottom of the walls slid into the hole which brought with them the top covering the convicts, who escaped damage. Work was begun immediately toward clearing up the debris.

When this addition is completed which is expected to be ready to occupy within a few weeks the Star Theatre will be in position to seat about one hundred more persons.

Louisburg Baptist Church.

Public worship Sunday 11 a. m. and 8:00 p. m. Sunday school 9:45 a. m. B. Y. P. U. Monday 8:00 p. m. The series of special meetings to be conducted by Rev. J. W. Hickerson, of Louisville, Ky., will begin Sunday October 19th a week later than was first announced. Mr. Hickerson is engaged in a meeting at present in Pheba, Miss.

C. A. SHORE, Director.

Pellagra.

Mr. Editor:

In two recent issues of your paper we had something to say about this disease at one time very prevalent in our county. It had assumed alarming proportions, and destructive results to mind and body, many of our good people having to be sent to the insane asylum and a number to untimely graves. Pellagra being a comparatively new disease among us and its termination having two such sad and awful goals, the insane asylum and the grave, the lately and the medical profession naturally became alarmed and deeply concerned about its presence so near to us. As stated before at a meeting of our County Commissioners on the first Monday in August, I was instructed as Public Health Physician to go to work and investigate the matter to obtain all the facts and information we could as to its history in the county, its advent, its frequency and its extent. After visiting many homes and communities we found the number of cases much larger than we had anticipated amounting to nearly one hundred.

About eight years ago the first case of pellagra made its appearance in our county, and from then up to the first of this past month there was rapid increase in the number of cases and in the severity of the disease. As we will give at some future time, a more concise and thorough report on Pellagra we will be content at present to state that we are glad the Physicians of the county have been very successful in treating the disease, that there have been no new cases since the first of August, no one has been sent to the asylum, and there has been no death as a result of this terror. We are also glad to state that the concourses of opinion lay and medical, is that it is essentially a dietary disease of dietary origin and that it is preventable and curable, non-contagious, but may be slightly infectious. Many Physicians have tried different remedies with success but these general directions will be always helpful as to the prevention of the trouble. Let your diet be of eggs, milk, butter, lean fresh meats, beans and peas, and soups of the last named vegetables with bread of milled meal. Drink water plentifully between meals—bathe often, don't think about Pellagra—don't talk about it—don't look at it, and don't read about it. Get all the mental recreation, diversion and fun out of life that you can. If you really think you have any symptoms of the disease, however consult your family Physician at once.

Respectfully,
COUNTY HEALTH OFFICER.

Marriage Licenses.

Register of Deeds Yarbrough issued marriage licenses to the following couples during the month of August:

White—Graham Brantley and Ida Medlin, John Hardy and Minnie Jarrell, Willie Macon and Ida Loug, F. E. Terrington and Ethel Pearce, H. J. Hight and Martha Morton, Rossie Murry and Nannie Mullen.

Colored—Percy Mitchell and Magie Davis, Herbert Golligan and Rosa Egerton, Moses Harris and Isey Horton, John Guess and Lilla Mangum, Simon Gupton and Maria Wilson, William Eaton and Ollie Newell, Andrew McKinney and Leona Yarbrough, Clarence Vines and Rilla Jones, Hugh Coppedge and Ula Lee Harris, Handy Perry and Lonie Epps, John Smith and Zellam Williams, John Page and Maria Perry.

Household Helps.

When removing gloves never begin at the tips of the fingers to pull them off, but turn back the wrist and draw the glove off wrong side out.

Rub the patent leather shoes with vaseline and allow to remain on the shoe half an hour. Wipe off with soft cloth and polish with a piece of cotton flannel. Keeps shoes soft and bright.

Scrape the sole of the boy's shoes with a file or rasp and save the little fellow many falls.

A cheap and excellent solution to use in drains and closets may be made by using one pound of copperas to one gallon of water. Turn into closet or drain at night.

For tired, inflamed eyelids there is nothing better than a cloth wrung out from hot water, apply to eyes and change the cloth often.

Captures Gull.

Deputy Collector Guiley Const. R. W. Hudson and Mr. J. S. Howell report the capturing of a still on the lands of Mr. W. W. Hines, in Cypress Creek township, near the Nash county line on Wednesday. Upon the scene they found evidence of two stills but both had been moved and one was found about fifty yards off sunk in a pond of water. It was gotten out and destroyed. They also destroyed fifty gallons of cider. No one was seen nor no whiskey captured.

Painful Hurt.

A Mr. Batchelor, of Nash county, one of the ball players for Spring Hope received a very painful lick from a pitched ball in a game between Spring Hope and Louisburg on the local diamond on Tuesday afternoon. The ball struck the young man on the temple and we are informed, crushed the bone. He was taken to the Hospital in Rocky Mount for treatment. In this game Louisburg was victorious in a decisive score.

St. Paul's Church.

Service Sunday, September 5th at St. Paul's church will be morning prayer sermon and the administration of the Holy Communion at 11 a. m. and evening prayer and sermon at 8 p. m. Rev. Harding Hughes will officiate. All cordially welcome.

Louisburg Defeats Franklin.

Louisburg defeated Franklin in a ball game here Wednesday in a score of 12 and 6. Several innings proved very interesting and the score stood a tie but soon the interest was broken with an easy victory.

Where, oh where, is peace?
