

PREMIUM LIST

Rules and Regulations of the First Annual Fair of the Franklin County Fair Association To Be Held at Louisburg, N. C., October 12th, 13th, 14th, 15th and 16th, 1915.

RULES

No peddling, hawking, vending or distributing of advertising matter, or side shows will be allowed upon the grounds at any time except by special license from the Secretary.

Every reasonable care will be taken by the officers of the Society for the protection of the property on exhibition from loss or damage in any way, but the society will not be responsible should loss or damage occur.

The officers of the Society will withhold the premium in any case in which it appears that fraud or deception has been attempted or the Rules have not been observed.

Reasonable space will be allowed all exhibitors up to the capacity of the buildings and grounds, but exhibitors must provide for their own tables, shelves, show cases, etc., unless such as are furnished on the premises will suit their use.

Entry books will be open all day long on Monday and Tuesday of Fair Week, and all exhibits must be entered on these days, and they positively will not be entered later.

The officers of the Society will appoint the judges, who shall award the premiums in such manner and at such times as they see fit. They will also see that no premium is awarded to any animal or exhibit not individually worthy or meritorious, as it is not the intention of the Society to encourage indifferent productions of any kind.

Exhibitors will please note carefully the special rules for each department and comply with same.

In no case will premiums be paid any exhibitor who accompanies the judges when awarding the premiums.

When the judges deem it proper, when two separate exhibits for the same premium are of equal merit, the premium will be divided between the exhibitors.

The Secretary will enter and care for all articles shipped prepaid to him, but all articles shipped "collect" will be refused.

Please notify the Secretary by mail of all shipments.

The Society reserves the right, in accordance with its By-Laws, to deduct the expenses of this coming Fair from the amount of moneys on hand at its close and pay these premiums pro rata.

Admission

Adults 50 cents, Children (7 to 12 years) 25 cents. Special rates to societies, schools, military organizations, etc., named on application.

Important Notice

On Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of Fair Week absolutely no parties will be allowed to pass the gates free of charge for any reason whatever.

All officers and employees will be properly badged and will pass on their badges.

All others must have regular passes or tickets, and everybody must respect the gate-keeper, marshals, police officers, etc., in their efforts to preserve the peace and maintain perfect order and decorum.

Third Prizes for Agricultural Exhibits

The following premiums are offered for the best agricultural exhibit, all the products of one farmer and grown by him on his farm or the largest in variety and quality of products also be considered, and the most attractively displayed.

Parties exhibiting for these premiums must hand in to the Secretary a formal affidavit to the effect that these products as exhibited were grown and raised by him on his farm or farms as a part of his crop for the year 1915 or the judge will not consider the exhibit. First prize $15.00, Second prize $10.00, Third prize $5.00. Exhibits competing for this prize will not be allowed to compete for any single prize.

DEPARTMENT B

Live Stock

Live stock exhibited for premiums must be entered in the name of the owner and must be owned in Franklin or adjoining counties.

All animals must be individually meritorious, or the premiums will be withheld.

The premiums are liberal and stock passes will be furnished attendants.

In all cases an animal is entered as a particular breed or as a standard breed, his authenticated pedigree must be shown and approved by the judges, or he shall only be entitled to a premium as a "grade" of the breed mentioned.

This rule will be strictly adhered to as the premiums offered for Standard Breeds are liberal and are offered to encourage the breeding of better stock and the keeping for breeding purposes of standard and registered bred sires, etc.

Horses

All horses, colts, mules and ponies must be on parade in the field of the race track on Friday morning promptly at 11:30 o'clock and will be dismissed by the judges as soon as the awards are made.
