Hill Live Stock Co's. Notice To Their Customers Who Owe Them Better Be Safe First Than Worry Later.

Pay your debts, be a live dog with a chance to run about barking and enjoying life but to be always in debt is to be like a lion in a cage, and to be sold out or sued is to die in the cage. We have a large amount of money that we carried over from last year due us, and a large amount we put out this year that we are compelled to collect to pay our debts. We have waited until November 1st, but now we must have it. There are a lot of men in this county who have been educated not to pay their honest debts, now, if we have to bring a suit we are not going to give you coupons, but we are going to give you, if you don't pay us something else—the young lady who is doing the writing on this, does not like to write, but unless you pay us, you are going to smell it. Unless the people of Franklin County pay their debts better, wholesale dealers will think that civilization has disappeared in Louisburg and the dark ages have returned. We have some pikers in this county who manage to make ends meet with a good outside show, but when you call for your money, he shows you his yellowness. Cotton is high and cotton seed is higher and tobacco is high, sell it and pay us what you owe us. Even the devil despises a quitter. Some of you have lived full, fed and fat a long time but your day of grace will soon be here—November 1st. We will pull off our annual mortgage sale sometime the latter part of November or the first of December. Get your money ready, we expect this sale to be the Grandday of all mortgage sales ever held in Franklin County. Watch for large posters.

Hill Live Stock Co'y. K. P. HILL, President.

RECORD - BROKEN

We broke our own record today, TUESDAY, NOV. 2. Our entire sale of Tobacco averaged 16 cents per pound. This is the best average that has been made in Louisburg this season. We will name a few of Franklin County's progressive farmers that helped make this average by selling with the Old Reliable Independent Warehouse where Tobacco sells over its merit.

We Sell Tobacco, Not Men.

A. M. Boone, A. M. Stearin, Uzzell and Ransdale, W. J. Privett, Williams & Davis, Uzzell & Wilder, H. A. Strickland, Robert Wright, C. E. House, A. W. Strickland, G. D. Davis, L. G. Turnage, Peter Hawkins, Thomas & T, Thomas Crudup, Beddingfield & R, Beddingfield & P, H. F. Perry, B. S. Pace, C. M. Stallings, Frank Davis, Bailey & Wheelless, Joseph Denton, B. M. C. Mullen, J. R. Johnson, Crudup & Rogers, A. T. Shearin, Joe Kingsberry, J. S. Perry, C. B. Young, C. R. Young, P. E. Dean, Isham Hunt, Tol & L. M. West, and Kearney Gilliam.

Tobacco is selling higher every day and John Harris, Jim Turner and Ben Williamson will work harder and see that your tobacco is not overlooked and run over. Try us with your next load and join the Progressive Farmers.

ORPHANS' ASSOCIATION URGES DONATION OF ONE DAY'S INCOME TO THE WORK.

To Every Friend of The Fatherless: The North Carolina Orphans' Association Urges Upon Every Woman, and Child in the State of North Carolina the Importance of Contributing one Day's Income to the Orphanage Work of the State as a Thanksgiving Offering.

Thousands of children are safely sheltered in our Orphan Homes, but four times as many are as yet uncared for and left to shift for themselves in a world of temptation and peril without a father's counsel or a mother's care—without a home, a penny or a friend! It is primarily in behalf of these homeless ones that this movement is launched. We must enlarge our orphanage and admit more of the little ones on the outside, who are clamoring to come in. Each institute in the State is crowded to its utmost capacity, with a steam of children standing at the gates and crying for admission. If a tithe of the citizens of North Carolina will give the price of one day's labor to the orphanage work, it will mean the salvation of a thousand North Carolina children now on their way to the dogs and the devil. Is this work not worthy of the best effort of every good citizen?

Governor Craig Endorses.

In a personal letter to a member of the publicity committee, His Excellency, Governor Locke Craig, wrote on November 3: "I have read with interest the address to the press of North Carolina made by the committee composed of M. L. Shipman, J. R. Young, J. S. Carr, Archibald Johnson, C. B. McNairy, and Hight C. Moore. I hope that the people will read this address and profit by it. It sets forth the work of the institutions for the orphans of the State with earnestness and power. It is an appeal that will have its effect, and will meet with response from the good people of North Carolina."

Appeal of President Paris.

The President of the North Carolina Orphans' Association, Rev. Zadok Paris, of Lincolnton, sends out this appeal: "Whereas, our kind Father above has blessed us with peace and plenty, and in recognition of this the President of the United States and the Governor of North Carolina have set apart Thursday, November 25, 1915, as a National Thanksgiving Day; I, Zadok Paris, president of the North Carolina Orphans' Association, do respectfully ask every citizen of North Carolina irrespective of color, politics, or religion, to set apart one day's earnings to be sent on Thanksgiving Day, to the orphanage of his choice, or some needy orphan in his community."

The Good Example of Doctor.

This interesting story appeared in the Winston-Salem Journal, November 7: "The movement, started in January, when a central committee, composed of people of all denominations, met in Raleigh and decided to ask every man in the State to set apart the earnings of one day and give it to the orphanage in the State in which he was most interested, is already gaining ground. One man, a physician, decided not to wait until Thanksgiving to make his donation, as had been suggested, but used a novel way in selecting a day in October and has already sent in a nice little sum toward helping the fatherless and motherless. His letter to Mr. Walter Thompson, superintendent of the Children's Home here, reads as follows: 'I named October 22 as the day to give what I made to the children. This was a chance day, as I put the dates of October in a hat and this date was drawn out. I did $23 worth of work that day, and collected $10 of it, for which I am sending you check. The balance, $13, was charged, but I think I shall be able to collect it and when I do I shall forward it to you. The same day I performed an operation on a boy in one of the charitable institutions near by, and treated several children for our local associated charities. The amount could have proven smaller, also larger, and I hope next year it will prove a better one.'

Chamberlain's Tablets.

This is a medicine intended especially for stomach troubles, biliousness and constipation. It is meeting with much success and rapidly gaining in favor and popularity. OBTAINABLE EVERYWHERE.

A Pine Whooping Cough Remedy.

Motmers, Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey is just the remedy for your children's cold ailments. The fact is that pine is a quick enemy of cold conditions. Its qualities loosen the mucus in the throat, soothe the lungs and open up the air passages. The combination of honey, soothing and pleasant, with the loosening pine quality makes this an ideal cough remedy for children. Each passing year brings for it, new friends: A family of growing children cannot afford to be without it. 25c a bottle.

Secret Corner Sage.

"I've played a lot of checkers in my time," remarked the Sage the other afternoon as he sat watching two men moving the wooden disks across the red and black board.

"Iuster be counted the best they wuz jest thinkin' as I seen yew fellers making a lot of mistakes in that 'are game that I reckon I'd bep urty nigh able to hold my own yet."

"I recollect one feller that come tultown one time 'at claimed to be champion checker player of the state. Nothin'd do the boys 'sept fer me to play 'im. I beat him seventeen straight games an' it made him so affrid mad he quit. Wuz'nt but one game he even got a king."

A well dressed stranger who was watching the game with considerable interest glanced patronizingly at the speaker.

"I use to be somewhat of a checker player myself" he said, "and I've heard a lot about you old timers. I'd like to play you a few games, Uncle, just for the sake of getting a few pointers, and I'll guarantee you I won't get angry if you beat me."

The Sage looked at his watch with a nervous expression.

"I gotta go home now an' carry in the coal" he explained as he hurried toward the door.
