Lesson VIII.—Fourth Quarter,
For Nov. 21, 1915.

Text of the Lesson, Jonah iii, 1-10.
Memory Verse, 10—Golden Text,
Matt. xxviii, 19, 20—Commentary Prepared by Rev. D. M. Stearns.

Any one who questions the truth or the reality of this story of Jonah casts discredit on the Lord Jesus Christ, for He called Jonah a prophet and said that his three days and nights in the belly of the fish were typical of His own three days and nights between His death and resurrection. He also spoke of the repentance of the people of Nineveh under the preaching of Jonah and of a future judgment (Matt. xii, 39-41; Luke xi, 32). To question the words of the Lord Jesus is to question God the Father, for He said that the Father always told Him what to say (John xii, 47-50). Jesus Christ said, "I am the Truth," and God is called "the God of Truth" (John xiv, 6; Isa. lxxv, 16). Therefore let our hearts cry, "Let God be true, but every man a liar;" "For we can do nothing against the truth, but for the truth" (Rom. iiii, 4; II Cor. xiii, 8).

When Jonah is mentioned people always think of the fish, whereas the fish is mentioned but four times in the book, while God or Lord is mentioned forty times. We are not as right with God as we might be until we give the same relative importance to people and things that He does; therefore let us not magnify the fish, but the Lord. This is called a foreign missionary lesson, and it is certainly a good one on that topic, as we shall see. Two of the great foundation truths of the Bible are "God is love" and "The Lord is not willing that any should perish" (I John iv, 8, 10; II Pet. iii, 9). In this lesson we see a great city of at least 600,000 people (120,000 children) and much cattle, and there was great wickedness in the city (Jonah i, 2; iv, 11), but God would rather save than destroy them, and He sent Jonah to call upon them to repent that He might spare them.

That is always God's attitude to the world lying in the wicked one. He commandeth all men everywhere to repent, for He will have all men to be saved and to come unto the knowledge of the truth (Acts xviii, 20; I Tim. ii, 3, 4). But how can they know unless some one tells? So Jonah is called of God to go and tell Nineveh that, while the Lord does not wish them to perish, unless they repent judgment will come in forty days (i, 1, 2; iii, 4). At first Jonah is unwilling to go and seeks to flee from the call. Then follows the record of the voyage to Tarshish begun seemingly so favorably, but suddenly interrupted, for God sent two detectives to arrest His man and bring him back. A great wind to stop him and a great ship to bring him ashore (i, 4, 17). Arrested on the high seas and brought back, it reads like an up to date story, for our God is always up to date and away ahead. Look at the wireless and rapid transit as seen in the story of Daniel and Gabriel (Dan. ix, 2, 20, 21).

As to the present day attitude of those who profess to be the Lord's people toward the command of our Golden Text and of Mark xvi, 15; Luke xxiv, 47; John xx, 21, 23; Acts i, 8, could there be a more vivid picture than that of Jonah on this ship before the captain woke him up? The only man on the ship who knew the true God fast asleep, while the heathen sailors earnestly cried unto their gods. Those who have the Bible and in it the knowledge of the living and true God and of salvation by Jesus Christ for all who will receive Him are as indifferent to the welfare of the millions of so called heathen who are earnestly calling upon their gods as was Jonah when fast asleep on that ship. They need to hear the cry of that shipmaster: "What meanest thou, O sleeper? Arise, call upon thy God, if so be that God will think upon us that we perish not" (i, 6).

If we had anointed ears we might hear the heathens say, "Arise and tell us of thy God and of His great salvation." And we would surely hear God saying, "Whom shall I send and who will go for us?" (Isa. vi, 8.) If God was seeking in this age to win the world to Himself both He and we might well be discouraged, but He is not discouraged, and He cannot fail (Isa. xlii, 4). This book of Jonah shows us his plan. Jonah was an Israelite. After his resurrection from the dead, in a figure, he went to Nineveh and preached the preaching that the Lord bade him, and a whole city repented (chapter iii). I do not know of another instance on record of a whole city turning to God. Now see the foreshadowing of His plan. Israel has long been rebellious, but when they shall see the Lord Jesus, the risen Christ, their glorious and glorified Messiah, coming in His glory, as Saul saw Him on the way to Damascus, they will receive Him and with the zeal of Paul will speedily make Him known to all the world, and whole nations will turn to Him and be saved (Isa. xxv, 9; xxvii, 8; xxxv, 10; III, 9, 10; ix, 1-3; Rom. xi, 12, 15). Notice in this book how God used a wind, a fish, a worm and even such a strange man as Jonah and, being first of all sure that you are redeemed by the precious blood of Jesus Christ, say to Him with all your heart, "Here am I; use me." Oh, use me, Lord, use even me, just as thou wilt, and when and where, until Thy blessed face I see; Thy rest, Thy joy, Thy glory share.

What Do You Think?

When you meet a fellow on the street and his face is warped and twisted by an unholy scowl, what do you think?
When a lazy buffer hogs a whole seat on a train and lets a tired woman stand with a baby in her arms, what do you think?
When John Smith whispered into your ear that Tom Jones "is a good one to look out for," but that you must not tell anyone that he (Smith) said so, what do you think?
When one woman tells you that another woman "is the biggest gossip in town and that the gossip's own closet is just jammed with skeletons," what do you think?
When a politician promises you the earth with an iron fence around it and the moon with all its green cheese if you will only vote for him, what do you think?
When a man coughs up a stiff prayer in church on Sunday and then skins you on a sharp deal on Monday what do you think?
When a preacher tells you of the glories of religion and of the benefits of purity in your daily life, and goes off and eats his Sunday dinner with the biggest old church hypocrite in town, what do you think?
When you hear a fellow bragging of the great deeds he has done and you know he is lying faster than an automobile can speed, what do you think?
When a man tells you a smutty story of some good woman and you know her character is as white as his soul is black, what do you think?
When you hear a young braggart making suggestive remarks about every young girl in town except his own sister, what do you think?
When you see one man trying to undermine the legitimate business of another by making veiled allusions to possible financial disaster, what do you think?
When a man owes you a dollar and crosses the street to avoid meeting you, what do you think?
When a girl leads a man on to declaring himself and then deliberately tosses him over without compunction, what do you think?
When a man trifles with the affections of a good woman and then is not honorable enough to live up to his word, what do you think?
When a duffer borrows a five spot from you and promises to return it tomorrow, and tomorrow never comes, what do you think?
When a man looks you in the eye and tells you a deliberate lie, and you know that he is lying and that he knows that you know it, what do you think?
And if you should happen to do any of these things, what do you think other people would think?

Slinging The Slush

At Washington dispatch reads: "Mrs. McAdoo, wife of the secretary of the treasury and daughter of President Wilson, appeared on the street today with a cane. It was an ebony hued cane with a crooked handle, inlaid with silver. Now and then she hooked it over her arm."
How interesting! And what a display of journalistic ingenuity in ferretting out and dishing up to a strait world the really important events of the day. But this Solomon of the press neglects to tell us the length of the cane, its size and weight, the store from which it was purchased and the angle at which it was carried. Such omissions are reprehensible in modern journalism.
