

Catarrh and Colds Relieved

To Be Rid of Catarrh

Is a great achievement. Most people would be well and happy were it not for catarrh. It is worth ten years of any one's life to learn how to get rid of catarrh.

PE-RU-NA

will show you, much quicker than any one could tell you, how to get rid of catarrh.

THE PERUNA CO., Columbus, Ohio

Mrs. Emma Gannon, 107 E. South St., Kewanee, Ill., writes: "For fifteen years I had catarrh of the head and stomach. I could hardly walk. My attention was called to 'The Ills of Life.' I read it through. Then bought a bottle of Peruna. I am entirely well now."

Democratic Convention May Meet in June; Champion Boy Corn Raiser of Ohio; Thanksgiving Dinner in New York; Prohibition Bill to be Introduced in Next Congress.

Democratic sentiment, judging from reports received by William F. McCombs, chairman of the National Committee, favors an early national convention. Mr. McCombs said that from what he had gathered from the members of his committee it was likely that the convention would be held during the first two weeks of June. "We are the dominant party now," said the chairman, "and usually the party in power holds its convention first." Bids for the convention have been received from Chicago, St. Louis, Dallas and San Francisco.

Dewey Hanes, of Arcanum, Ohio, is the champion boy corn grower of Ohio. He raised 156.76 bushels of corn on one acre this year in the juvenile contest contested by the Ohio State Board of Agriculture and as a reward will make a trip through the east on board the Buckeye Corn Boys' special train with his expenses paid by the State.

Senator Sheppard, of Texas has announced that he will introduce a bill for nation-wide prohibition the day Congress opens. The fight for prohibition is going to be fast and furious next session and the South will lead the battle.

Henry Ford called upon President Wilson Wednesday in support of the movement for a neutral conference to attempt to end the European war and establish a permanent peace. He told the President he considered Christmas the best time for such a movement, but declined to say how the President had received his suggestions.

Inauguration of a general campaign in every cotton producing State for crop diversification and organization of a permanent conference of Southern bankers are among the projects planned for the conference of cotton States bankers in New Orleans December 6 and 7.

Congressman Jacob E. Meeker, of St. Louis, addressing a suffrage meeting in St. Louis Tuesday, created an uproar when he said that in Denver, so he had been told, women sold their votes for $50 each, and that the votes of society women there could be bought with theater tickets.

New high records in the foreign trade of the United States continue to pile up in the greatest favorable trade balance the country has ever known. The movement of merchandise and gold shown in figures made public Tuesday by the department of commerce discloses how decidedly the United States has been converted from a debtor to a creditor nation. During the twelve months ending with October the foreign trade exceeded $5,000,000,000. Imports were $1,691,748,013 and exports $3,318,631,636.

FORD IS SWAMPED WITH PEACE OFFERS

So Numerous Are Replies To Ship Offer That More Room Is Necessary.

New York, Nov. 28.—The response to the invitation of Henry Ford to accompany him to Europe in an endeavor to bring about peace among the warring nations has been so great, it was announced at Mr. Ford's headquarters here tonight that additional accommodations have had to be obtained. It was announced Mr. Ford had chartered the first and second cabins of the Scandinavian American liner Frederick VIII in addition to the quarters on the Oscar II, of the same line already provided. The Frederick VIII will sail from New York December 8.

Inability to leave their state business was the reason given by many governors at the headquarters.

Among those accepting the invitation are Mr. Joseph Fels, Philadelphia; Mrs. Helen Ring Robinson, Denver; the Rev. Charles F. Aked, San Francisco, and Arthur L. Weatherby, secretary of the Nebraska Peace Society.
