

SEVERE PUNISHMENT

Of Mrs. Chappell, of Five Years' Standing, Relieved by Cardui.

Mt. Airy, N. C.—Mrs. Sarah M. Chappell of this town, says: "I suffered for five years with womanly troubles, also stomach troubles, and my punishment was more than any one could tell.

I tried most every kind of medicine, but none did me any good.

I read one day about Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I decided to try it. I had not taken but about six bottles until I was almost cured. It did me more good than all the other medicines I had tried, put together.

My friends began asking me why I looked so well, and I told them about Cardui. Several are now taking it."

Do you, lady reader, suffer from any of the ailments due to womanly trouble, such as headache, backache, sideache, sleeplessness, and that everlastingly tired feeling?

If so, let us urge you to give Cardui a trial. We feel confident it will help you, just as it has a million other women in the past half century.

Begin taking Cardui to-day. You won't regret it. All druggists.

SYNOPSIS OF THE PRIMARY LAW.

An elector offering to vote shall declare his political affiliation and shall then be furnished by the registrar ballots, as desired by him, of the political party with which he affiliates, which he may vote, and he shall not in such primary be allowed to vote a ticket marked with the name of any political party of which he has not declared himself to be a member;

any one may at any time any elector proposes to vote challenge his right to vote in the primary of any party upon the ground that he does not affiliate with such party, or does not in good faith intend to support the candidates nominated in the primary of such party; and it shall be the duty of the registrar and judges of election upon such challenge to determine whether or not the elector has a right to vote in said primary.

Provided, that he may vote for candidates for all or any of the offices printed on such ballot, as he shall elect, and he shall be required to disclose the name of the political party printed thereon, and no more.

Only names marked to be counted; may vote for only one candidate for each office.

Voter may deposit his ballots in the proper ballot boxes or permit the registrar or a judge of election to deposit them.

Any person who has become of the age of twenty-one years between the time when the books closed for registration and the day of the primary election, and who is otherwise a qualified elector, and who desires to register and vote as a member of a political party, may do so in the manner herein provided.

Primary polling books to be provided;

on such books shall be entered the name of the voter and opposite his name the party ticket voted;

books to be filed in the office of the clerk of the superior court;

polling booths to be provided by the county boards of elections and the judges and registrar in each precinct, where the voter may, if he desires, prepare his ballot in secret;

the judges and registrar to give any voter any information he may desire as to what kind of ballot he is entitled to vote, and the names of the candidates and any information necessary to enable him to mark his ballot as he desires.

At the written request of the chairman of any political party of any county, the judges and registrar of any precinct shall designate the name of some elector in each precinct, if there be such elector, who affiliates with such political party, who shall be furnished the opportunity to observe the method of holding such primary election; but such elector shall in no manner interfere with the method of holding such election or interfere or communicate with or observe any voter in casting his ballot, but shall make such observation and notes of the manner of holding such election and the counting of the ballots as he may desire;

Provided, nothing herein contained shall be construed to prevent any elector from casting at the general election a free and untrammelled ballot for the candidate or candidates of his choice.

Sec. 12. When the polls have been closed, the primary ballot boxes shall be opened in the presence of the registrar and judges of election and such electors as may desire to be present.

The ballots of each of the several parties in the boxes in each precinct shall be counted and bound in separate packages, and the result shall be certified to the proper county board of elections, and by them to the state board of elections, upon blanks to be provided by the state board of elections.

Sec. 13. Only those who have filed notice of their candidacy and have complied with the requirements of law shall have their names printed on the official ballot.

The sole candidate for a particular state senate in a district composed of two or more counties, shall be declared the nominee of his party, and his name shall not therefore be placed on the primary ballot, but shall be placed on the ballot to be voted at the general election.

Sec. 14. Primary to be held on Saturday, June 3, 1916, for county offices; candidates shall file notice with the county board of elections and shall take the pledge required of candidates filing notice with the state board of elections.

Sec. 15. State board of elections, prior to the time fixed by law for the appointment of registrars and judges of elections (April 22, 1916), shall prescribe, print and furnish notices of candidacy for candidates for county offices; the county boards of elections shall have printed and shall provide official ballots for county offices similar in form and otherwise to the ballots provided for state offices, and shall distribute the same to the several precincts in the manner and at the time prescribed in the case of state offices.

Sec. 16. The provisions with respect to voting in the primary for state offices shall apply to the primary election for county offices when not inconsistent with the provisions with reference to such primary elections for county offices; the returns in such primary elections for county officers shall be certified to the appropriate county board of elections, which shall declare and publish the results.

Sec. 17. That the several county boards of elections shall prepare, print and distribute the ballots for candidates for nomination as members of the general assembly, and on the same ballot of each party shall be printed the names of the candidates for nomination for the several county offices, and such ballots shall be distributed to the several registrars and judges of election at the same time that the ballots for state officers are required to be distributed under the provisions of this act; and said county boards of elections shall take receipts therefor, and the several registrars shall have such ballots at their respective polling places for the use of the electors at the time of holding the primary.

Sec. 18. That all ballots for nomination for county officers shall be deposited in the box labeled,

"Legislative Primary Box," hereinbefore provided for, which box, in addition to bearing the label, "Legislative Primary Box," shall also immediately thereunder be labeled, "County Primary Box."

Sec. 19. The sole candidate for life state senate in a district composed of only one county, for the house of representatives, or for a county office, shall be declared the nominee of his party, and his name shall not, therefore, be placed on the primary ballot, but shall be placed on the ballot to be voted at the general election.

Sec. 20. That the several county boards of elections are hereby given authority to provide for holding in their respective counties primary elections for the choice of candidates for the nominations for township and precinct offices, and to prescribe and fix the rules and regulations under which the same shall be held; and the expenses thereof shall be paid by the several counties.

Sec. 21. The registrar and judges of election at such precinct shall certify upon blanks prepared and printed by the state board of elections the result of the primary election;

there shall be made two copies of returns; one copy shall be filed with the clerk of the court and one with the county board of elections;

it shall be the duty of the judges and registrars to preserve and keep for six months after each election the original ballots, cast at such election, which ballots, after being counted, shall be placed in bundles, a separate and distinct bundle to be made of the ballots of each and every political party cast in each of the boxes; and each box in which ballots were cast shall be carefully sealed up before the election officers shall separate, so that nothing put in may be taken from them, and the signature of the registrar and judges of each precinct shall be inscribed at the same time on a seal placed on each box of the precinct, and no box shall be opened except upon written order of the county board of elections or a proper order of court.

The state board of elections shall prepare the printed form of returns to be made by the judges and registrars, so as to show the number of votes cast for each candidate.

Sec. 21½. The county boards of elections shall tabulate the returns made by the judges and registrars on blanks to be prepared and furnished by the state board of elections; these returns, in the case of offices other than the state senate in districts composed of only one county, the house of representatives, and county offices, shall be made out for each county in duplicate, and one copy shall be forwarded to the state board of elections and one copy shall be filed with the clerk of the superior court of the county from which such returns are made.

In the case of member of the state senate in district composed of only one county, members of house of representatives, and county officers, such returns shall be made out in duplicate, and one copy thereof filed with the clerk of the superior court and (Continued on Sixth Page)

Told That There Was No Cure For Him.

Mr. J. S. Howell, Louisburg, N. C.

Marion, N. C., March 17th, 1916

Dear Sir: Replying to your letter of 5th, will say that order was duly received through Mr. Harris, and we thank you for same, which shall have our best attention when we ship. We noted from one of your former letters that you were not in a hurry for the goods, and we will be governed by your instructions, I. E. shipment to be made from April 15th to May 1st. You made money on this order, as today's prices are from 10 to 20 per cent higher, and on account of scarcity of material as well as high prices, furniture will probably be advanced still higher in the next few months. However, we had taken the trouble to protect ourselves on lumber and mirrors, and were glad to be able to sell you at old prices.

Yours very truly, CATAWBA FURNITURE CO.

Your Patronage Will be Appreciated.
