A report says there are hundreds of men who want to serve in the army under Roosevelt.

If Mexico has not invited war with the United States we cannot see to say our lives what her actions have meant.

Secretary Lansing says the United States has nothing to mediate with Mexico. He is right. But we have something to resent.

The railroads are making big preparations to be able to cope with the requirements of the government in transporting the troops.

A dispatch from Morehead City says that 20 per cent of the First Regiment were rejected on examination, the larger number of whom were under weight.

Services at St. Paul's Church. Services at St. Paul's church will be at 8 p. m., Sunday July 3rd. Rev. N. Colin Hughes, of Raleigh, officiating. Evening prayer and sermon. All cordially welcomed.

It looks to us that the parleying between the United States and Mexico has gone on long enough. Its time to fight or quit talking about it. The people generally are getting tired of the exchange of notes.

Louisburg Baptist Church. Public worship Sunday at 11 a. m. and 8.15 p. m. Subject of morning sermon, "The Things that Last." of the night sermon, "Death in the Pot." You are cordially invited.

The trouble with getting recruits in the United States Army is more in the pay and subordination than anything else. Surely the government can't expect its citizens to do work for it for less pay than they can get elsewhere, especially when the risk of life is so great. The present crisis nor the regular standing army cannot be reckoned by a sight for liberty, when every man would enter for principle rather than pay. The present army pay arrangements are antiquated and entirely behind the times. No doubt it was right and fair when it was instituted, but not now. The fact that officers receive from $5 to $25 or more a day with all liberties, and the private only about 45 cents and no liberties is not in keeping with our principles of government.

TRY IT! SUBSTITUTE FOR NASTY CALOMEL.

Starts Your Liver Without Making you sick and can not Salivate.

Every druggist in town—your druggist and everybody's druggist has noticed a great falling off in the sale of calomel. They all give the same reason. Dodson's Liver Tonic is taking its place.

"Calomel is dangerous and people know it, while Dodson's Liver Tonic is perfectly safe and gives better results, said a prominent local druggist. Dodson's Liver Tonic is personally guaranteed by every druggist who sells it. A large bottle costs 50 cents, and if it fails to give easy relief in every case of liver sluggishness and constipation, you have only to ask for your money back.

Dodson's Liver Tonic is a pleasant-tasting purely vegetable remedy, harmless to both children and adults. Take a spoonful at night and wake up feeling fine; no biliousness, sick headache, acid stomach or constipated bowels. It doesn't gripe or cause inconvenience all the next day like violent calomel. Take a dose of calomel today and tomorrow you will feel weak, sick and nauseated. Don't lose a day's work! Take Dodson's Liver Tonic instead and feel fine, full of vigor and ambition.

FIRST REGIMENT SAFELY IN CAMP

REACHES CAMP GLENN WITHOUT A MISHAP—33 OFFICERS AND 1,145 MEN.

OTHER COMPANIES ARRIVING

Ambulance Company No. 1 and Field Hospital With 59 Men Are in Camp—Other Infantry Moving.

Morehead City.—The First North Carolina Infantry arrived at Camp Glenn without a mishap of any kind. Since arrival everybody has been busy making camp. Everybody is well with clear sky and delicious landward breezes. The whole regiment is under canvas with 83 officers and 1,145 men.

These are the figures of the companies: Company A, Hickory, Captain Lylerly, 113 men; Company B, Gastonia, Captain Bulwinkle, 125 men; Company C, Winston-Salem, Captain Wooten, 101; Company D, Charlotte, Captain Parker, 128; Company E, Statesville, Captain Westmoreland, 80; Company F, Asheville, Captain Felmet, 51; Company G, Shelby, Captain Logan, 74; Company H, Waynesville, Lieutenant Ploet, 70; Company I, Mount Airy, Captain Walker, 74; Company K, Asheville, Captain Bard, 65; Company L, Concord, Captain Brown, 142; Company M, High Point, Captain Zollcoffer, 103.

Concord is banner company with Charlotte and Gastonia close seconds, while Asheville stepped out with two companies.

Other arrivals were Ambulance company No. 1 with four officers and 78 men, all from Canton. This company brings men, 12 field ambulances, 3 supply wagons and complete equipment for field service including 73 horses and mules to move organization, in field. The field hospital with 69 men from Asheville has also reached camp. On Charlotte special came Medicos Major Baxter Hunter, Captain Henry Norris and Lieutenant McConnell.

Officers here are Colonel Gardner, Lieutenant Colonel Beasant, Major Phannigan, Major Robertson, Major Howell, Capt. R. R. Morrison, Inspector small arms practice; Capt. R. H. Morrison, regimental commissary; Capt. A. W. Freeman, regimental adjutant; Capt. Swope, chaplain; First Lieutenant Gardner, adjutant, third battalion; Lieutenant Gardner, battalion quartermaster and commissary; Lieutenant Jackson, battalion quartermaster and commissary; First Lieutenant Rufus Johnston, battalion adjutant, second battalion. The two Gardner are sons of Colonel Gardner.

At meeting of the officers of the regiment representing themselves and men, unanimously recommended to Gov. Craig, and so wrote him this afternoon, to urge President to commission General L. W. Young as brigade commander of three North Carolina regiments. They felt that his 15 years' service makes him the fittest man, and personally regard him as most effective cohesive force North Carolina troops could have.

YOUNG TAKES COMMAND GUARDSMEN THIS WEEK.

Raleigh.—Gen. Laurence W. Young and Assistant Adj. Gen. Gordon Smith spent the day at Camp Glenn, Morehead City, giving their personal attention to the reception and adequate installing of the soldiers of the First North Carolina Regiment in mobilization quarters. They returned to Raleigh on the night train and are well pleased with the manner in which the mobilization movements are being carried out.

There were no changes in the situation in Raleigh. General Young is serving as both Brigadier and Adjutant General until Gen. E. S. Royster relieves him of the duties in the Adjutant General's office, when he will definitely assume the command of the North Carolina Guardsmen as Brigadier General to command them for the service on the Mexican border, or wherever "duty calls."

700 Mexicans at Carrizal. Columbus, N. M.—Sam H. Harris, a private in C Troop of the Tenth Cavalry, was brought to the border with bullet wounds in the left shoulder and arm received in the engagement at Carrizal. He said that there were fully 700 Mexicans against the 24 men of the American detachment.

Captain Morey is Safe. San Antonio, Texas.—Capt. Lewis Sydney Morey is safe, having reached the main body of American troops with two of his men, according to a message to General Funston received from Mrs. Morey.

Canton Ambulance Company Departs. Canton.—Canton Ambulance Company, at full war strength of 84 men, commanded by Capt. T. F. Reynolds, left here for Morehead City. The people of the town gave the members of the company a big send-off—$100 was raised to buy refreshments for the occasion and tobacco for the soldiers. The Canton Council Junior O. U. A. M. presented a Bible and flag to the men.

AMERICAN CAPTAIN SENDS LETTER TO PERSHING DESCRIBING CARRIZAL AMBUSH.

FIRST SURVIVORS TELL OF BATTLE AT CARRIZAL

Captain Lewis Sidney Morey of the Tenth Cavalry Writes His Wife That He is Safe on the American Line of Soldiers.

San Antonio, Texas.—Left to die of loss of blood and thirst, two miles from the scene of the encounter between Mexican and American troops at Carrizal, Capt. Lewis Sydney Morey of the Tenth Cavalry has made back to the American lines.

General Funston received by telephone from Mrs. Morey, now at Austin, Tex., the following message which reached her by wireless from the field:

"Somewhere in Mexico. Am back on the line with two men, safe. 'SYDNEY.'"

That, according to Mrs. Morey, was the manner in which Captain Morey signed all communications to her. A letter from Captain Morey written while hiding in a hole near the scene of the fight at Carrizal, after his men had been broken and scattered by the Mexican force, was received by General Funston through General Pershing.

Letter Tells of Ambush. In that letter Captain Morey had described how, fearing an ambush, the American troopers had advanced in battle formation on the Mexicans who had come out from Carrizal during a purely over permission for the Americans to pass through the town; how the Mexicans had opened fire, and how the remaining Americans had been forced to retreat and scatter, each for himself. Army officers here hope that the return of Captain Morey will serve to provide the missing links in the story of the encounter at Carrizal and determine the fate of each member of the little reconnoitering expedition.

How Captain Morey managed to make his way to the American main column, a distance of more than 80 miles, is unknown here, but it is inferred he was picked up by a detachment of the rescuing force sent out by General Pershing. He was without food or water in a desert country and it is believed his sufferings must have been intense. Nothing to confirm rumors of a clash between Pershing's men and the Carranzistas was received by General Funston tonight and all was reported quiet along the border.

Left to Die in Desert. Captain Morey wrote his letter at 9:15 a. m., June 21, while hiding in a hole about 2,000 yards from the scene of the battle. Captain Morey was wounded and had another wounded man with him. The three unwounded men were picked up by a detachment under Lieut. Henry A. Meyer, Jr., of the Tenth Cavalry and the letter brought to General Pershing today.

Captain Morey was left to die upon the desert from thirst and his wounds. The men abandoned him at his own orders. The three unwounded men had carried him, according to their stories, to Lieut. Meyer from the hole where he had hidden and made their way nearly two miles from the battlefield.

They were forced to stop and Captain Morey, believing himself hopelessly wounded, ordered them to leave him. They also thought him about to die from loss of blood and thirst and obeyed.

Vague About Details. The stories of the rescued men told to Lieut. Meyer were vague about the details of the fight, according to General Pershing's report to Gen. Funston.

Captain Morey's letter told of the joining of Troop C under Captain Charles T. Boyd and Troop K under his own command at Ojo Santo Domingo, June 20, and the advance together toward Carrizal June 21. He arrived in an open field a mile from Carrizal at 7:38 in the morning. There they halted and Captain Boyd sent a courier into Carrizal asking permission of General Felix Gomez to enter the town, saying he was going to Villa Ahumada. Gomez replied that he would not be allowed to enter the town, but might make a detour around it.

Fearing that they were about to be trapped by the Mexicans which had sallied out from the town during the purely, the American troops deployed in battle formation, mounted and moved forward. The Mexicans then opened fire. Captain Boyd ordered his men to dismount and return the fire, the engagement lasting about an hour.

Captain Morey's Letter. Following is the text of Moray's letter:

"Carrizal, Mexico, June 21, 1916, 9:15 a. m.—The commanding officer, Ojo Federico: My troop reached Ojo Santo Domingo at 5:30 p. m., June 20. Met C troop under Captain

Mother of Ten Children Glad To Find Tanlac

Mrs. Sarvis Suffered so She Couldn't Remain Still a Minute—lost flesh. Mrs. B. A. Sarvis, 119 Red Cross St., Wilmington, mother of 10 children, enthusiastically endorses Tanlac.

"Before taking it I suffered from intense pains in my back and around my heart and left side," she explained. "I couldn't sleep well and was so nervous I couldn't stand still a minute. I had to take purgatives and fell off in flesh. I also suffered from bowel derangements and pains peculiar to women and was depressed in spirits for doctor told me there was little chance for relief in my case.

"Then I took Tanlac. I have gained wonderfully on it—pains are all gone my appetite is greater than ever; I have gained in weight and strength and can do my housework with ease. I am glad to recommend Tanlac to all sick women."

Tanlac is sold in Louisburg by Scoggin-Egerton Drug Co.; Franklinton, T. C. Joyner; Youngsville, Winston-Blanks Drug Co., Henderson, W. W. Parker; Wakefield, Wakefield Drug Co.; Castalia, Bartholomew Drug Co.; Wake Forest, T. E. Holden & Co.
