LAW FOR INSPECTIONS

Well for Citizens and Officers To Know Law Regarding Inspection.

It is Most Important and Valuable in Saving Life and Property, Says Insurance Commissioner.

It is well for citizens, and especially officers of the State, to know the law in regard to the inspection of premises. It is most important and valuable in saving life and property:

Section 482. Commissioner and others must inspect premises; may enter buildings, etc.; must order dangerous matter removed; orders must be obeyed; appeal; expenses and cost. The Insurance Commissioner, or the chief of fire department, or chief of police where no chief of fire department, or local inspector of buildings in cities and towns where such officer is elected or appointed, shall have the right at all reasonable hours, for the purpose of examination, to enter into and upon all buildings and premises, within their jurisdiction. It shall be the duty of the Insurance Commissioner to require in all incorporated cities and towns of the State that such officers shall make in their respective cities and towns annual inspections of the buildings in such cities and towns and quarterly inspection of all premises within the fire limits and report in detail the results of their inspection to the Insurance Commissioner upon blanks furnished by him. Whenever any of such officers shall find in any building or upon any premises combustible material or inflammable conditions dangerous to the safety of such building or premises, they shall order the same to be removed or removed, and such order shall be forthwith complied with by the owner or occupant of such building or premises; but if the owner or occupant shall deem himself aggrieved by such order, he may, within twenty-four hours, appeal to the Insurance Commissioner, and the cause of the complaint shall be at once investigated by his direction, and unless by his authority the order of the officer above named is revoked, such order shall remain in force and be forthwith complied with by the owner or occupant. The Insurance Commissioner, fire chief, or fire committee shall make an immediate investigation as to the presence of combustible material or the existence of inflammable conditions in any building or upon any premises under their jurisdiction upon complaint of any person having an interest in such building or premises or property adjacent thereto. The Insurance Commissioner may, in person or by deputy, visit any city or incorporated town and make such inspections alone or in company with the local officer. The local inspector shall be paid by the city or town a reasonable salary or proper fees to be fixed by the governing board of such city or town.

I AM THE WOODEN SHINGLE

I am the WOODEN SHINGLE.
 Ruin—Death and Tears upon my footsteps wait.
 He who puts me on his home for protection, I betray.
 I have a soul of FIRE. I glory in ruin.
 Each straggling spark sets me upon some fresh hatched lust.
 When I am new I am attractive, but treachery lingers in my beauty.
 My greatest admirers I turn to scorn. Those who boast me most I crumple with ridicule. And those who use me to shelter loved ones I tear at their throats with fingers of fire.
 Blackened ruins sing my symphony—for at best I am but a fickle friend. I am a thief in the night. I hate beauty. I am an enemy of all things useful. Security irritates me and I crush those most who fear me least.

I am the WOODEN SHINGLE.
 For a brief spell I am fair to look upon.
 But scorching suns soon rot out my vitality.
 I split and splinter and soften like the weakling that I am.
 Winter freezes tear at my vitals. I am a mark for drenching rains.
 I tear at my moorings a discontent—warp with a fendish glee. I rot in the rains—and the weather and ALWAYS I crave for sparks. I thrive on flying brands.
 I curl—I crack—I splinter and decay.
 I am worn out before my usefulness begins—a decrepit in my youth—a coward—a sneak—one of nature's misfits.
 And mark ye—I shall steal as long as you trust me. I shall betray you to fire as long as you depend upon me to protect you.
 I shall rob you of your homes—I shall come like a plague in the night and murder and plunder and destroy. I hate those that love me.
 And ye—fools—ye trust me. It is to laugh!
 I am the WOODEN SHINGLE—Robert T. Gebler.

NOT ENOUGH CHILDREN

ever receive the proper balance of food to sufficiently nourish both body and brain during the growing period when nature's demands are greater than in mature life. This is shown in so many pale faces, lean bodies, frequent colds, and lack of ambition.

For all such children we say with unmistakable earnestness: They need Scott's Emulsion, and need it now. It possesses in concentrated form the very food elements to enrich their blood. It changes weakness to strength; it makes them sturdy and strong. No alcohol.
 Scott & Bowne, Bloomfield, N. J.

Sure Bait.

"How did you manage to sell that piece of goods that's all out of date to Mrs. Hill?"

"Clerk—I told her it was a great bargain, but I thought Mrs. Richcoin had had it laid aside for one of her daughters. Then she took it right off."

 "Yes. But he's the kind that would be more useful in a school of elocution than in a training camp."

Should Sloan's Liniment Go Along?

Of course it should! For after a strenuous day when your muscles have been exercised to the limit an application of Sloan's Liniment will take the soreness and stiffness away and get you in fine shape for the morrow. You should also use it for a sudden attack of toothache, stiff neck, backache, stings, bites and the many accidents that are incidental to vacation. "We would as soon leave our baggage as go on a vacation or camp out without Sloan's Liniment." Writes one vacationist: "We use it for everything from cramps to toothache." Put a bottle in your bag, be prepared and have no regrets.

One Way to View It.

"Distance lends enchantment to the view" some poet says.
 "That's right. At any rate it's easier to admire a girl when she's well off."
 —Boston Transcript.

Will Not Increase Prices

Our buyer, Mr. Roth, has returned from the Northern markets where he purchased the fall and winter lines for our store. 0 0 0

He says it is very noticeable that big advances in all lines have been made and no certainty of a steady price now, however he succeeded in purchasing the fall stock for this firm in such a way that it would not necessitate any increase in prices and we will sell you goods in the future at the same old prices.
