Loony Limericks.

Was named Carolina as well,
Was named Caralina as well,
But she was so sweet,
That whoever she'd meet,
Would address her as Miss-Caro-Mell.

A louchy old fellow named Frost,
Had a beard that was long and much tossed;
But though it seems queer,
He combed it each year
To find anything he had lost.

SAVES DAUGHTER

Advice of Mother no Doubt Prevents Daughter's Untimely End.

Ready, Ky.—"I was not able to do anything for nearly six months," writes Mrs. Laura Bratcher, of this place, "and was down in bed for three months."

I cannot tell you how I suffered with my head, and with nervousness and womanly troubles.

Our family doctor told my husband he could not do me any good, and he had to give it up. We tried another doctor, but he did not help me.

At last, my mother advised me to take Cardui, the woman's tonic. I thought it was no use for I was nearly dead and nothing seemed to do me any good. But I took eleven bottles, and now I am able to do all of my work and my own washing.

I think Cardui is the best medicine in the world. My weight has increased, and I look the picture of health."

If you suffer from any of the ailments peculiar to women, get a bottle of Cardui today. Delay is dangerous. We know it will help you, for it has helped so many thousands of other weak women in the past 50 years.

At all druggists.

THERE IS MUCH DIVERSITY IN THE AUTUMN STYLES.

Though Full and Straight, Skirts May Differ Widely—Sleeves and Pockets Are Interesting.

New York, November 7, 1916.

It is especially true this autumn that variety is one of the greatest charms of the styles. Although those who have been looking for revolutionary changes in the fashions have, no doubt, been disappointed, they will certainly admit that the diversity in the present styles more than makes up for the absence of anything that might be called radically different. Fresh interest is always being aroused by the clever variations of the present straight, full silhouette that meets the eye at every turn.

Afternoon Dress of Satin with Draped Skirt

Although the general rule is full, straight-hanging skirts, there are dozens and dozens of skirts of this type which differ widely one from the other. One of the most noticeable features which accounts for some of the differences is the uneven hem advocated by many of the Parisian houses. In some skirts the effect is obtained by a gradual lengthening at the back. In others, panels at the front and back or at the sides hang several inches below the hem of the skirt. When fur is used to edge skirts of this type, it may be placed on the top of the panels or the sides of the skirt, but not all around; and other means of varying the placing of fur banding of skirts. Some of the French designers who lay particular stress on the uneven hem are Callot, Bulloz, Agnes and Beer.

Not only skirts but coats, too, are marked by the uneven hem. Not a few droop at the sides, while the front and back are even, and some coats with full, rippling peplums are a good deal longer in the back than in the front.

Another theme which has had no end of variations is that of the pocket. Through the long life of the pocket, it has been truly amazing to watch the resources of the designers, who have never lacked in bringing out something novel in this direction. And, still, new treatments are seen every day, for large and small pockets are still the vogue on garments of every kind and for every occasion, from the simple, tailored waists and skirts to the most dressy frocks and suits.

In afternoon frocks, a most charming effect is the soft side drapery on skirts, falling like a cascade. This style is exceedingly graceful in soft satins, silks, chiffon velvets and even in the plant serges and other soft woolsens. The dress shown here illustrates this pretty mode. It is fashioned of soft satin with a collar of fur cloth and a banding of fur around the edge of the skirt. The waist is in jumper effect outlined with braid, and there are extensions at the sides which end in little pockets.

Flat braid is one of the new dress trimmings, and the lacquered braid is one of the prettiest novelties in this line. It has a dull polished finish.

Some New Sleeves. There are several new fashions in sleeves, and among them the most striking are those that are quite full at the elbow and fit snugly below it. The leg-o'-mutton is being brought forward again, and sleeves with deep cuffs are very popular. Quite a novel idea in sleeves was noticed in a blue serge dress trimmed with moleskin fur at the collar, hem and pockets. It had tight-fitting sleeves, the upper part of which was of fur and the deep cuff of blue serge.

There are few coats without pockets. All are very snug and comfortable, especially the all-enveloping top coats buttoned to the neck and covering the entire dress. The coat in the illustration is of heavy velours with large bone buttons and very large gathered pockets. Few women will be satisfied without one of the practical coats, which may be used in all kinds of weather.

Children's Fashions.

Children are not neglected, by any means, by those who set the modes. A great deal of attention is given to their clothes, which to a certain degree follow the fashions of their elders.

The Russian blouse style is frequently employed for youngsters, both for school and afternoon frocks. Both plump and slender girls can wear this style becomingly.

To vary the long coat, which is always an essential item of the girl's wardrobe, smart little coat suits are now being worn as well. For dressy wear these are of velvet, wool velours and duvetyne, and for general use they are of serge, gabardine, checks and mixtures.

Embroidery in colored silks, wools and beads is as popular for young girls as for women. They also have as wide a choice in dress materials and colors. Green, dark brown, deep red, and blue of all shades, are used for their coats and frocks.

Forget Your Aches.

Stiff knees, aching limbs, lame back make life a burden. If you suffer from rheumatism, gout, lumbago, neuralgia, get a bottle of Sloan's Liniment, the universal remedy for pain. Easy to apply; it penetrates without rubbing and soothes the tender flesh. Cleaner and more effective than many ointments or poultices. For strains or sprains, sore muscles or "wrenched" ligaments resulting from strenuous exercise, Sloan's Liniment gives quick relief. Keep it on hand for emergencies. At your Druggist, 25c.

Debating Society Organized at Royal.

With the aid of our efficient Superintendent of Public Instructions Mr. E. L. Best, there was organized at the Royal school house on the night of Oct. 26th, a debating society for the men of the Royal neighborhood.

The following officers were elected: J. H. Cyrus, President; Joe R. Jones, Vice-President; Sandy Hill, Secretary; R. T. Harris, Treasurer.

After organizing the query and debaters for the next meeting were selected.

The query was resolved: "That corn is of more value to the United States than cotton."

The following were appointed debaters: W. H. Frazier and J. C. Jones, affirmative; Joe R. Jones and A. D. Frazier, negative.

The Society met again Nov. 2, at 8 o'clock P. M. The debates were good both sides debating with spirit, the affirmative being declared the winner. The society meets twice a month, on Thursday nights before the second and fourth Sundays.

Head-Off That All-Winter Cough.

At the first sign of sore throat, tight chest or stuffed-up head take a dose of Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey. The healing pinetar, soothing honey and glycerine quickly relieve the congestion, loosen the phlegm and break up your cold. Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey has all the benefits of the healing aroma from a pine forest, it is pleasant to take and antiseptic. The formula on the bottle tells why it relieves colds and coughs. At your Druggist, 25c.

The Methodist Church.

Revival services will begin next Sunday A. M. at the M. E. Church. The pastor will do the preaching and the singing will be led by Mr. D. Ward Milam, of Atlanta, Ga. Mr. Milam is said to be an excellent leader. He desires all of the singers in town to join in a chorus choir. The meeting will continue for two weeks.

If So What Kind? Let Your Selection be The Celebrated Starr

Not alone in the beauty of Spanish Architecture, Landscape, Gardening and other exterior attractions does the "Exposition Beautiful" differ from the expositions of the past—interior decorations and exhibits have been selected and installed with the same measure of artistic discrimination. Not more than three, and in many instances but two, exhibits of the same nature have been selected and these, of necessity, must be of the best. It is not a competitive exhibition in the usual sense of the word; rather an Exposition into which enter the fairest works of man and nature in complete and inspiring concord—in other words, it's a true presentation of progress and life in this great "United States." It is significant, that before the great opening on January, 1915, Starr Pianos or Playerpianos had been selected for practically every building and that they have, in every instance since, brought forth words of appreciation
