Ireland thinks that home rule is a better measure than the English rule. We hope the dispute will soon be adjusted, for we all know that Irish courage is beyond measure.

Whooping Cough.
 In this disease it is important that the cough be kept loose and expectoration easy, which can be done by giving Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Mrs. P. H. Martin, Peru, Ind., writes, "My two daughters had whooping cough. I gave them Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and it worked like a charm."

In reading the papers we become so much accustomed to figuring in millions and billions of dollars that it almost reconciles us to paying thirty cents for fifteen cent bananas.

THE KITCHEN CABINET

Don't worry about what the world thinks of you. The world has several billions of other people to think about.
 An idle rumor always gains currency, which is more than can be said of an idle man.

There are few dishes more economical than salads well made, as they use a variety of foods, with a good salad dressing, making a most wholesome dish. There is an important thing to remember when using olive oil, it must be good or the salad will be ruined. Many people have had their taste spoiled for French or a mayonnaise dressing because rancid or inferior oil has been used. Such a prejudice is hard to overcome, more's the pity, for oil dressing is so delicious that it is a crime not to be able to enjoy it.

Cheese and Pea Salad.—Take a quarter of a pound of cream cheese, one can of peas, two small onions, three sweet pickles, three sour pickles, some crisp lettuce, half a cupful of chopped nuts, and all mixed together with a good salad dressing.

Pineapple, Cheese and Nut Salad.—Take slices of pineapple from the can, fill the centers with grated cheese, cover with French dressing, and sprinkle with chopped nuts and parsley. To make French dressing, the amount of vinegar or lemon juice is varied to suit the character of the salad. A salad which is acid will need but little added to the oil. One table-spoonful of lemon juice to three of olive oil, salt and paprika or red pepper to taste, with occasional use of onion juice, a pinch of mustard or white pepper.

Salmon Salad.—Take one can of salmon, four cold boiled potatoes, three sweet pickles, two cupfuls of cabbage finely chopped and any desired dressing. Cut the potatoes and pickles into small pieces and mix with the salmon which has been flaked and the bones removed; mix with a good boiled dressing.

Dainty Chicken Salad.—To one cupful of cold cooked chicken cut in small pieces, add one cupful of walnut meats, one cupful of peas and a cupful of mayonnaise dressing and a few chopped olives. Mix and arrange on crisp lettuce leaves. Garnish with olives.
