

MASCOT FRENCHIE WOUNDED

Frenchie, a veteran of the trenches getting expert attention at general hospital No. 6, Fort McPherson. Holding him is Sergt. S. L. E. Cohen, an invalided soldier, Frenchie's temporary proprietor, and dressing one of Frenchie's wounds is Miss Mae Burkley, United States war nurse. Frenchie is one of the latest arrivals from the trenches in France—one who has spent most of his life in the trenches. In fact, having been born in a trench in an American sector. He is a Newfoundland pup, five months old. He reached Fort McPherson with a detachment of wounded soldiers. Frenchie was wounded, too. His beautiful tail had been entirely shot off and one of his forelegs grievously damaged. Frenchie's mother was a message carrier in the French army. She was assigned to service with the Americans and was killed in battle. His two brothers were killed shortly afterward.

Sleep Over It.

Channey Depew says he has a hard and fast rule that unpleasant happenings are to be discussed in the morning, never in the evening. To this I add that before making any important decision you should always sleep over it. You may think quite differently in the morning and the delay may save you much subsequent regret.—Los Angeles Times.

Evening Matters.

"If those two men come together, there will be trouble. The big one is a six-footer."
"Yes, but the little one has a six-shooter."

The KITCHEN CABINET

Leave no tender word unsaid,
To good while life shall last;
You know the mill can never grind
With the water that is past.

WAR TIME DISHES.

UTS are rich in both protein and fat. A cupful of chopped peanuts equals a half pound of steak, chicken or leg of lamb. No meat except pork chops and sausage will provide enough fat to replace the fat found in a cupful of peanuts. Walnuts are not as rich in protein as peanuts; but they furnish nearly twice the amount of fats.

Egg Plant With Walnuts.—Boil an egg plant until tender, cut in pieces, remove the skin and mash the pulp. To the pulp add one cupful of chopped walnuts, two tablespoonfuls of bread crumbs, two eggs well beaten, salt and pepper to season. Mix well, put into a well-greased baking dish, cover with well-buttered crumbs (the crumbs may be mixed with any sweet fat) and bake until brown.

Scalloped Onions With Peanuts.—Peel and cook six onions, chop two-thirds of a cupful of roasted peanuts, cook together two tablespoonfuls each of fat and corn flour; add a cupful of milk and seasonings. Put the onion and peanuts in layers in a buttered baking dish, add the white sauce and cover with buttered crumbs. Bake until brown.

Prune Coupe.—Take two cupfuls of top milk luke warm, add one crushed junket tablet dissolved in a tablespoonful of water, two teaspoonfuls of vanilla, a few grains of salt. Mix in the freezer can and let stand until the milk is thick, then freeze. Serve small portions in glasses with prune sauce.

Prune Sauce.—Take one cupful of cooked prunes, four candied green-gage plums, six candied cherries, two oranges, two tablespoonfuls of lemon juice, one-third of a cupful of honey. Simmer all together gently, cool and add a half cupful of chopped nuts.

Sweet Potato and Peanut Croquettes.—Take one cupful of mashed sweet potato, one cupful of finely chopped peanuts, salt and pepper to taste. Shape like croquettes, roll in fine bread crumbs well buttered and bake in a hot oven until brown. Serve with a white sauce mixed with two tablespoonfuls of chili sauce.

Survivors of the British tanker Mirlo, torpedoed near Cape Hatteras by a German submarine, were obliged to make their safety through a sea of burning oil. The German idea of pouring oil upon the troubled waters is as abhorrent to common humanity as the rest of their ideas.
