Mr. G. A. Hicks left Tuesday for Baltimore.
Mr. J. D. Hines, of Wilmington, was a visitor to Loubsburg Monday.
Mr. R. G. Allen, of Raleigh, was a visitor to Loubsburg Tuesday.
Miss Louise Thomas, of Raleigh, is visiting relatives in Loubsburg.

To Move to Loubsburg.

Capt. F. D. Thomas, who is now in the Loubsburg army hospital, will move his family to Loubsburg in the near future. He succeeded Capt. Bradley, who is now recovering. Capt. Elmore came from Henderson where he was transferred to Loubsburg several years ago. He is a brother-in-law to Deputy Sheriff R. O. Bissett.

Mrs. Walter C. Holmes Dead.

The home of Mr. Walter C. Holmes, about five miles south of Loubsburg, was sorrow stricken on Monday night when his wife succumbed to an attack of pneumonia following the influenza. She was about 35 years of age and besides her husband leaves six children—one an infant of less than a week old. Before her marriage Mrs. Holmes was Miss Swannie Rudd, daughter of Mr. W. H. Rudd. She was a good woman much loved in her community and by all her acquaintances. She was a devoted Christian and was a member of Leach's Methodist church. The funeral was held from Leach's church on Wednesday evening and the interment made in the cemetery adjoining. Quite a large number of friends and relatives were present to pay their last sad tribute of love. The floral tribute was beautiful.

Mrs. J. B. Thomas Passes Away.

Quite a heavy veil of sorrow fell over Loubsburg Friday afternoon when the announcement was made that Mrs. J. B. Thomas, wife of Maj. J. B. Thomas, one of Loubsburg's most prominent citizens and one of the Tobacco Markets' substantial buyers, had succumbed to an attack of pneumonia following influenza. Her death was a great loss from the epidemic experienced in Loubsburg.

Mrs. Thomas, before her marriage, was Miss Virginia Tinnin, of Hillsboro, and besides her husband and mother, she leaves one daughter, Miss Virginia Fuller Thomas. She was in her 43rd year of age. She was a true Christian woman and took great interest in the Baptist church, in which she held her membership. She was a true friend, and her devotion to those she loved would make a bright chapter in life. While she has gone from the scenes, the conflicts, the sorrows and pleasures of life, she will still live in the hearts of those who knew her best. Her retiring nature led her to hide her best qualities, but they were revealed to those who enjoyed her acquaintance. It was in her home that her true worth was most conspicuous. She was a kind and loving mother, and her devotion to the family circle had no limit.

The funeral services were held from the home on Kenmore Avenue on Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock and were conducted by Revs. T. D. Collins, W. B. Morton and N. H. D. Wilson. The remains were tenderly laid to rest in Oaklawn cemetery where a large number of friends had gathered to pay a last tribute of love and respect. The pallbearers were as follows:

Honorary—Messrs S. S. Meadows, F. B. McKinne, W. H. Allen, F. N. Egerton, M. S. Clifton, T. W. Watson, G. L. Aycocke, — Spaulding, S. T. Wilder, C. T. Stokes, R. P. Taylor, Hugh Hight, D. F. Cooke, J. J. Parrow, R. W. Hudson, L. L. Joyner, James Collier, D. C. High, Bennett Perry.

Active—S. M. Washington, O. W. Pierpont, R. O. Bissett, Malcolm McKinne, W. H. Ruffin, J. M. Allen.
The floral tribute was profuse and spoke in most beautiful terms of the love and esteem in which she was held.

Official Text of the Latest German Note Sent to Sec'y Lansing.

Washington, Oct. 8.—Secretary Lansing today issued this announcement: "Department of State, October 28, 1918.

"The Secretary of State makes public the following:
"From the Charge d'Affaires, a. i. of Switzerland to the Secretary of State:
"Sir:

"I am instructed by my government and have the honor to submit to your Excellency the original German text of a communication from the German government, dated October 27, 1918, which has today been received from the Swiss Foreign Office.

"I beg leave also to enclose an English translation of the above-mentioned communications the German text of which is alone to be considered authoritative.

"Accept, Sir, the renewed assurances of my highest consideration.
(Signed) "F. OEDERLIN, "Charge d'Affaires," a. i. of Switzerland.

His Excellency, Robert Lansing, Secretary of State, Washington.
Translation of a communication from the German government, dated October 27, 1918, as transmitted by the Charge d'Affaires, a. i. of Switzerland, October 28, 1918.

The German government has taken cognizance of the reply of the President of the United States. The President knows the far reaching changes which have taken place and are being carried out in the German constitutional structure. The peace negotiations of the people in whose hands rests the authority to make decisions. The military powers are also subject to this authority. The German government now awaits the proposals for an armistice, which is the first step toward peace of justice, as described by the President in his pronouncements.

(Signed) SOLF, State Secretary of Foreign Affairs, Berlin, October 27, 1918.

Letters From Soldiers in France.

and the Kaiser is writing to the President of the United States that he will accept an honorable peace, he has his men on high seas sinking ships, murdering men, women and children. No man can be made to believe that Germany wants an honorable peace so long as she appears to Woodrow Wilson dressed in sheep's clothing. (7) The report may be that the Kaiser has abdicated but the American soldier has to know for himself.

It may be one, two, or three years before the Khaki boys eat a Christmas dinner at home (but I think one will be the limit) with their friends but every one is willing to remain in order to bring back home honor and national peace.

Germany has been flirting for many years, is still flirting with Japan and probably others, but when the Khaki boys begin to sing "where do we go from here, boys?" on the other side of the Rhine there will be no more flirting with the Kaiser, and he cannot look back and say "I have fought a good fight," but he can say, "I have finished my course."

Message from London, Oct. 14th, reads: No temporary armistice nor any armistice at all, unless accompanied by Germany's unconditional surrender. This is the dominant note from the comments of Wilson and Lansing. The leaders of all peace loving people, can see in Germany's endeavors to open peace negotiations merely an attempt to avoid disaster and to save her military reputations.

Wilson understands the people with whom he is dealing. Germany is trying to plead now that the Allied leaders and Wilson does not understand them in their conditions, but Wilson says you do not want to be understood when you are pleading with me for peace and that you have war enough, then in the meantime compel your men, against their will, to destroy cargo, burn homes, sink ships, and murder innocent women and children. Dropping bombs on Red Cross buildings and hospitals the like of which no other nation ever did before in time of war or peace.

The American boys are all in it to the last unit and backed up by the Red Cross, Y. M. C. A., and the others left behind and they will not be satisfied until every Hun is in want of some hiding place and then with a cry to Wilson "go to" and don't let us until they are satisfied of war, then let every Khaki boy have three more rounds each. Then the boys will begin to sing "pack up your troubles in your old kit bag and smile" and end with "the Stars and Stripes will wave years to come."

The following letters are from Messrs Grady and Joseph (Pete) Bunn, from somewhere in France.
My Dear Father:
I wonder what you all are doing tonight. I am thinking of you all tonight. Grady and I are getting on very nicely in the front lines. Give our love to all, and tell them that we will have lots to say when we have returned from Europe. Everybody seems to be healthy and very well satisfied and you may know we are glad to do our bit which we are making every attempt possible.
Well I am hoping you are having the best of success in the harvest ing of your crop.
Your loving son,
JOSEPH
who always thinks of father and the rest of you.
August 4, 1918.
Somewhere in France.
My dearest Daddy:
Our letters came yesterday. Had two letters from you and two from Mary and I must say I was more than glad to hear from home and so glad to know that you all are getting along so nicely. I am well and feeling good. Just got back from the front line and you know I am real glad to be back for a rest. I must say I am real lucky to be back Daddy, you see things there that are different from anything I ever saw or heard of. I have heard Grandfather talk about war and when I got up there I saw things that he told me of. Only they are much worse than he said. I did not know I could stand so much. Prt. Grady P. Bunn, Co. B. 129 Inf A. E. F. via New York.
I went across a railroad and five minutes before I crossed there was a boy killed. I tell you it sure does change a boy's life from bad to good. I don't care how rough a boy is when he once goes up there he is changed to a better one. Daddy, I am a runner, carry messages from one place to another, and guiding people that do not know the way. Anyway war is no joke. But I hope I will be as lucky as I was before, because I want to come home when this war is over and I am trusting the good Father to bring me back. Daddy I am real glad you are going to write me every week because I am always glad to hear from home. I am writing you every chance I get. Tell J. P. Bunn I am all right, but having a wonderful time. War is no joke. I am going to write him soon, also. Give Miss Lucy all the good things for me. Daddy I am real glad you are getting the checks all O. K. you will get the Liberty Bond some time soon. I hope, as I have already signed for it. Hope so anyway if you need any of it don't mind spending it. It is yours if you want it. Tell Lee to write me sometimes. Joe was all right the last time I saw him. Dinner is ready so I must "line up" for my bread and goat. Be good. From the one that loves you best of all.

UNION WAREHOUSE !!

WILL RE-OPEN NOV. 11, 1918

Louisburg, N. C., Oct. 29, 1918.

Dear Sir:
It is with much satisfaction that we are able to announce to you that the health authorities of the the State have deemed the influenza situation sufficiently decreasing and under control to allow the tobacco markets to resume their regular sales on Monday, November 11, 1918. Therefore on that date I will re-open the Union Warehouse for your accommodation and hope to have the pleasure of selling a load of tobacco for you. When we closed down for the epidemic of influenza, the prices were good, some of which we give below.

- Baker and Hall, 592 lbs. $265.74, average $44.88.
- Baker and Dunston, 704 lbs. $390.80, average $55.50.
- A. R. Nicholson, 724 lbs. $352.00, average $48.62.
- Crudup and Morgan, 838 lbs. $386.20, average $46.10.
- G. W. Poythress, 784 lbs. $387.22, average $49.40.
- W. E. Brewer, 432 lbs. $217.58, average $50.36.
- Washington and Yarboro, 412 lbs. $212.36, average $51.54.
- J. L. Byron, 876 lbs. $407.38, average $46.50.
- Wilson and B., 534 lbs. $271.84, average $50.90.
- S. W. Fuller, 1216 lbs. $527.26, average $43.36.
- B. B. Egerton, 264 lbs. $134.04, average $50.77.

The indications are that the prices will be equally as good or better when the sales resume on Nov. 4th, especially so if the market is not too badly crowded at once. Again we will call your attention to the fact that you can't afford to sell your tobacco at home, the prices are so high and advancing so fast that you can't help but lose. Strip it and bring it to us. We have always served you to the best advantage and we will continue to do so.

The Union Warehouse is the farmers friend—in fact it is his house, and we want to make its business true to the house. Come and let Sam Meadows get you the highest dollar for your tobacco. Its yours and you are entitled to it.

Remember that we will reopen Monday, Nov. 11, 1918. Come to see us.
