

Mississippi Woman Serves Fighting Men As Y. W. C. A. Worker

KATIE BOYD GEORGE
 She has been serving the fighting men in France as a Y. W. C. A. worker. She is a native of Mississippi and has been in France since the beginning of the war. She is a member of the Y. W. C. A. and has been serving the fighting men in France since the beginning of the war. She is a member of the Y. W. C. A. and has been serving the fighting men in France since the beginning of the war.

At the opening of the War Work Convention in Jackson, she was elected for a year. In the main convention hall while she was busy with committee work, she made several efforts were made to find her, the program looked. Recently Guy Smith was missed out of a presentation soon after he returned leading a group of the soldiers. At the foot of the program he gathered up with a sweet smile, posture R. H. King, Jr. M. Clayton, Capt. George S. Dingle and O. W. Buschgen. As the audience gave to its full at sight of "Our Katie" the five men, like prairie school boys, made a crooked background for the one small woman, while from their throats—bass, tenor and baritone—rolled the living strains of "Katie."

To Katie Boyd George Mississippi women owe the fact that today the name of their grand old commonwealth is on the map of national and international service. Shall all women by constant effort and sacrifice honor her splendid achievement?

We owe her a special sort of allegiance—a loyalty of duty, of tradition and affection. When she speaks one hears again the vibrant voice of her grandfather, J. Z. George, as in her days of Reconstruction she helped to mould the destiny of our generation. Her forebear's indomitable spirit rings in her voice, emanates from her small supple frame, calls to you from her steady eyes.

RAINBOW DIVISION COLONEL COMMENDS Y. M. C. A. WORK

Colonel Screws Says Alabama Residents Are Appreciative Of Red Triangle Service To Soldiers There

Birmingham, Ala., Oct. — "In my opinion there is nothing that the Y. M. C. A. can ask of the people of Alabama which they would not give if they only knew half of the excellent work being done by your organization," writes Col. William P. Screws, Commander 167th Infantry (Old 4th Alabama), in a letter to Borden Burr, who recently returned from France, where he was engaged in War Work for the Young Men's Christian Association. Leaving out expressions of personal praise, at the request of Mr. Burr, Colonel Screws' letter is as follows:

"On behalf of the officers and enlisted men of the 167th Infantry (formerly the Fourth Alabama Infantry), I wish to thank you for the excellent and valuable work that you have done with us, and with other American troops, since your arrival in France. In my opinion too much praise cannot be given the Y. M. C. A. for the excellent work they have done and are now doing for our men over here. As you know, from personal observation since you have been with us, the 'Y' workers are present in time of need and get some of the luxuries of life to the men that they would not otherwise get.

"As the commanding officer of the regiment, I wish to thank you personally for your excellent efforts and your many deeds of valor and kindness shown all through our hard campaigns, in which you were present with us from first to last." Alabama residents are to be given an opportunity to give during the week of November 11, when $170,500,000 will be raised to continue another year the work of the Y. M. C. A. and other welfare work agencies.

The Germans have evacuated the Ladies' Road (Chemin des Dames). It may be no place for a lady at present, but its an excellent location for dough boys.

Spain might have kept her influenza to herself. Perhaps she would have been less generous in that case, but she would have been far kinder.

And now suffragists are picketing the Senate. President Wilson doubtless offers the Senate his heartfelt condolences.

It is stated that at the beginning of the war the women of America were carrying about 30,000 tons of steel in their corsets. Could this be characterized as a corset waste?
