A Good Woman Dead.

On the morning of November the ninth as the sun was shedding its beautiful rays over the eastern horizon the spirit of Mrs. Lizzie Perry took its everlasting flight to the Heavenly mansion. She was truly a good woman, she was a devoted mother, an early life and lived a consistent member of the Baptist church until the Master called her home. Hers was an unselfish life always ready to do her part in church and in her community in sickness she did all she could and though her health was not good did all she could to make others happy she loved home and made it pleasant for all who would share her hospitality. To know her was to love her and it was an inspiration to be with her it is hard to realize that we can never spend another pleasant evening together but we hope to meet her where there be no parting tears. She leaves a husband and three sons to mourn their loss: Mr. June Perry of Bunn, Redden Perry of Mapleville and James Perry of Margaret, and to her bereaved companion may Gods richest blessing rest through life and may he too be ready when the summons comes to meet her on the Heavenly shore. Blessed are the dead that die in the Lord.

One Who Loved Her.

RESULTS TELL

There Can Be No Doubt About the Results in This Vicinity.

Results tell the tale. No doubt is removed. The testimony of a Franklinton citizen.

Can be easily investigated. What, better proof can be had? I. G. Staunton, Franklinton, N. C., says: "A year ago I was in misery with kidney complaint. Being exposed to such bad weather so much, I think I caught cold and it settled on my kidneys. I could hardly straighten, if I would bend over and my kidneys didn't act right. Doan's were recommended to me, so I bought a box. After I had taken a few doses, I felt a great deal better and when I had finished the box, this trouble went away. I have been in fine shape since Doan's cured me and I highly recommend them."

Price 60c at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Staunton had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

The Result

"They tell me Bangs has been eating too much rich food." "Then no wonder he has such poor health."

CHILDHOOD DAYS WERE DARKENED.

Little Girl Was So Irritable That Those Who Should Have Been Her Playmates Avoided Her.

There is nothing so pitiable as a child whose days are saddened by ill health, as was the case with little Sallie Phipps, daughter of Mrs. G. R. Phipps, 527 South Street, Durham, who describes her daughters condition: "Sallie, who is now nine years old, was, until quite recently, in such a physical state that life was miserable for her and every one around her. She was so nervous that the presence of playing children drove her almost frantic. This was due to her health; her digestion was poor and her blood became so bad that she developed sores over her body. Weakened in this manner she was an easy prey for disease and developed pelagra. Nothing seemed to help her until I gave her Peplac, which quickly brought a change and she could soon eat solid food without distress. Her system is free of Pelagra she has gained in weight and strength, plays with the other children and is as happy as any child could be."

Peplac is sold and recommended in Louisburg at Scoggins Drug Store, Winston-Banks Drug Co., Mapleville, T. E. Holding, Wake Forest, and W. W. Parker at Henderson. Buy a bottle today, it has helped others and will do the same for you.
