BIGGEST OPENING
Better Prices

Than ever before is the result of the sales on Tuesday on the Louisburg Tobacco Market. The Old Reliable Riverside Warehouse was a centre of attraction with a floor full of the weed, which it sold for an average of 35 cents in round figures. The better grades are selling extra high, and the common grades are higher here than on other markets is conceded. Bring your tobacco on and let us sell it for you. We are fully equipped and all the Companies are represented. Remember that at the Riverside Taylor and Perry will see that you get the highest prices.

Fashion has placed her mark of approval on these hats. They are effectively trimmed in various colors of ostrich, flowers, wings, narrow grosgrain ribbons, fancy pins, or tailored ribbon bows. Many are plainly trimmed, but they are exceedingly effective in their simplicity. These hats are so attractively priced as to enable everyone to buy—which is another altogether redeeming feature.
