A BIG SURPRISE

But a Bigger Bargain For YOU

MANNING & HUNT

The well known and prosperous merchants, of Ingleside, have decided to close out their business. They do this of their own accord—to work as well as sing "down on the farm"—over in Chatham—and may also engage in the same business later on. Aside from the trouble of moving their only regret is in leaving the good county of Franklin and some as fine people as they care to know or live amongst. But this is immaterial. What they will do before going is the most interesting part, and the public will have the benefit of their going—in one respect at least,—for the goods will be sold and must go at that. The stock of General Merchandise (about $4,000) is clean and fresh, consisting of Shoes, Shoes! Dry Goods and Notions, Groceries, Medicines, etc. Sale begins with this date, and will continue until goods are sold, unless the stock is bought as a whole. The doors are open and the public is cordially invited. Even the few delinquents can come to this sale and not be afraid. You will find this a clean cut, honest proposition they are up against, and they are going to stick it out!

AT COST
