San Francisco, July 6.—James M. Cox, three times governor of Ohio was nominated for the presidency early this morning by the Democratic National Convention in the break-up of one of the most prolonged dead ic ks in the history of national political parties.

With its choice made, the convention adjourned to moon today to name a candidate for the vice presidency.

By Persistent Battering.

Supporters of Governor Cox won way to the nomination by persistent tattering at the McAdoo and Palmer forces in many States throughout a long series of shiftings and rather which left now one and then another of the candidates in the sead.

On the opening ballot Friday the Ohio governor was in third plade. He soon passed Palmer, however, and on the twelfth ballot went shead of McAdoo. Then began a ser-mwing be-
