Franklin County's Responsibility.

Now that the State and County Boards of Health have prepared the schedule for the vaccination campaigns, the responsibility for any cases of Typhoid Fever in Franklin County from now on will rest squarely on those who neglect this free protection Through the cooperation of our County Commissioners, Dr. L. T. Buchanan, of the Faculty of Medicine of Wake Forest College, has been secured from the State Board of Health to conduct this campaign.

Thirty-two dispensary points have been chosen throughout the County which makes it possible for every fam ily to reach a dispensary with the min imum trouble and loss of time. And after all, even in these busy days, what is an hour of time lost from the fields when it is invested in protec-tion for the whole family against this disease which has claimed its terrible toll in Franklin County from among our young and most promising folks?

The three treatments at weekly intervals will be offered all citizens free regardless of wealth or age or race, There is practically no discomfort connected with the protection.

The provident folks who avail themselves of this conportunity to save live.

selves of this opportunity to save lives and money will be very highly pro-tected against Typhoid Fever for years to come. Though this campaign does not replace the necessity of general sanitary improvements such as sanitary tollets and the prevention of flies, it does offer a real and a valuable protection until such a time as will allow these permanent improvements to be made. It ought not to be necessary in this day and age to use a method of expediency a fine opportunity for every citizen to show his pride in the health of the place where he lives, not only by seeing to it that he and his family are fully protected, but by getting his neighbors to do the same. The ad. vantage to the county in this cam paign will depend on the properties of people who will be farsighted and thrifty in this matter of protection to health. HEALTH PAYS DIVIDENDS.

Miss Annie P. Neal Enetrained.

Miss Annie Perry Neal entertained a number of young folks on Thursday evening from 8:30 to 11:30 in honor of Miss Nell Ballard Joyner, of Frank linton. Miss Annie Perry Neal met the guests and invited them to the punch bowl where Miss Fannie Neal was serving. Games of bridge, rook and dancing were participated in dur-ing the evening. They were then in-vited into the dining room where refreshments were served from a pret-tily decorated table.

Those present were Misses Emma Lawrence Joyner, Louise Joyner, An-nie Willis Boddie, Louise Allen, Max Allen, Anna Fuller Parham, Margaret Turner, Jesse Elmore, Lucy Burt, Louise Reavis, Mary Smith, Lillian Howelli Centia Williams, Elizabeth Clifton, Lucy Clifton Boddie, Nell Ballard Joyner, of Franklinton, and An-

Re-Union.

Friday, July 9th, was quite an en-joyable day at the home of Mr. W. J. Shearin, near Castalia, when the family of Mrs. M. V. Lancaster gathered in a re-union in celebration of her 69th birthday. The many pleasures and experiences of those who were present and the interest each one feit for the other caused a peculiarly pleasant day that could not be experienced in other amusements. At the dinner hour deliciously appetizing barbecue was served and the repast was largely enjoyed.

According to figures given out the past week by County Supervisor of Tax Assessments Hugh W. Perry, Franklin County's taxables will total Franklin County's taxables will total approximately $23,000,000.00 for the year 1920, which represents an increase of about 250 per cent over 1919 which was approximately $9,100,000.00. This year the value of real estate is approximately sixteen and a half million dollars, as compared with about four and a half last year, while the personal property for 1920 will run up to possibly six and a quarter million against about four and a half millions last year. A very peculiar occurrence in the tax valuations for 1919 was that there was only twenty-five cents difference between the total valuations of real estate and personal property, the latter being the largest in amount.

It is generally conceded under these figures that the tax rate will be about one per cent, with possibly a
