Several Happened in Past Ten Days—Damage to Cars, Slight Injuries to Persons.

During the past week or ten days a number of automobile accidents have happened in Louisburg, with small bad results however.

On Sunday night so we are informed, Mr. C. D. Hale collided with a horse and buggy near the Baptist Church. The radiator on the car was damaged but no serious damage was done the horse, buggy or to persons.

Saturday night, we learn Mr. H. C. Williams collided with a horse and buggy in front of the hotel. The car was damaged and the horse also but we learn, only slightly.

Just prior to these — Green driving a horse and buggy down Main Street collided with Sheriff H. C. Kearney, during which the car of Mr. Beddingfield that was parked near by suffered damage. The Sheriff's car was slightly damaged. We could not learn of the damage to the buggy or horse.

On Tuesday afternoon while crossing the street in a hurry looking east Mr. E. F. Thomas collided with a Ford driven by Mr. G. D. Taylor, Jr., causing a cut over the left temple and many bruises. Mr. Thomas takes all the blame in this case, but it came near being serious.

On Wednesday evening while returning home from a ride Mrs. A. S. Wiggs ran into a telephone post in front of Mrs. Place's on Main Street and smashed the top section of the windshield, cutting ugly gashes on the mouth and forehead of her sister, Miss Pearlie Timberlake, and bending the radius rods and otherwise damaging the car. Besides Mrs. Wiggs and her sister her daughter and a little colored boy servant was in the car. From the information we could get it seemed that two cars running abreast at an extra high speed forced Mrs. Wiggs to drive into the ditch for safety and in the excitement she drove most too far over to the side.

At Punkin Center Beach.

The old, old days of bulles, boxers, booze, battles and ballots have passed away and Punkin Center now has beautiful boulevards, bridges, boats, bathers, both blonds and brunettes. Sweet sisters, sunny smiles, short skirts, silk stockings, small sandals, seem surprisingly sensational, sending sunshine. Seventeen sturdy, sockless sons, stodd stock still, staring, sweating, swearing, saying such sweet sixteen sisters swimming so swan like seem superhuman. Sand's straped swimming suit showed several slack stitches, so sands soon started swimming, sought some sister showing several scientific swimming strokes, said said sister should soon swim successfully. Some sister said said sisters swan-like swimming showed scientific schooling. Some sixty summers since Sand's special stanby swam, still sweet sisters sunny smiles, short skirts, small sandals, silk stockings, swanlike swimming seemed superfine. Seventeen sturdy, sockless sons and September's suspending such splendid summer seasons seemed so sad. Sand's swimming school, some sister, several sweet sixteen sisters, seventeen sturdy, sockless sons, Sand's some sixty summers stanby say such splendid summer season should survive seventeen successive summers. —Village Blacksmith.
