BUT THEY RODE

The following poem from the pen of a citizen of Shady Dale has created much amusement in Hartwell and the county. We publish it by request of several parties in both town and county—among them are several who rode:

Last spring when cotton was selling so high you could see farmers floating in the sky. But they rode.

They rode in the sun. They rode in the rain. Some even rode in an aeroplane. But they rode.

They rode all night. They rode all day. They kept on riding till the devil's to pay. But they rode.

If I wasn't an auto, I was a blamed old mule. They kept on riding, till they've cut the fool. But they rode.

Some rode hard. Some rode well. But they kept on riding. Till they've sure played h. But they rode.

Some doctors spent. The whole year distributing pills. And can't collect enough money. To pay their gasoline bills. But they rode.

The real estate business. Was best of all. But blamed my skin. If it didn't fall. But they rode.

Some bought Fords. But carried them back. And promised the difference. For a Cadillac. But they rode.

The farmers and merchants. Are broke that's true. And it looks mighty like. The banks are too. But they rode.

The above was written. Just for a joke. But darn my hide. If the country ain't broke. But they rode.

—Contributed.

Lesser Evil.—Bill Collector—But why do you let your wife spend all your money? Mr. Henpeck—Because I'd rather argue with you than with her.

On Thursday, March 3, 1921, at about the hour of noon, at the store formerly occupied by The McBrayer Clothing Company, in the town of Louisburg, I will offer for sale to the highest bidder at public auction, for cash, all accounts due The McBrayer Clothing Company remaining unpaid at that time. A list of the debtors will be furnished prospective bidders at the time and place of sale.

NOTICE

North Carolina. In Superior Court Franklin Co. Before J. J. Barrow C. S. C.
Haywood Perry, Celestia Perry, Laura Atston and Miles Perry, Va.

John Perry, Lee Atston and wife Rosa Atston, Iola Perry, Florence Perry and Sidney Perry.

To all whom it may Concern: A special proceeding has been begun in the Superior Court of Franklin County for the sale of the interest of one Sidney Perry in the lands described in the above entitled proceedings, and in said proceedings the death of one Sidney Perry has been suggested, the said Sidney Perry having been absent from the State for more than seven years and it is presumed he is dead, this being a proceeding asking for the sale of the interest of said Sidney Perry for division among his heirs. Now therefore let Sidney Perry and all others interested take Notice that if the said Sidney Perry does not make his appearance before this Court and file an answer to said proceedings on or before the 1st Monday in March, 1921, or if the whereabouts of the said Sidney Perry is not obtained by this Court, an order for the sale of the interest of said Sidney Perry will be entered to the end that the interest of said Sidney Perry may be sold for division among his nearest of kin. This Feb. 3rd, 1921.
J. J. BARROW,
Clerk Superior Court.

SALE OF VALUABLE LAND.

Under and by virtue of the power of sale contained in that certain deed of trust executed by J. L. Atston on the 2nd day of June, 1919 to Ben T. Holden, trustee and duly registered in Book 224 at page 258, in the office of the register of Deeds of Franklin County, default having been made in the payment of the notes thereby secured and demand having been made upon me to foreclose in accordance with the terms and provisions of said deed of trust by the holder of said notes, I, the undersigned trustee, will on Monday the 7th day of March, 1921 at 12 o'clock M. at the Court House door of Franklin County, sell to the highest bidder at public auction for cash the following real estate:

First Tract: Beginning at a beech on the East side of the mill pond, thence S. 8 1-2 E 78 poles to three ash at the mouth of Watson's Branch on Sandy Creek, thence down said creek with its several meanders to the mouth of Deer's Branch, thence up said Branch to the road leading from Dr. Still's to Ramsours Bridge, thence N 28d W 11 poles to a stake, Swanson's corner, thence N. 34d W 15 poles to a pine on the mill pond, thence N 69 1-2d W 25 poles to a sweetgum, thence N 4d W 31 poles to a poplar on the mill pond, thence up the various courses of said pond at high water mark to its head thence across the creek, thence down the various courses of said pond at high water mark to the beginning, containing eighty-five and one-half (85 1-2) acres, more or less.

Second Tract: Adjoining the above mentioned tract, contains seventeen (17) acres, more or less and is known and designated as the Dock Gupton Tract of land.

This 31st day of Jan., 1921.
2-4-21 BEN. T. HOLDEN, Trustee.

TRUSTEES RE-SALE OF LAND

By virtue of the power of sale contained in that certain deed of trust made by P. W. Cooper and wife, to Wm. H. Ruffin, Trustee dated Jan. 8, 1920, and recorded in Book 234 at page 29, Franklin Registry, default having been made in the payment of the debt thereby secured, and demand for foreclosure having been made on said trustee, by the holder of the said indebtedness, and the land having been sold on Monday, Feb. 7, 1921, but an up-set of 5 per cent of the purchase money at said sale having been filed with the Clerk of the Superior Court as by law required, and re-sale requested, the undersigned, will on Monday, Feb. 28, 1921, at or about the hour of noon at the Court house door in Louisburg, N. C. offer for sale at public auction to the highest bidder for cash the property in said deed of trust conveyed, there described as follows: Containing 39 acres bounded on the West by Cypress Creek, on South by P. W. Cooper and Annie Davis Cooper, on North by Cypress Creek, and on East by Albert Hurley Davis, being a part of the Joe Davis home place, and is the same land set apart to Annie Davis Cooper in the partition of her father, Joe Davis' land, as will appear from the record of said partition in office of C. S. C. and Register of Deeds for Franklin Co., being recorded in Book 19 of Orders and Decrees page 237 et seq. office C. S. C. to which reference is hereby made for complete description of the same. The land being Lot No. 1 in said partition. This Feb. 10, 1921.

BUY IT FROM US IT PAYS

This is a Furniture Store and we are supposed to sell everything for the house furnishings, and we live up to the expectations.

You can buy anything you want here.

It pays to buy from us, because we sell an enormous amount of goods and our expenses are comparatively light, and we can therefore sell at a closer margin of profit than some others.

We don't want to say anything unkind of our esteemed competitors, but we DO want you to KNOW the ADVANTAGE and ECONOMY of trading at THIS Store.

You CAN'T lose, and you WILL gain. Now doesn't this line of argument appeal straight to your good common sense!
