

Let's settle this right now!

No man ever smoked a better cigarette than Camel!

You'll find Camels unequalled by any cigarette in the world at any price because Camels combine every feature that can make a cigarette supreme!

Camels expert blend of choice Turkish and choice Domestic tobaccos puts Camels in a class by themselves. Their smoothness will appeal to you, and permit you to smoke liberally without tiring your taste!

Camels leave no unpleasant cigarette aftertaste nor unpleasant cigarette odor!

You'll prefer Camels blend to either kind of tobacco smoked straight!

Camels are sold everywhere in scientifically sealed packages of 20 cigarettes; or ten packages (200 cigarettes) in a glassine-paper-covered carton. We strongly recommend this carton for the home or office supply or when you travel.

"When Seen or Advertised Elsewhere It's Always Cheapest Here"

LOUISBURG, North Carolina

IN REMEMBRANCE OF MR. C. W. JONES.

On Feb. 7, 1921, the death angel came and claimed for his own our dear beloved friend which cast a shadow of gloom over the entire community. He was 52 years old. He leaves to mourn their loss two daughters, sister, brothers and a lot of sorrowing friends. He was loved by everybody that knew him. He was always ready to lend a helping hand of some kind. He joined Flat Rock Church in early youth and was a true and faithful member. He was laid to rest at Flat Rock church beside his wife to wait the resurrection. We can not see why the Lord took him away so soon. Blessed is he that die in the name of the Lord. His spirit has taken its flight to its home beyond the pearly skies where he will beckon his loved ones until they all meet again beyond the skies.

We loved you dear friend, But Jesus loved you best And sent his holy angels To take you home to rest.

He is sleeping, sweetly sleeping In the beautiful grave so low We are weeping, sadly weeping For our dear friend who was taken away so quick.

You have left us dear friend Never will your memory fade But our love will always linger around the grave

Where you are laid. Oh how sad it is to mourn No one will ever know Until they see their loved ones dying And know they must forever go. And now we miss you dear friend at Flat Rock Every time we go And the reason we miss you dear friend is because we loved you so.

There is a longing in our heart That never will be satisfied no more Until we meet our dear friend And loved ones on the other shore.

It is lonely here without our dear friend In this world of toil and care But we will join him with the ransom in that land so bright and fair.

Yes it will be a happy greeting When we meet to part no more With our friends and loved ones Waiting on that bright eternal shore.

So farewell dear friend forever On earth I shall see you no more But I do hope some to meet you and my loved ones Who have gone before.

—A Philathea Girl.

Jailed Toot Sweet—"What's the charge, officer?" "Fragrancy, your honor. He's been drinking perfume."

On Thursday, March 3, 1921, at about the hour of noon, at the store formerly occupied by The McBrayer Clothing Company, in the town of Louisburg, I will offer for sale to the highest bidder at public auction, for cash, all accounts due The McBrayer Clothing Company, remaining unpaid at that time. A list of the debtors will be furnished prospective bidders at the time and place of sale.

D. F. McKINNE, Receiver for The McBrayer Clothing Company, Inc.

That's Different. Redd—Thought you told me that was a ten-horsepower automobile of yours? Greene—So I did. Well, I can't believe it. Why not? Because, I noticed it took only one horse to pull it back home to-day!

A "Blue" Mayor.—Talk about our Sunday blue laws, here's a decree issued not long ago by the mayor of a little commune in the Pyrenees: Whereas the young people of the commune are wont to meet and dance every Sunday after mass, and the noise they make frightens the cocks, hens, and other animals of the village, we hereby prohibit dancing within the bounds of the commune during the hours in which the domestic animals take their repose.

No Worms in a Healthy Child
All children troubled with worms have an unhealthy color, which indicates poor blood. As a rule, there is more or less stomach disturbance. GROVE'S TASTELESS CHILL TONIC given regularly for two or three weeks will enrich the blood, improve the digestion, and act as a General Strengthening Tonic to the whole system. Nature will then throw off or digest the worms, and the child will be in perfect health. Pleasant to take. 60c per bottle.

Overworked. Talking about dry towns, have you ever been in Leavenworth, Kansas? asked the commercial traveler in the smoking-car. No? Well, that's a dry town for you, all right. They can't sell liquor at all there? asked one of the men. Only-if you have been bitten by a snake, said the traveler. They have only one snake in the town, and when I got to it the other day, after standing in line for nearly half the day, it was too tired to bite.

Anything to Oblige.
The constable of a New England village, a man of exceeding good nature, found it necessary to lock up three tramps who had strayed into his jurisdiction. Shortly after the arrest he was met by the mayor of the village, who, observing the constable hurrying down the main street, asked, "Where are you going, constable?" "Oh, exclaimed the constable, the three tramps I just locked up want to play bridge, and I'm out hunting for a fourth!"

"I Lost My Best Customers Through Rats," Write J. Adams.
"Used to have the busiest Restaurant in town until news spread that the kitchen was infested with rats; lost a lot of my best customers until I tried RAT-SNAP. Haven't a pest in the place now. Restaurants should use RAT-SNAP." Three sizes, 35c, 50c, $1.25. Sold and guaranteed by The Allen Bros. Co.
