

On Thursday, March 3, 1921, at about the hour of noon, at the store formerly occupied by The McBrayer Clothing Company, in the town of Louisburg, I will offer for sale to the highest bidder at public auction, for cash, all accounts due The McBrayer Clothing Company remaining unpaid at that time. A list of the debtors will be furnished prospective bidders at the time and place of sale.

D. F. McKINNE, Receiver for The McBrayer Clothing Company, Inc.

MARY'S LAMB.

Mary's lamb has lost his fame, No more a Poet's treasure, With May they no more use his name For either rhyme or measure.

Now when Mary goes to school, She drives a Hudson Racer, A lamb would be a mutton foot, To even try to chase her.

She declares this little steep, Was greatly over rated, And the poem very cheap, The Poet empty pated.

She also claims this sheep a farce, And says his wool was dingy, Though petted him when things were scarce, And Dad was poor and stingy.

Mary says she never knew This lamb to create laughter, The skin and not the wool he grew Is all that she is after.

She autos up the boulevard A silk clad social leader, T'would take a Rockyfeller wad To pay her bills and feed ner.

A cautious Poet of today, You may depend upon it, When using lambs will leave out Mary For lack of nerve—Dog gone it.

A Predicament.

I'm in a predicament, What's the trouble? I'm running for office, Well? I can't make up my mind what to do—You see, I can't think up any real good reason why I should be elected and I hate to conduct a mud-slinging campaign and spend all my time telling the people why the other fellow shouldn't be.

Some Young Ideas.
Teacher—Where was the Declaration of Independence signed?
Bright Pupil—At the bottom, mum.
Teacher—Do you know the population of New York?
Not all of them, ma'm; we've only lived here two years.
Teacher—Swarms of flies descended upon the Egyptians, but there were no flies on the children of Israel.
Smart Boy—There ain't now, either.

WHAT A BLESSING
a life insurance policy has been to so many men during these days of low prices. Thousands of Dollars have been loaned to policy holders within the last six months the only security given being the policy. During "hard times" is when we need INSURANCE mostly. See us about that PILOT PERFECTION ENDOWMENT POLICY. It is REAL Insurance.
