SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION

To Convene Tuesday, June 28, 1921.

AT THE BAPTIST CHURCH

Mr. D. W. Sims, General Superintendent North Carolina Sunday School Association To Deliver Addresses—Program For Convention.

The opening session of the Franklin County Sunday School Convention will be held in the Baptist Church, Louisburg, on Tuesday night, June 28th. The Convention will continue through Wednesday night, there being three sessions on that day, morning, afternoon and night.

The Sunday School leaders of the county consider themselves very fortunate in having secured Mr. D. W. Sims, General Superintendent of the North Carolina Sunday School Association, as one of the speakers. Under Mr. Sims' direction the State Association is doing some progressive Sunday School work. Before taking up the work in North Carolina, Mr. Sims served for five years as General Superintendent in Alabama, and for the past eight years has been General Superintendent of the Georgia Sunday School Association. Mr. Sims not only knows the organized Sunday School work, but he has also had practical experience as Sunday School teacher and superintendent. He was superintendent of a Sunday School in Richmond which increased in membership from 501 to 2,072 in less than three years time. He is noted for the practicality of his addresses delivered in such a humorous, interesting and instructive way. Mr. Sims' first lecture in Louisburg will be on "The Book from the Land of the Book" which is based on his observations while traveling in Palestine. Write on this trip to Palestine Mr. Sims traveled in ten foreign countries and during the past fall he took a trip to China, Korea and Japan.

Miss Flora Davis, Assistant Superintendent of the North Carolina Sunday School Association will also be one of the speakers. Miss Davis knows the Sunday school work and her addresses on methods of work are said to be very helpful and delivered in a very attractive manner. Miss Davis will speak on "The Adults in the Sunday School," "Trained workers for the Sunday School," "Story Telling," and "Four Essentials of a Graded Sunday School." Miss Davis was one of the official delegates to the World's Sunday School Convention in Tokyo, Japan last October. She was one of the speakers at this convention and also visited many of the principal cities of Japan and delivered addresses in the interest of the Sunday School cause. Franklin County is among the first conventions Miss Davis has helped in since taking up the work in this state recently. She comes to North Carolina from Georgia where she has done similar work for the past nine years. The Sunday School teachers of the state feel that a very competent assistant has been secured in Miss Davis.

The meeting at Louisburg is arranged under the auspices of the North Carolina Sunday School Association which is the only organization in the state which aims to help all departments of every Sunday School in the state. The Association stands for those interests common to Sunday School workers of all denominations. It is a systematic effort of workers from the various denominations to create public sentiment in favor of more and better Sunday Schools. Leaders in thought in the various denominations help in this work.

The following local committee has in charge the arrangements for the Convention: G. M. Beam, Chairman, J. C. Jones, Mrs. F. B. McKinne, Mrs. R. H. Robbitt, J. L. Palmer, W. H. Ruf, Mrs. W. E. White, Mrs. T. W. Watson.

"SELLING TOGETHER."

Sing a song of six pence
Mother's working too,
Boys and girls stay out of school
What can a farmer do!

Price of cotton much too low,
Tobacco just the same,
Everybody's busted—
It's an awful game.

Just one way to beat it,
To get a price that's right,
Sign and Sell together,
Then we'll all see light.

HINES—SMITH.

Miss Leola Smith and Mr. John D. Hines Will Be Married on June 29th.

Mrs. D. S. Bryan entertained yesterday evening at a very lovely bridge party, at which time she announced the engagement of Miss Leola Smith to Mr. John D. Hines, the wedding to take place June 29th.

The living room and dining room were decorated with huge quantities of daisies and sweet peas. Three tables were placed for bridge, and after a number of interesting games had been played and scores added, the high score prize, a lovely hand-embroidered linen towel, fell to Miss Julia Thomas.

An immense basket of daisies made an exquisite centerpiece for the dining room table and place cards were suspended from the centerpiece. These dainty place cards were daisies, and the interesting announcement was laid with the following inscription: "I am a daisy and am not supposed to tell, but I know a secret and have kept it well, now the time has come to make you wise, just hold your breath and open your eyes."

Ice cream and cake were served. Favors were corsages in shower bouquet effect and attached to each daisy card. Underneath the edge of the centerpiece were white daisies with the further announcement, Hines-Smith, June 29.

Miss Smith is the sister of Mr. R. F. Smith, of Benson. She has been a buyer for the ladies ready-to-wear department at the Anchor Store for the past three years and has made a host of friends in this city.

Mr. Hines is a very prominent business man of this city. He has made Louisburg his home for a number of years, being connected with the Hines-Hodges Motor Company in that place and Henderson. He is now located in Henderson.

The following guests were invited to enjoy Mrs. Bryan's hospitality: Misses Miriam Boeders, Gwendolyn Leggett, Sallie Palmer, Julia Thomas, Eva Moore, Lottie Petty, Agnes Royster, Virginia Carroll, Mesdames Al B. Wester, J. J. S. Calloway, Wesley Adams, Edgar Bryan, E. V. Bunn, W. H. Wester, Sr.—Henderson Dispatch.

MEET SATURDAY TO MAKE PLANS

TO ORGANIZE FARMERS OF FRANKLIN

Dr. B. W. Kilgore and Mr. Homer H. B. Mask, To Be Present and Present The Facts About The Tobacco Growers and Cotton Growers Associations.

What is probably the most systematic, business-like and effective method of organizing farmers for the marketing of their crops will begin in Franklin County June 25th, when Dr. B. W. Kilgore and Mr. Homer H. B. Mask will meet a number of the representative farmers of the county in the court house in Louisburg for the purpose of planning a campaign for presenting the cotton and tobacco associations to the farmers of Franklin county and offering them an opportunity of joining the two associations.

These two associations are very similar to the Citrus Fruit Growers Association of California which have in very recent years taken the fruit growers of California from a helpless, poverty-stricken condition and placed them in a position of splendid independence and the man who so successfully built up this association in California is the same who is directing the organization of the southern cotton and tobacco growers, Mr. Aaron Sapro, the foremost and most successful authority on cooperative marketing in the United States. Mr. Sapro is being assisted by members of the U. S. Department of Agriculture, Dr. Clarence Poe and many others of the biggest farmers of the agricultural interests of the state.

Many of the cotton and tobacco growing counties of North Carolina have already joined the associations by great majorities and in a few weeks the campaign will close in this state with an overwhelming majority of the cotton and tobacco farmers enlisted. It is expected that Franklin will be in line with the other counties and when the campaign ends here it will do so with every farmer a member of each of the two associations.

Pretty Wedding at Weldon.

Weldon, June 18.—Grace Episcopal church was the scene of a beautiful wedding on the evening of June 14th, when Miss Minnie Frances Brickell, youngest daughter of Halifax county's esteemed citizens, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Brickell, was married to Mr. Joseph Chaille, of Miami, Fla. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Charles Westman.

The church decorations were under the direction of Mrs. W. L. Scott. A short program was rendered with genuine musical skill, by Mrs. Frances Harrison at the organ and Mrs. R. S. Travis exquisitely sang "Because I Love You Dear." The bridal party entered the church to the strains of the wedding march from Lohengrin.

Music was softly and sweetly played during the ceremony. Mendelssohn's wedding march was played as a recessional.

The bride was given in marriage by her oldest brother, Mr. Richard Brickell. Little Miss Virginia Beck, of Louisburg, a niece of the bride was flower girl. Mrs. I. E. Green was matron of honor for her sister, Miss Helen Graves, of Virginia, was maid of honor. Mr. C. B. LaGros, of Miami, Fla., as best man and Messrs Sterling M. Gary, of Halifax and Elliott B. Clark, of Weldon, Dr. W. G. Sulter, of Weldon and Robert Beck, of Louisburg, were ushers.

Mr. and Mrs. Chaille on the wedding journey will visit Norfolk and Virginia Beach, thence to the mountains of North Carolina.

The bride is a young woman of charming personality and has many friends in her native county. She has pursued studies at Lousburg College and North Carolina College for Women. For the past few years she has spent much time in New York City and Washington. Mr. Chaille is a prominent man in his home town.

Miss Brickell made many friends during her stay in Louisburg who will extend the best of wishes and hearty congratulations.

State College Advertisement.

The advertisement of the North Carolina State College of Agriculture and Engineering appears in this issue. This growing technical college is doing a fine work for young men who expect to be farmers, chemists, engineers, textile manufacturers, or scientific workers in any of these lines. Read the advertisement and write to the college for fuller information if you are interested in technical education for yourself, your son, or any of your young friends.

Sad Fate of Lamb.

Teacher—You see, had the lamb been obedient, and stayed in the fold, it would not have been eaten by the wolf, would it?

NORTH CAROLINA WINS FREIGHT RATE CASE

GIVES STATE MERCHANTS BETTER RATES.

Change Will Become Effective On September 15th; Under Readjustment North Carolina Rates to Some Points Will Be From 4 to 49 Cents Cheaper Per 100 Pounds Than Virginia Rate.

Washington, June 21.—Readjustment of freight rates to give North Carolina shippers and merchants a more favorable rate-comparison with those of Virginia cities from and to southeastern territory and the Virginia cities and to the North and East was ordered today by the Interstate Commerce Commission to become effective September 15.

Under the Southeastern readjustment the North Carolina cities will get rates to points in South Carolina, Georgia, Florida, Alabama, Mississippi and Tennessee ranging from 4 to 49 cents lower per 100 pounds than the rate from Virginia cities to the same destinations.

The Northern readjustment provides for a spread ranging from 60 to 72 cents per 100 pounds over the Virginia cities rates from and to Northern cities. This is a reduction in the present spread which the commission said is unduly favorable to the Virginia cities.

M. R. Beaman, Secretary of the Raleigh Chamber of Commerce and the North Carolina Traffic Association and Attorney J. H. Fishback, of Washington, D. C., were officially served with notice that signal victory had been won by the shippers of North Carolina in the famous North Carolina-Virginia rate case.

History of Case.
This case involved freight rates from northern and eastern points into North Carolina and in the reverse direction and from North Carolina to southern states and in the reverse direction covering in all approximately twenty-six States. The territory included has a line beginning at the Canadian border through Pittsburg, including that city to the Ohio Potomac rivers to the Atlantic ocean and from North Carolina to all States south of the Ohio east of the Mississippi.

Filed in 1919.
The case was first filed early in January, 1919 in the name of the Raleigh Chamber of Commerce. Later on the following North Carolina cities joined that organization: Greensboro, Henderson, Greenville, Fayetteville, Wilson, Zebulon, Rocky Mount, Goldsboro and Durham; immediately after which the North Carolina Corporation Commission filed a complaint attacking the rates from North Carolina to the south and in the reverse direction. The complaint of the Chambers of Commerce covered the entire territory.

The case was heard in Raleigh in June, 1919, before Commissioner Eastman and Examiner Burnside. At this hearing Mr. Beaman submitted data on both the northern and southern adjustments and W. G. Womble, of the Corporation Commission, submitted data covering the southern adjustment.

The decision in the case was rendered in May 1920, to become effective September 10, 1920.

During August, 1920, the Corporation Commission of Virginia, in connection with the railroads, requested the Interstate Commerce Commission to re-open the case for re-argument and presentation of new testimony. This request was granted and re-argument was held September 30, 1920.

The new decision gives the shippers of North Carolina relief which they have been seeking for some forty years and the discrimination under which North Carolina shippers have been suffering has undoubtedly played a large part in making the Virginia cities what they are today.

It has been estimated by expert traffic men that this victory will mean approximately $40,000,000 a year to North Carolina in trade; this figure does not take into consideration the potential possibility of developments of jobbing and distributing business. The rates affected by today's decision have been in effect forty-two years before the Raleigh Chamber of Commerce attack them.

The North Carolina Traffic Association some time ago took charge of the case and expense in connection therewith and the members and officers of the association deserve the praise of the entire state.

"ROUND UP" DAYS.

June 27 to 30 inclusive are "Round Up" days in North Carolina. On these days farmers all over the state are going to do their neighbors a good turn by getting them to sign up for cooperative marketing of cotton and tobacco.

North Carolina now has a chance to be the second state in the Union to complete her sign up for cooperative marketing of cotton and tobacco. Georgia for this honor. Oklahoma is the first and only state to complete her sign up to date.

Virginia is trying to beat North Carolina in the sign up for tobacco but growers all over North Carolina are out to show neighbors that heels can "go some" in the final drive.

"Neighbor, have you signed for prosperity?" is the question that will be asked by thousands during the last few days of June.

MARRIAGE ANNOUNCED.

Miss Camilla Webb Yarborough to Wed Mr. John Melvin Glenn.

On last Thursday afternoon, from five to seven o'clock, the home of Mrs. F. Yarborough, Sr., was thrown open to her many friends, and with its floral decorations of sweet peas, ferns and daisies, furnished the setting for a scene of unusual beauty and interest. Invitations had been issued, ostensibly for bridge and rook, but in some way the air seemed palpant with mystery, and rumors were rife that the occasion meant more than simply games.

When the refreshments were served each plate, in addition to its dainty cream, held a cluster of sweet peas and a lovely hand-painted card, (double heart pierced with a Cupid's arrow), with this inscription:

"Camilla Yarborough and John Glenn, June 29th, 1921," and the suspicion became a certainty.

Mrs. R. F. Yarborough, Jr., in a happy and graceful manner, then presented to the bride-elect a handsome "Bride's Book" the gift of her grandmother, Mrs. R. F. Yarborough, Sr. The response of Miss Yarborough was beautiful, and all were moved as she spoke in tender tones of "the sweet memories she would ever cherish of all the dear kin and kind friends in dear old Louisburg."

The occasion was one of deep interest to Louisburg society in which Miss Yarborough has been extremely popular and prominent ever since her debut three years ago. Both parlors were crowded with guests. Mrs. T. W. Bickett and Mrs. J. K. Collier, formerly of Louisburg, and relatives of the family, motored over from Raleigh to be present. The refreshments were served by Misses Mary Wyatt Yarborough, Eleanor Yarborough, Fannie Neal and Annie Perry Neal, who were charming in their youthful and graceful attire, all being school girl cousins of the bride-to-be.

Miss Yarborough is the second daughter of Mr. John B. Yarborough, one of the leading citizens of this county, and well known in the State, and is a young woman of distinguished talents and striking and attractive personality. The groom-to-be, Mr. John Melvin Glenn, is from Gates County, N. C., and while quite a young man, occupies the position of Public Instruction and holds a high place in the confidence and respect of the people.

Many social events have been planned in Miss Yarborough's honor preceding the date of the marriage, which as elsewhere announced will take place June 29th, at nine o'clock in the evening at St. Paul's Episcopal church. It is interesting to note that the great-grandparents of the bride-to-be were members of the first congregation of this Church formed in Louisburg more than seventy-five years ago, and it has witnessed the nuptials of her family for three generations.

EXTRA SESSION IS SURE SAYS MR. MENDENHALL

State Senator From Guilford Has Just Had Talk in Charlotte With The Governor.

High Point, June 20.—That the state legislature will be called in special session is now a certainty, according to State Senator O. E. Mendenhall, of High Point, who returned today from Charlotte where on Saturday he talked with Governor Cameron Morrison.

"It is only a question of time as to the special session," said Mr. Mendenhall today. "Governor Morrison realizes that it is necessary and he intimated that there would be no question as to the legislators being called to Raleigh again this year."

Asked if he had any idea concerning the time of the special session, Mr. Mendenhall said he did not, but that the governor said "I believe, I'll take the cow by the horns and call it this fall."

J. H. MALONE HELD FOR RAPE

BOUND OVER WITHOUT BOND.

Hearing Before A. W. Alston Tuesday—Bessie Perry Victim—Both Parties Colored—Happened Sunday Night.

John Hilliard Malone, colored, who ran a pressing club in Louisburg, was bound over to the next term of Franklin Superior Court by Squire A. W. Alston on Tuesday on a charge of committing rape upon the person of Bessie Perry, colored. The evidence produced at the trial, so we are informed, stated that Malone took the girl in his automobile Sunday night to bring her to church but instead crossed the river and drove out the river road where he accomplished his purpose. An unsuccessful attempt was made to prove the girl a bad character.

On Monday June 20th, an abandoned baby was found by members of the James Post of the American Legion and the youngster was straightway adopted by the members of the James Post who are feeding it and taking the best of care of it. He is one of the cutest kids that we have ever seen, and lets out some manly squalls at the sight of milk. We have decided that it is not a square deal to the kid to raise him up under the influence of a bunch of men. We feel that he is due a mother's loving care, so we have decided to give him away at the "Country Store," which will be shown at the Star Theatre, Tuesday evening, June 28, at 8:30 P. M. Every mother in Louisburg should be present with the hope of drawing the "LUCKY BABY NUMBER"—even if he is an infant piggy.

ABANDONED BABY FOUND IN LOUISBURG!

Adopted By American Legion.

At this same "Country Store" some one is going to "Get The American Legions Goat!" He is one of our strongest members—a regular GIANT. In fact he is strong enough to blow his own horn. We are tired of his butting into our affairs, we find ourselves up against a hard proposition when he butts—so we are going to tag him with a lucky number and give him to someone. Here's hoping YOU get him.

Someone will have something to crow about too, cause we are going to give away a sho nuff ROOSTER. He is a regular Second Looie, judging from the way he wears his spurs.

The doors of the Star Theatre will be open promptly at 8 P. M. Mr. Allen says that he will give us a splendid picture for this auspicious occasion. After the picture, we will give away prizes to those holding the ticket numbers, corresponding to the numbers on the prizes, and there will be numerous prizes. The merchants of Louisburg have been very generous indeed, and have given us some prizes that a man ought to blush with shame for winning at such a small price as 50c.

If any of you old bachelors happen to draw a nursing bottle don't be offended at us, because it won't be our fault. It will be your good fortune.

If any bald headed gentleman gets a bottle of HAIR RESTORER we fear that we shall have a hair breadth escape from serious injury.

BUY A TICKET AND TRY YOUR LUCK. WE HOPE YOU'LL WIN.

STAR THEATRE, JUNE 28, 8:30 P. M. ADMISSION 50c.

Parker will be in the county during the following week July 4th or 5th through July 8th. Both Dr. Winters and Mr. Blair are highly recommended by those who know them.
