

Glenn-Yarborough

At 9:00 o'clock Wednesday night, June 29th a beautiful wedding was solemnized at St. Paul's Episcopal Church when Miss Camilla Webb Yarborough, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Yarborough became the bride of Mr. John Melvin Glenn, of Gatesville, N. C.

Before the ceremony and while the guests were assembling, Miss Sallie Williams rendered several charming selections on the organ, among them a piece of her own composition called "Light and Shadow." The bride party entered the church to the accompaniment of "The Bridal Chorus" by Lohengrin. First came the ushers, John Yarborough, Will, Collie, Hitt Yarborough and Presley Davis. Next Miss Eleanor Scott Yarborough, sister of the bride and maid of honor, entered alone. She wore a dress of peach tulle trimmed with real lace, and a pretty picture hat. She carried a corsage bouquet of beautiful Killarney roses which harmonized well with the dress. Following the maid of honor came the bride on the arm of her father, who gave her in marriage. The bride, a beautiful young brunette was lovely in a dress of Duchesse satin trimmed with real chantilly lace and crystal trimming, a long court train falling behind from the waist. She wore a veil with orange blossoms, and carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses and lilies of the valley.

The bride was met at the altar by the groom and his best man, Mr. John Elliott, of Greenville, S. C. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. N. Collins Hughes.

To the strains of Mendelssohn's "Wedding March" the bride party left the church going directly to a delightful reception given by Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Yarborough at their home on Main street. Here the guests were received on the porch by Misses Mattie Allen and Mary Eum Burt, Mrs. Julia Swindell and Messrs. William Rufin, Jr., James King and James Malone. In the front hall which was beautifully decorated with cut flowers and potted flowers were Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Clifton, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Allen, Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Joyner, Dr. and Mrs. R. P. Yarborough. The receiving line stood in the parlor with Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Yarborough, Mr. and Mrs. John Glenn, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Yarborough, Mrs. Webb, grandmother of the bride.

Miss Eleanor S. Yarborough, Mr. John Elliott, Mr. J. R. Collie, Mrs. W. P. Neal, Miss Mary Yarborough, Mr. C. H. Yarborough, Miss Lucy Leach, Mr. Presley Davis, Miss "Jimmy" Parker, Mr. J. B. Yarborough, Jr., Mrs. Tom Alexander, Mr. Scarborough, Mrs. E. S. Ford and Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Parham. In the library Miss Williams at the piano and Miss Bryant on the violin rendered beautiful selections. In this room were Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Palmer, Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Beam, Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Reavis, Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Perry, Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Boddie. In the dining room were Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Ricks, Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Allen, Mrs. E. L. Best, Mrs. J. S. Williams, Mrs. Henry Macon, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Malone and Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Watson.

The refreshments were served by a charming group of young girls: Miss Louise and Max Allen, Emma Lawrence and Louise Joyner, Annie Willis and Lucy Clifton Boddie, Tempie and Hattie Williams, Fannie and Annie Perry Neal, Elizabeth and Louise Reavis, Anna Fuller Parham, Elizabeth Clifton, Lucy T. Allen, Margaret Turner, Dorcas McKinnis, Jessie Elmore and Elizabeth Allen of Oxford.

After the reception Mr. and Mrs. Glenn motored to Raleigh where they took the midnight train for Asheville. The bride is one of Louisville's most charming and accomplished young ladies being a daughter of Mr. J. B. Yarborough, who served Franklin County as Register of Deeds for several terms and is deservedly popular among a host of friends both at home and abroad.

The groom is the popular Superintendent of Public Instruction of Gates County, which responsible position speaks of his popularity and worth. The couple have the best wishes for a long and happy life of a large host of friends and admirers.

First Cotton Bloom

John Stallings, colored, living at the J. B. McKinnis place near Mr. J. J. Allen, brought us the first cotton bloom on Wednesday. It was a white bloom and was taken from a field of six acres that was planted April 14th. This speaks well for John's ability as a farmer.

Germany Has Fulfilled One of Her Obligations

Washington, June 28.—Germany has fulfilled her obligation to replace rail way material taken by her armed forces from allied countries during the war, according to advices received here today in official circles.

The inter-allied railway commission demanded that Germany deliver 5,000 railway cars to France and Belgium of which the former country was to receive 1,500 and the latter 3,500. In compliance with this demand, according to German figures, 3,419 state-owned railway cars and 61 of private companies have been delivered to Belgium and 1,492 state owned railway cars and 113 private owned cars to France.

Scanty Attire Of Missy Inspires Parson To Poetry

New York, June 28.—Scant summer styles, as exhibited in these parts, have inspired Rev. Dr. John Roach Straton, pastor of Calvary Baptist Church, to pen a poem, which was going through its second edition in the public prints today.

Wrote Dr. Straton:
"Mary had a little skirt,
The latest style, no doubt,
But every time she got inside
She was more than half way out."

In a prose foreword, delivered from his pulpit Sunday night Dr. Straton declared he did not advocate a return to the old street-sweeping styles.

"There is a style for women's dresses which is in harmony with the laws of sanitation as well as the principles of modesty," he said.

Home Burned

The home of Mrs. Presley Clifton, near Royal was burned early Wednesday morning. The home and practically all the contents, so we are informed, was a total loss. It is believed that the house was set afire by some one who has not been detected yet.

DR. KILGORE SPEAKS

FRANKLIN COUNTY TO BEGIN SIGN UP.

Mr. H. B. H. Mask Conducts Organization While Mr. J. C. Jones Presides—Committees Appointed—Decision to Enter Practically Unanimous.

The meeting held in the Courthouse on Saturday morning to consider Franklin County's desires in regard to its entering the Cooperative Marketing plans for cotton and tobacco was largely attended and enthusiastic, as was indicated by the large standing vote in favor of beginning a sign up campaign at once, when the question was put.

The meeting was presided over by Mr. J. C. Jones, who introduced Dr. B. W. Kilgore in a short, but to the point address after he had stated the object of the meeting.

Dr. Kilgore delivered a strong and convincing speech favorable to the cooperative selling plans. He said in the past we thought in the sense of production and through this brought the good-old North State up to the fourth State in the Union as an Agricultural State, but now it is our duty to think along other lines, since we have produced, so we are told, more than the country can pay for. He says that one-fourth of all the tobacco grown in all the United States is grown in North Carolina, and that practically all the light tobacco is grown here. He pointed out that after all it was the dollar that counts, in that although more tobacco was made in 1920 than in 1919 the price in 1919 was much more.

"The Cooperative Marketing idea is not a new one," he said "it has been in use for sixty years in the European countries and 26 years in California. Therefore we are in position to profit by their errors in perfecting the plans."

It was through this cooperative selling the speaker said, that California took the fourth place from North Carolina, in holding up the prices of its products by business methods. He explained how through this idea Danish butter was being sold on the Chicago market, the heart of the cattle centre. He said the contracts adopted for this state for cotton and tobacco was the same as that of California except as fit was necessary to change for the different crop. He stated that the Committee appointed to draft the plans had worked on them for some time finally adopting this one, and explained the difference between this association and a general farmers organization.

Mr. F. B. McKinnis stated that there were only two conditions that controlled the crops. The first was Providence, sending seasonable weather conditions. The second was the selling conditions. "We can't help the first" said Mr. McKinnis, "but we can and must help the second."

Mr. G. W. Ford then occupied the floor with quite an enthusiastic talk. A call for the vote was made, which resulted practically unanimous for Franklin to enter the campaign.

Mr. H. B. H. Mask was present and made several wise suggestions and directed the organization. An organization committee was appointed to select school district committees to put on the drive and to see and appoint a speakers committee to select speakers and arrange for speaking at each community centre. The committee selected was as follows:

Dunn—W. A. Mullen.
Harris—Dr. R. P. Floyd.
Youngsville—J. T. Wilson.
Franklinton—J. A. Mitchner.
Hayesville—H. F. Mitchell.
Sandy Creek—W. H. Stedsoe.
Gold Mine—A. A. Shearin.
Cedar Rock—W. D. Bowen.
Cypress—F. B. McKinnis.
Louisburg—J. C. Jones.

After the selection of this committee the meeting adjourned fixing three o'clock that afternoon as the time for the committee to meet and arrange its plans.

The entire meeting was one of much interest and all present greatly enjoyed the speeches by Dr. Kilgore and Mr. Mask.

The organization committee of the Cotton and Tobacco Association met in the Courthouse Saturday 26th after Dr. Kilgore's address in the morning and perfected plans for organizing the farmers of Franklin County into the Cotton and Tobacco Associations.

Mr. Jos. C. Jones was elected Campaign Director and a number of representative cotton and tobacco farmers and business men were appointed to work as a campaign committee.

After Dr. Poe's address Saturday this committee will begin actively to work on the following Monday and within the next few days expect to have the majority of our farmers enrolled in the two associations.

ADDITIONAL ROADS MAY INCREASE WAGE CUT

Labor Board Extends Order For Reduction In Wages To 100 More Roads—Goes Into Effect Friday.

Chicago, June 27.—Employees on virtually every railroad will feel the 12 per cent wage cut ordered by the railroad labor board to take effect July 1, as a result of a supplemental decision today extending the order to nearly 100 additional roads.

The wage slash authorized June 1 to take effect Friday originally contemplated 104 railroads, although not all the employees were affected on all roads. Today's addendum to the decision included 210 roads, many of which were parties to the original decision for employees not covered in the first order.

The reductions authorized today were identical with those of the original order, the only change being the addition of rates for marine workers in certain harbors and of a section covering restaurant and dining car employees, whose wages were ordered reduced by 60 per cent of all increases received since February 23, 1920.

Except a few subsidiary lines, whose parent owners filed petitions for reductions, every railroad affected by decision number two the labor boards $500,000,000 wage award of July, 1920, has been authorized to reduce wages an average of 12 per cent. Most of them have received such permission for all classes of employees. In addition, nearly two score other roads which voluntarily applied the increased scale fixed by the board in 1920, also have received authorization to make a similar cut.

In Honor Bride-to-Be

A party, complimentary to Miss Camilla Yarborough, was given Thursday afternoon at four o'clock by Mrs. J. L. Palmer. Miss Elizabeth Morton met the guests at the door, and ushered them into the parlor to be received by the Hostess, Mrs. Palmer, and Mrs. Yarborough. Misses Camilla and Eleanor Yarborough and Mrs. E. H. Malone, the president of the bridge club.

At the conclusion of the games of bridge and rook, Mrs. R. F. Yarborough presented to the bride-elect, in Mrs. Palmer's name a pair of lovely cut-steeple buckles. The speech of presentation was most happily worded and the gift was received by Miss Yarborough in a delightfully appropriate manner.

The refreshments of cream and cake were not only delicious, but harmonized beautifully with the color scheme, yellow and white, the plates were decorated with nasturtiums, and mints of the same color tones were also served. Of the entertainments given in Miss Yarborough's honor, this occasion was one of the most delightful.

Defeating School Bonds

Eighty-seven school communities in North Carolina have voted $8,255,000 of bonds for new school buildings since January 1, of this year—and this in a year of hard times! It is proof positive that we are not yet bankrupt in spirit or in purse.

School bond issues have failed to carry in very few communities. Two of the recent failures are Hamlet and Louisville. Hamlet fell down the other day in a fifty thousand dollar proposition, and Louisville in a sixty thousand dollar proposition, and both these cities are rich as compared with fifty other communities that went over the top with a rush. Bunn, for instance, a little neighbor of Louisville's, voted school building bonds amounting to fifty dollars per inhabitant. Louisville balked on a proposition amounting to thirty-one dollars per inhabitant.

In Hamlet 296 votes were cast in favor of school bonds, and only 96 votes were cast against the issue. But the minority vote defeated the proposition.—News Letter.

American Legion "Country Store" Was A Huge Success.

Clean entertainment and bushels of fun were the predominating features at the American Legion Country Store that was staged in Louisville, Tuesday, June 28th. The object of the American Legion is to satisfy the PUBLIC with pleasing entertainment at popular prices. We believe that we achieved our object in producing the "Country Store." P. S. & K. K. Allen again proved that they are our friends by providing a splendid picture to run with the Country Store. We were delightedly pleased to find out just how many friends we have in Louisville. It is evident that every merchant here is with us, because they responded to the man, with hand some donations. A packed house was undisputed proof of the fact that the splendid citizens of Louisville, were willing to help us. Every available seat in the house was sold. We wish again to thank the merchants, and the people of Louisville, for their whole hearted response to our efforts to pay off our indebtedness. It goes to prove the old saying that folks will help you if you will try to help yourself. It is a consolation to feel that the citizens of Louisville and North Carolina, are willing to help the fellow that did time in the Army to help them, back in the dark days of the war. We hope with all our hearts that our comrades that "went West," are able to see for them selves the hearty response that their former friends give to what we believe to be a good cause—the building of a clean Club for the young men and women of our country.

As a rule a person dislikes to have someone "get their goat," but we were "tickled to death" when George Cobb got the American Legion's Goat. We hope that George's kid enjoys the goat. We couldn't. Personally we would rather have flowers. There's a difference. We hope that Rev. Smith will enjoy that rooster. Mrs. Witter could not serve him to her boarders with a clear conscience and we want to suggest that Dr. Smith takes him to a rock crusher and makes chicken salad of him. Cade Hayes says that he wants that rooster's comb canned, because he has so many cats for canned rooster combs—a delicacy in demand by the Book Clubs of Louisville. William Jackson was very much pleased to draw that most valuable volume "The Art and Etiquette of Courtship."

We believe that Jack needs that book, judging from his past success as a rival for some fair damsel's hand. Well, folks, if you had a good time at the Country Store, just wait until the American Legion puts on a Thiefs Vaudeville that they have in mind, and we will show you a good time. We hope to cap the climax with this production. We know that it will be good because William Jackson and Ruth Hall are going to help put it over. We could think for thirty days (if that were possible), and we could not think of a better advertisement than to say that Jack and Ruth are going to put their heads together (par don us we mean brains) and work out Thiefs Vaudeville for the American Legion, which we are believing will be the sum of SOME SHOW.

Well, folks, if you had a good time at the Country Store, just wait until the American Legion puts on a Thiefs Vaudeville that they have in mind, and we will show you a good time. We hope to cap the climax with this production. We know that it will be good because William Jackson and Ruth Hall are going to help put it over. We could think for thirty days (if that were possible), and we could not think of a better advertisement than to say that Jack and Ruth are going to put their heads together (par don us we mean brains) and work out Thiefs Vaudeville for the American Legion, which we are believing will be the sum of SOME SHOW.
