ALL ROADS EXPECTED TO FEEL STRIKE WALK
3RD OF NOVEMBER

Chicago, Ill., Oct. 17.—The second group of railroad in the walk-out of the big five Brotherhoods strikes into the East, it became known today. The roads include the New York, New Haven and Hartford and the Delaware and Hudson.

Like the first group, the walkout on the second division of roads will affect every section of the country, but hits the East hardest—a section of the country left practically untouched on the first day. The second group walk-out will come at 6 a. m. local standard time, November 1.

The official list of roads in group two follows:

New York, New Haven and Hartford Delaware and Hudson. Chicago and Eastern Illinois. St. Louis and San Francisco (entire system.)

Louisville and Nashville. Nickle Plate. Erie Railway System. Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe (entire system).

Atlantic Coast Line. Buffalo, Rochester and Pittsburgh. Delaware and Lacwanna and Western.

Lehigh Valley. Nashville, Chattanooga and St. Louis

Three of the remaining largest roads in the country are included in the third group, on which the strike is set for 6 a. m., local standard time, November 3. The entire Burlington system, the New York Central (lines east and west) and the entire system of the Baltimore & Ohio, are among those which will feel the strike blow November 3. The balance of the third and fourth groups include the remaining roads in the country.

The roads listed today included all those announced as definitely grouped. With the remainder of the third group, the railroads affected by the first three walkouts, will total approximately fifty, several of the large roads with the designation "entire system," or "lines east and west," including numerous smaller lines.

It was expected that all the principal roads of the country would feel the effect of the walkout by November 3, when the men on the third group are scheduled to leave work. The remaining roads of the country will be included in the walk-out November 5th.

Cleveland, Oct. 17.—The proposal of the public group of the railroad labor board to reduce freight rates to prevent a railroad strike would not prove feasible, Warren S. Stone, grand chief of the brotherhood of railroad engineers declared today.

"The suggestion can not be worked out" Mr. Stone said. "By the time the reduction to the consumer it would not amount to one-half of one per cent. The middle man would absorb all of the difference."

W. G. Lee, president of the brotherhood of railroad trainmen would make no direct statement today on the feasibility of the plan.

"Our understanding and I believe that of the public also, was that the 12 per cent wage reduction of last July would be passed on to the public," Mr. Lee said.

SELF-RELIANCE GOES BANKRUPT

Thin Blood Saps Energy Gude's Pepto-Mangan Rebuilds the Blood.

Wrestling with a weakened condition of the blood is a desperate struggle. Thin, watery blood deprives the body of energy and causes a played-out feeling not unlike utter exhaustion. A man with weak blood has not the full use of his powers. He lacks decision, and vacillates until he loses self-confidence.

Some men, and women too, go faltering along for months scarcely realizing that they need Gude's Pepto-Mangan, the blood-builder. But when they have taken it for a while, what a difference there is in the feelings! The old-time vigor and the red-blooded hue of good health return. The new rich blood gets to work, building, fortifying, lifting the spirit up to its normal standard. Physicians have prescribed Gude's Pepto-Mangan for years as a blood-builder. Druggists sell it in liquid and tablet form. Look for the name "Gude's Pepto-Mangan" on the package. Advertisement.

MAGIC ROOMS.

"These rooms are so marvelous," said the boy adventurer to the girl adventurer who had reached their Journey's end at the House of Secrets, "that I'd like to call them Magic Rooms."

"By all means do so," said Master Thoughtfulness.

"And is there still more to see?" asked the girl.

"Still more," said Master Thoughtfulness, "and you must wander about."

"Gladly we'll do that," said the girl. "She's right," agreed the boy.

One of the rooms they visited was filled with presents and everyone was giving them away to visitors from the other rooms and to adventurers.

Sometimes they would give away something they wore or carried with them such as a brooch or a stick-pin or a scarf or a sash. And in the very center was a laughing, jolly person whom Master Thoughtfulness introduced as Mr. Generosity.

Mr. Generosity gave them both presents and turned to some one who stood at his right.

"Oh, aren't we having a good time? Isn't this great, great?"

"That's his son Unselfishness at his right," said Master Thoughtfulness.

As they were wandering about they saw the Courier Co-operation. He it was who had told them how people must work and play and pull together in order to get along and be really happy and free.

"Well, now you understand some of the reasons I like to carry messages, eh?" he asked them. "It's so nice to be able to carry the messages I do too between the House and adventurers on the way."

"Isn't it wonderful in the House of Secrets? Every kind of a room here with every kind of a fine secret—and all the naughty ones are kept in the cellar, ha, ha, and they aren't allowed to cause trouble here! Why, they even make old Worry-Ahead-of-Time stay down there."

"Do you know why? He kept borrowing Trouble from the bank and the bank wouldn't stand it after a time. They said they were all out of Trouble and it was a dreadful thing to think of The Bank of Trouble Which Loaned Worry in Advance on Security to be out of their best stock."

"The bank was so excited after that for they thought they would be able to loan out the worry to more people all over—but we've put the bank in the cellar and the bankers too.

"And one of their best customers now is Miss Snobbery and Miss Care-Only-For-Fashionable-Clothes. Miss Snobbery has thought only of her social position all these years and has tried to make people feel unhappy and shy and awkward. Now she is worrying dreadfully for she is fearing she will never be liked again. She lost all her popularity you know."

"Where? Oh, little by little it got away from her when she wasn't looking—and suddenly she found it was all gone."

"Miss Care-Only-For-Fashionable-Clothes used to be the meanest child. She used to make fun of her school friends who had clothes that were too old for them or too small for them or where something wasn't just right. She never went anywhere unless she had just the right dress for the occasion and she didn't know anything about having a good time and forgetting about clothes. She was most objectionable and grew up to be very mean. She went down in the cellar when Miss Snobbery did."

"They quarrel all the time, for Miss Snobbery says the only thing that counts is social position and Miss Care-Only-For-Fashionable-Clothes says that it's clothes that make the man and fine feathers for fine birds."

"But we all know that the really great big secret make up of lots of little secrets is that co-operation or getting on with our fellow creatures is what counts."

Saw Flea Come and Go
The beginner's teacher in Sunday school had very carefully taught her department to sing in a measured, rhythmic way a refrain that had in it the words "softly come and softly go." When little Don returned, his father asked:

"What did you learn today?"
"We sing-ed," was the reply.
"Yes, but what did you sing?"
"We sing-ed 'saw flea come and saw a flea go.'"
