LELA MITCHINER BEYES.

In the early morning of Jan. 18th, 1922, the soul of Miss Lela Mitchiner Beves passed from this earthly temple to a building of God, a house not made with hands, Sternal in the Heavens. Though we may say Miss Lela is dead, yet she liveth, and will continue to speak to us, and to live in our memories. She was modest and unassum ing yet of positive strong christian character. No one who knew her doubts her christian life. Miss Leia doubts her christian life. Miss Lein was born at the old Beven nome pince a few miles from Franklinton, N. C. October 24th. 1835. She was the daughter of T. Morris Beves and Mollie Mitchiner Beves, Mother and Father preceded her to the grave several years ago. The family moved to Durham in 1833. It was in the City-Schools of Durham that she received her education. Miss Lein chose as a profession, school teaching. First teaching in the rural district of Frank teaching in the rural district of Frank lin County, later in the Franklinton lin County, later in the Franklinton Graded School, where she taught for two or three years. From Franklinton she went to Durham where she taught in the Graded School until her health failed. She was very ambitious, and a hard student. Over work and her anxiety to excel was largely the cause of the failure of her health. The Superintendents of schools at both Franklinton and Durham spoke in the highest terms of her work.

both Franklinton and Durham spoke in the highest terms of her work.

At the time of her death she was a member of First Baptist church at Durham. The inneral services were conducted at the old home near Frank linton by her cousin Rev. John F. Mitchiner. Ladies and gentlemen of the choirs of the Baptist and Methodist churches of Franklinton sang some very appropriate setections at some very appropriate setections at the house and at the grave, where we hald her body to rest beneath a mound of flowers. Her cousins acted as pall bearers. Quite a large gathering of relatives and friends from Raicigh, and Franklinton, and the surrounding community were present to pay their last tribute of love and research. pact. The flowers were profuse and beautiful, and was an expression of the esteem in which she was held. She leaves one sister, Pattie, and one brother, Morris, and a large number relatives and friends to m mourn her B. W. B.

IN MEMORY OF LITTLE MINNIE ELIZABETH WIGGINS.

Just at the break of dawn on Janu-ary 2, 1922 God in his infinite wisdom came down from above and claimed for his own little Minnre Effizabeth Wiggins, the five weeks old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry S. Wiggins. She had been sick for some time with yellow Jaundis followed by Bronchitis tle babe from birth always ready and willing to take any medicine offered mother or grandma. She nevher by mother or grandma. She was just cld enough to begin to notice and laugh when you would touch her under her chin when her carling little spirit took its heavenly flight to that autiful home above where parting will be no more. The world rarely produces such a wonderful little child What an irreparable loss it the bright smiles of this precious little one should be forgotten by her loved ones. darling of memory great heir of fame, what needs thou such weak witness of thy name? Thou in thy love and thy name? Thou in thy love and friendship has built thyself a lifelong monument. We will not forget your name. Oh, though oft depressed and lonely, all my fears are laid aside, if I but remember only such as she has lived and died. Thou art gone but not forgotten. Never from our hearts will your memory fade, but forever our thoughts will linger around the grave where you are laid.

A precious one from us is gone, a voice we loved is still, a place is vacant in our home that never can be filled. Precious one, thou art gone; dear is the grave in which you are laid. Sweet is your memory which never will fade. The heart of my life is buried deep under the sod where you peacefully sleep. How I miss you little Elizabeth, Miss you more than words can tell. Every hour and day that passes brings me nearer you to dwell. Little darling, I feel you did not want to leave an though you had to the second to the se day that passes brings in the day of the dwell. Little darling, I feel you to dwell. Little darling, I feel you did not want to leave as, though you have crossed the shining river. Where pain and sorrow is no more. Goodbye, little darling, I can never cast you again on this earth, but I can pray to my Sav-

You have gone and incomplete troublesome world to mourn, but the know you are with Jesus sitting around that beautiful throne. Neath a mound of blooming Roses, cold in death our darling lies, but her spirit is with the angels, in that home beyond the skies. It is lonely here without her. In this world of toil and care, but we will join our number, thou no more our sorrows know. Why the Lord took her so soon from us no one will her with the Ransom in that land so bright and fair. Yes it will be a hap-bright and fair. Yes it will be a hap-flower garden above to bloom forever more. All was done for her than lov
We wish to thank our many kind-nesses and expressions of sympathy during the recent illness and death of our wife and mother.
