MR. W. H. HILL.

Mr. W. H. Hill whose death occurred on Thursday of last week was born near Forestville, Feb. 22, 1841. This was the year in which William Henry Harrison was elected president of the United States.

When he got too old for "petticoat government" he was sent to Louisburg where he boarded in the home of Mr. M. S. Davis and went to his school for several years; then he went to school in Hillsboro for one year and was there when the war broke out.

He went through the whole four years of the war, taking part in all the battles in which his company was engaged. While he left many of his comrades dead on the battlefields and helped others off who were sorely wounded, he himself seemed protected by a special providence for he did not receive the slightest wound during the whole four years.

In 1867 he married Miss Temple Hilliard Gees, of this county. Her people shortly afterwards moved to Mississippi and Mr. Hill and his wife went to the old Gees home place to live.

When the older children grew up the family moved to Louisburg in order to take advantage of better opportunities offered by living in town.

In 1905 Mrs. Hill died leaving him a widower, but with many homes in which he was welcome. While he liked to pass back and forth and visit all his children he seemed to prefer to call Mr. P. A. Reavis home.

He died Jan. 19, 1922 and was laid to rest in his confederate uniform which he loved so well. It seems peculiarly fitting the birth and death of this patriotic citizen and good soldier that he should have been born on the anniversary of Washington's birthday and died on the anniversary of Lee's.

In spite of the steady down pour of rain there was a large gathering at the funeral service which was held at the home of Mr. P. A. Reavis, and a long line of cars to follow the bier to its last resting place in Oaklawn cemetery.

These with the abundance of flowers sent by many friends bore testimony to the feeling of the community for this "father in Israel" who has passed on over the river.

His grandsons acted as pallbearers and his grand-daughters placed the flowers over his grave. The pallbearers were: P. A. Reavis, Jr., Hill Yarborough, John Burt and Jim Allen Hill, Speed Williams and James Malone; Honorary: Messrs. F. N. Egerton, P. G. Alston, Frank Ballard, J. J. Allen, Adkin Jones and Solicitor Norris.

In addition to his patriotism kind-

AT METHODIST CHURCH.

Pastor G. F. Smith announces that regular services will be held in the Methodist church both morning and evening Sunday. The morning service will be at the usual hour and the evening service will be at 7:30. Everybody is invited to attend each service.

ness was the keynote of his character. He never was known to say harsh, bitter things to anyone or about anyone. If he knew anything to make a person feel good that was the thing he told them, and when a name was brought up in conversation if there was anything good to be said about the person named that was the thing which he said.

He will be greatly missed in his home and in the community and above all in the gatherings of the Confederate veterans whose ranks Time more relentlessly than Yankee bullets is slowly and surely thinning out.

JUDGE DEVIN OPENS CAMPAIGN

WOODROW WILSON FOUNDATION FUND

With a Beautiful Tribute to the Late President and His Ideals—Quite a Good Subscription Received.

According to the announcements of Miss Sallie Taylor, Chairman for Franklin County, for the Woodrow Wilson Foundation Fund, the campaign was opened on last Friday afternoon in the Courthouse at the noon recess, when Judge W. A. Devin, of Oxford, delivered one of the most beautiful eulogies to our beloved ex-President that has been heard in this section.

Judge Devin's remarks were filled with the earnest feelings and deepest sympathy for one who had given a life for the Peace and Happiness of the world and truly struck a responsive chord among his hearers.

Other addresses were made and a subscription opened which resulted in the receipt of about one hundred and twenty-five dollars. Since then the subscriptions have been steadily coming in.

This is truly one of the most worthy and patriotic causes our people have had opportunity to contribute to and we are sure each one will take pleasure in giving his mite.

TO THE PEOPLE OF FRANKLIN COUNTY.

We the undersigned dentists of Franklin county heartily endorse the work of the State Board of Health now being done for the children of the county. Every child who can; should avail themselves of the splendid opportunity now offered to have their teeth put in proper condition.

BODY OF MISS TERRY FOUND

The remains of Miss Terry, who has been missing from her home near Wood since just about Thanksgiving was found Monday in the woods near Collins Mill in Gold Mine township. The Coroner was notified and went to the scene to determine the necessity of an inquest. The facts so far as we understand them seem to show that the lady was somewhat mentally deficient and left her home one evening about Thanksgiving. Not returning that night a search was instituted by her family and neighbors which failed to find any trace of her whereabouts. At this time a severe cold was visited this section and it is supposed that she succumbed to exposure. Following this nothing else was ever heard from her until Monday evening when the remains were found by some one who was out hunting, with the result that the Coroner visited the scene.

KILLED BY FALLING TREE.

Mr. Dwight Parrish son of Mr. Ed D. Parrish, of Cedar Rock township, met an untimely death on Tuesday afternoon about two o'clock, while felling a tree, according to information received here Wednesday. The information stated that he had cut down an oak tree that lodged against another tree causing it to twist and change its course and falling on his head killing him instantly. Mr. Parrish was nineteen years of age and was exceedingly popular in his community. Besides his parents he leaves four brothers: Messrs. Kirby, Harvey, Frazier and Jake Parrish, and one sister, Miss Rachel. The funeral services were held from his home on Wednesday afternoon and the interment made in the family burying ground at the old Jim Wood home place. Deepest sympathy is extended to the bereaved family.

DOLL PARTY.

Monday afternoon at three o'clock little Laryne Wiggs entertained some of her friends at a Doll party. They were met at the door by Master W. J. Shearin. For about an hour the children played games, then there was a vote for the prettiest doll. The votes were put into a basket and Master Harold Williams drew little Hazel Allen's name. She received the prize for having the prettiest doll. Then refreshments were served by Misses Beulah Lancaster and Margaret Inscope. Those present were Misses Beulah Lancaster, Hazel Allen, Mamie Lancaster, Hazel Collins, Laura Wiggs, Annie Blanche Weaver, Lucille Person, Francis Turner, Dorothy Page Wiggs, Louise Williams, Lurlyne Wiggs, Lucy Herman, Margaret Inscope, Masters W. J. Shearin and Harold Williams. Each child in their way expressed their enjoyment and wished Lurlyne would have another Doll party soon.

A new book is called "Out of Nowhere Into Nothing." Sounds like a trip on a branch line railroad.

"Pussyfoot" Johnson says "England will be dry soon." What most of us would like to know, however, is when America is going to be dry.

SOLICITOR HERBERT E. NORRIS

NOT A CANDIDATE FOR RE-ELECTION, MAY BE CANDIDATE FOR CONGRESS.

In an interview with the Editor Solicitor Norris said: "I think it due the Attorneys of the District, who may aspire to hold the office of Solicitor, and who have so cordially supported me, that I should say: that it is not my purpose, as heretofore stated privately, to friends, to be a candidate for re-election.

Having been honored by the confidence and support of practically all the people of the District for twelve years, expiring January 1, 1923. I think I should yield in favor of those who have equally meritorious claims to the office I hold. If the Bar of Franklin County can agree on a candidate, I think, that person will have a good chance to secure the nomination, as the people generally recognize the right of Franklin to name one of the Judicial Officers.

Please convey to the people my great appreciation and obligation for their confidence and support. Responding to an inquiry as to whether he would be a candidate for Congress, Solicitor Norris said: "Frankly, I may ask the Democrats of the Fourth Congressional District to select me as their candidate for Congress."

Solicitor Norris has made quite an enviable reputation during his official stay in Franklin County as one of the ablest lawyers in the State, and he has many friends in Franklin County who will be glad of the opportunity to support him for Congress to succeed the present incumbent, Hon. E. W. Fou.

CENTERVILLE ITEMS.

As Centerville is having so many visitors I will let you hear from us again. Messrs. Sid and Willie Lancaster and Billy Braswell, of Castalia, were pleasant callers to several homes here on last Sunday afternoon. Miss Maggie Duke and Mr. Johnnie Neal motored to Seven Paths to see his sister Miss Bertha Neal on last Sunday afternoon.

Messrs. Rochelle Allison and Lee Harris, of Inez, were visitors here Sunday. Mr. Howard Griffin was a visitor at Mr. Bill Gupton's of Sandy Creek Sunday.

Messrs. Eunion and Jack Brewer and Beachie Dorsey motored through our little town Sunday afternoon in a hurry. It seemed as if they were trying to join the bird gang.

We are very glad that Rev. G. W. May and family has moved into our community. We feel like he will be a blessing to the church and community.

Our Sunday school is progressing nicely. If you don't believe we are doing something at Centerville just come out and see and don't forget to come to Centerville every first Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock to hear Rev. G. W. May preach. Just Me.
