SEVEN PATHS NEWS.

Miss Rhoda Sykes spent last week with her brother, Mr. Moses Sykes. Miss Maggie Aiford entertained a number of friends in honor of her cousin, Miss Annie Wilder, of Baltimore last Thursday night.

Miss Gladys and Virginia Wilder spent last Saturday night with Miss Beatrice Sykes. They reported a very pleasant trip.

Miss Grace Moore gave a dance at her home last Tuesday night. Quite a large crowd attended and all reported a good time.

Miss Lillian Sykes entertained a crowd last Saturday night in honor of Miss Rhoda Sykes.

Miss Bettie Moore, who has been in the hospital for a while, has returned home and is mending fast.

On the night of Dec. 30th, 1921, we went to the school building and rung out the old year and rung in the new year.

As we have a number of new neighbors in our community, we went around and serenaded them last Thursday night.

The girls from our community who have been attending school at Justice appreciated the three days vacation given on account of Scarlet fever.

We are trying to raise enough money to buy a Volley ball outfit for the school.

Misses Mabel Edwards and Edith Duke spent last Wednesday night with Virginia Wilder.

The pictures were fine last Wednesday night. There was also a large crowd out and excellent music was given by our band. After the pictures we played games under the leadership of Miss Alexander. We always appreciate a big crowd as we fell behind in our attendance during the summer and we are trying to pull up our average. Be sure to attend our next regular meeting as we always have good pictures and good music.

Messrs. Vaughan and Jones, from Nashville, were visitors here Sunday. Church services were held Saturday and Sunday. We have a fine Pastor and had excellent services both days.

Quite a number of young people visited Miss Glennie Wilder on Sunday night.

Misses Neal and Powell seem to keep our school in steady progress. We are hoping to have a larger attendance this year than ever before. V. D. W.
