

ANNUAL STATEMENT OF SALARY FUND

FOR BICKETT SLEEPS.

Franklin County for period beginning Dec. 1, 1920 and ending Nov. 30, 1921 showing actual receipts and disbursements.

Twilight falls upon a perfect sky
As evening low on sable pinon sweeps
And angels softly sing their lullaby.
For Bickett sleeps.

Alas, sunset comes so soon; life's golden tide Scarcely rises to its spring before it reaps;
Above the deep I see a white star rise
For Bickett sleeps.

Unstained he lays the robe of life away
As smiling now his trust with death
he keeps,
And darkness covers Carolina days.

From where the waves in sorrow softly
moan
To where the lonely Nana-haha teeps,
No more is heard the master's music tone.
For Bickett sleeps.

The fires early and bright as they flow
The nightwings sigh upon the silent steeps;
Hushed are our hearts with anguish
as we go.
For Bickett sleeps.

The little children cease a while their play,
As mothers in their bosoms conjure Weeps.
The sinner drops a tear and kneels to pray.
For Bickett sleeps.

Unbowed by selfish ties of clime or creed,
His love no limit knew, its boundless deeps
Were fathered only by his brother's tears.
For Bickett sleeps.

Just a boat—Was that some distant bell
Whose silver cadence through our sorrow rings,
Or echo of an angel song that fell
Where Bickett sleeps?
As Carolina waves beside his grave,
And loss her lot in life in deathless hours.

She gives thanks to God for His grace.
For Bickett sleeps.

COTTON REPORT.
The tabulation of the total reports show that there were 11,274 bales of cotton, compared with 11,000 bales ginned in Franklin County from the crop of 1921 prior to January 15, 1922, as compared with 11,000 bales ginned in January 15, 1921.

UNLESS HELP COMES

300,000 Innocent and Helpless Children of War-Ravaged Europe Face Starvation and Death

"We must not step aside and permit the spectre of death, in the form of hunger and cold, to haunt these helpless ones this winter, yet we cannot continue without help. No one knows better than I do the many home burdens of our own people, but I believe that we can care for our own and still protect these forlorn victims of war. Upon their development will depend much of Europe's stability in the next generation, and it is for us to say whether they are to survive or to be left to die or become unfit for a useful part in the future. This is a charge upon the AMERICAN heart, and AMERICA cannot fail in her solicitude for these little ones."

HERBERT HOOVER.

SUPPOSE THESE WERE YOUR PEOPLE. FOR WHAT ARE THEY WAITING? FOOD OR DEATH. WHICH WOULD YOU WISH THEM?

An Investment in Human Life

HUNDREDS OF THOUSAND OF CHILDREN IN WAR-STRICKEN EUROPE FACE STARVATION AND DEATH. AMERICAN GENEROSITY MUST SAVE THEM. HOW MANY LIVES WILL THE GOOD PEOPLE OF LOUISBURG SAVE?

SUPPOSE your mother, father, sister, or brother had been clubbed over the head, or slashed with a sabre, the very least you would want would be bandages for their wounds:

Little Graves By The Hundred Thousand Unless Help Comes Quickly!

Over 300,000 children in Eastern and Central Europe face starvation between now and next Spring harvest. Little tots—300,000 of them. The mind cannot grasp such figures. If this number of children were to march four abreast in close marching order in army stride, the formation would reach from Detroit to New York, and would take over fifteen years to pass a given point.

IT IS A CHILD'S RIGHT TO LIVE.
WHAT IS IT'S LIFE WORTH?

SUPPOSE your entire family, your old, feeble parents, your grandparents had been lashed mistreated—were in rags—hungry—sick—destitute—you would want them to get enough to keep alive.

North Carolina's Quota $100,000

LOUISBURG'S Quota $500

We Must Raise It and We Will.
