

To All FORD Prospective Buyres

Dear Sir:-

Louisburg, N. C. March 14, 1922.

We wrote you a few days ago, telling you how easily you can purchase your Ford car by using your credit advantage with the R. & L. Plan.

Ford automobiles are lower in price now than ever before in the history of the Ford Motor Company. The car itself is the best yet manufactured. You can buy your Ford at these low prices, splitting it up into small monthly payments and have a full year in which to pay.

In the few bad days that are to come between now and spring, hop in your car and act if they were the sunshiniest days of June. Go on with your usual business in this sort of weather and before you realize it you are doing many more things. You are actually making the car pay for itself while you ride!

And then—Spring! Beautiful days in which to enjoy yourself, go fishing, picnicing, camping out. Get out in the fresh air. Best medicine in the world! There are many other things you have in your mind right now of doing with your Ford this Spring.

That's why we are SURE that the R. & L. Time Payment Plan is of interest to you and why we write again to ask that you come in to see us or let us send a salesman to explain details to you.

May we see you in person or hear from you this week?

Sincerely yours,

Louisburg Motor Company

No Worms in a Healthy Child

All children troubled with Worms have an unhealthy color, which indicates poor blood, and as a rule, there is more or less stomach disturbance. GROVE'S TASTELESS CHILL TONIC given regularly for two or three weeks will enrich the blood, improve the digestion, and act as a General Strengthening Tonic to the whole system. Nature will then throw off or dispel the worms, and the Child will be in perfect health. Pleasant to take. 50c per bottle.

CHAMPION SPELLERS.

Port Angeles, Wash., Jan. 27, 1922.
To the Editor of the TIMES:-

Dear Sir:- Among a lot of newspaper clippings sent to me by a friend at Henderson, I read the enclosed and at once sought my private secretary, "an Oliver" to challenge that "Champion Speller" of all North Carolina, as printed in the Old Reliable, which I define as a Raleigh newspaper. I feel like complimenting young Wilson B. Morton as a real champion speller as to "cut down" 37 other spellers; but as to his being the champion speller of North Carolina, I beg to protest. During the latter '70's, I was attending a country school at Ringwood, Halifax County. There was a striking youth named Allen; "Joseph John," if you please; green of the old farm near Louisburg. He had been a junior reserve, recently discharged from Robert E. Lee's army, the war being over. He was then but 18 years old, and while he was prepared at an ordinary school in his town at the age of 13, his competent to enter Chapel Hill, his parents declined to send him on account of his tender years. For about five years he had not reviewed his text books; but could read the Greek and Latin up to the third and fourth books, mathematics up to the same ratio as easy as one could decipher the primary works thereof. But when it came to spelling? Why, John Allen could spell any word in Webster's Unabridged, derive and define the same; and as to Webster's speller could tell you on what page and it's position in the column thereof. He subsequently took a one-year course at Washington and Lee University in Virginia; but for lack of funds could not attend school any longer. He was offered a professorship in said college if he would continue and graduate. Owing to his parents' advanced ages, he reconsidered it his duty to return to the old farm and stay with them to the last.

It was the writer's privilege and pleasure to receive a social letter from Mr. Allen only a few months since. He is still flourishing at the old home place and I will wager he can now "spell down" young Morton. I have money to bet on my former tutor.
W. T. MANNING.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT.

Mrs. George H. Harper, Whereas, it has pleased our Father to call from us a loyal member of our society, and a true friend and neighbor.

Therefore be it resolved, That we the members of the W. M. Society of Cedar Rock Baptist church, acknowledge the wisdom and goodness of our Heavenly Father and humbly submit to his will, yet we mourn the loss of our sister who, being ever sincere and unselfish had endeared herself to a host of friends both in her church and in her community.

Further, That in token of our love and friendship we extend our sympathy to the bereaved ones and point them to the Creator who giveth and taketh away according to his divine wisdom.

Further, That these resolutions be recorded in the Minutes of our society, a copy be sent to the bereaved family and a copy sent to the Biblical Recorder and FRANKLIN TIMES.

The Quinine that Does Not Affect The Head
LAXATIVE BROMO QUININE and Laxative other LAXATIVE BROMO QUININE (Quinine) can be taken by anyone without any inconvenience or risk to the head. E. W. GROVE'S signature on box. 20c.

Alabastine

Millions of homes have had their interior walls decorated with it in the past thirty-seven years.
It produces artistic, peaceful, serene, cheerful and happy effects. It is far preferable as wall coating for harmonious colors especially where sanitation is a vital feature.

Schools use it in immense quantities. Artistically applied, students attain correct ideas of color harmonies through it.

It is extensively used for churches and public halls where there are great stretches of sheer color. Its soft, subdued colors and pastel tints most effectively suit the "spirit" of the edifice.

For use, cold or warm water is added in proportion of one five-pound package to two quarts of water; stir for one minute and it is ready to apply—destroying vermin and germ life—SIMPLE ENOUGH, ISN'T IT!

Don't confuse ALABASTINE with kalsomine. The word Alabastine specifies a definite uniform standard of quality. Kalsomine is a generic term applied to many materials with coined or fanciful names and having no definite quality.

COME IN AND LETS TALK IT OVER FOR NOW IS THE TIME TO USE IT.
