TAR DROPS

Cotton sold for 17 3/4 cents a pound in Louisburg yesterday.

Quite a lot of our people are attending the several school commencements in the county this week.

Mrs. Derwood Dickie, of Epsom, and Miss Annie Laura Macon, of Ingleside, are spending this week with their sister, Mrs. W. L. Heasley.

Capt. Hugh W. Peery gave quite an enjoyable barbecue dinner to the members of the Boards of County and Town Commissioners and a few friends at the Armory of Battery B. Monday.

Candidates for County and Township offices may file their pledge any day with A. F. Johnson, Chairman County Board of Elections, up to May 20th. Those who fail to file their pledge by the above date will fail to have their names placed on the tickets and thereby be ruled out as a candidate. This applies to township Constable as well as all other offices.

ALERT ITEMS.

Mr. Herlie Evans, of Ingleside, visited our town yesterday and learned us something entirely new. He drove his Ford into the corner of Ball Bros. store so hard he knocked a lot of goods off the shelves and moved one end of the store an inch or more, thereby learning us that a Ford can move houses. Some people seem to think a Ford can do almost anything but the house moving business is something new.

Mr. Howard Pernell went to Louisburg last Sunday.

Miss Lucy Thompson, of Elberon, visited our town last Sunday.

Since school closed we certainly do miss Miss Pattie Lamm in Sunday school and B. Y. P. U.

Mr. and Mrs. Willis Pernell and family, of Warren county, visited this place Sunday.

Mr. Bryant Best, of Afton, visited his brother at Schloss Sunday.

Mr. Luther Dryden of this place, visited his brother in Warren county, last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Pernell and Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Pernell, of Louisburg, visited their parents here last Sunday.

Mr. H. R. Mosley went to Seven Paths Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Bennie Pernell visited his parents at Schloss Sunday.

Mr. Walter Ball visited near Elberon Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Faulkner, of Henderson, visited their parents here Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Mosley visited their daughter Mrs. B. C. Ayscue Sunday afternoon.

Miss Lucy Bobbitt visited her sister, Mrs. Johnnie Ball Sunday.

Mr. W. B. Riggan bought a new Ford last week. Wonder if he will wear it out visiting the Moulton community?

Mr. and Mrs. Ollie Faulkner, of Henderson, visited their parents here Sunday.

Misses Mattie and Pattie Lou Falkner visited Mrs. Robert Hale Sunday afternoon.

Mr. W. M. Pernell, of Schloss, visited his parents here Sunday.

Why is it we never hear anything about the Moles these days? Wonder if they have stopped coming out of the ground, or is it that Mr. Faulkner just happens not to see them. We would also like to know something about the old rat that wanted to move from Mr. R. T. Tharrington's house all last winter but said he could never get to the road on account of Dave Hunt's Ford. Well probably he can move now as the teachers are gone and the weeds are beginning to grow up in the edge of the road where it was once kept packed hard by his Ford. ROUGH.

ENGINEER SAYS IT'S WHAT KEPT HIM ON HIS RUN

Rheumatism And Stomach Troubles Are Entirely Gone Since Taking Tanlac, Declares Popular C. and O. R. Man.

"If it hadn't been for Tanlac I believe I would have had to give up my run," said G. W. Johnson, No. 1, Company Row, Clifton Forge, Va., popular engineer on the Chesapeake and Ohio R. R.

"I suffered so from stomach trouble and rheumatism that everything I ate disagreed with me and I hurt all over. My food would sour on my stomach and bloat me up with gas until I could hardly stand it and the rheumatic pains in my arms, shoulders and legs were so bad I could hardly climb into my cab. It hurt me to lift my arm high enough to handle the throttle of my engine and often I had to walk stooped over. A sluggish liver and constipation added to my troubles and I had dizzy spells that made me stagger like a drunken man. In spite of all I could do I kept getting worse and losing weight.

"One day I told my fireman I was going to try Tanlac and before I finished the first bottle I was feeling lots better. To make a long story short, my troubles vanished like magic. That was two years ago and I am still in the finest health. My weight has increased from 116 to 176 pounds and I am strong as an ox. I'll never cease to praise Tanlac."

Tanlac is sold by all good druggists.
