THE FRANKLIN TIMES

One Year	$1.50
Eight Houths	1.00
Six Months	.75
Four Months	.50

Foreign Advertising Representative THE AMERICAN PRESS ASSOCIATION

fintered at the Post Office at Louissurg, N. C., as second class matter.

It has been suggested that the Chamber of Commerce nave a meeting Monday night to discuss the question of paving and make recount ms to the Board.

There seems to be a misunderstanding in regard to the amount of paving to be done on Main and Nash Streets. This question should be fully settled before any work is begun. The Comoners should hold a meeting and favite all who wish to be heard to be present and settle hay questions that may be in doubt.

We agree with Gov. Morrison that tion and of articulating without saying to take either side of a strike for a campaigner; but are they become protect every worker so that he can His official course of conduct seems work, where and when he pleases at to prove that he has not these attributes. right to take either side of a strike whatever pay he wishes. Just be-butes. Decision and direction appear to be distasteful to him. Some of his intimates actually have confessed that he was not very fond of his job and quit work is no reason why they should might not accept a renomination. At least, when affairs become so pressing taking their places if they wish to.

"Buy cantaloffpes today. Re-cord receipts of 169 carloads here and they are cheap." These head-lines appear in a New York paper. They indicate the need for co-operative marketing. With greater effort and care in distributing the crop, the growers could be saved ruinous prices, which a glut in market brings.—News-Obser-

This condition is one of the gre benefits the Cotton and Tobacco Gre ers Co-operative Marketing Ass tions offer the farmers. They ex to sell their products in an orderly and profitable manner through judicious distributon.

HARDING THE HELPLESS

phace are fine things. But the President has paid dear for his White House. It has commonly cost him all his parce and the best of his manly attributes. To preserve for a short time the world, he is content to eat dust before the world, he is content to eat dust before the world, he is content to eat dust before the world, he is content to eat dust before the world. fore the real masters who stand erecbehind the throne.—Ralph Waldo Em-

President, he will go out as the "side-tion has come about; no message from stepping and do nothing" President; the President has urged such a step. elected on the slogan of opposition to Evidently Mr. Harding believes not in "wiggle and wobble," he has out-wig-executive usurpation; rather does he gled and out-wobbled all of his predecessure; promissing in his campaign to But Mr. Harding is our President. cessure; promising in his campaign to But Mr. Harding is our President. call in the "master minds" of his party, he has veered from pillar to post, our respect. We have, however, a housing "master" Daugherty on the right to demand that, since he is President primaries. The tragedy of it our leader, he should put us in the all is that "his master's votce" was hushed when poor Perrose passed in cutive, he should accomplish by force his checks. Those who are left are his checks. Those who are left are of authority what he has failed to do authority what he has failed to do by his soft and easy ways. Right and justice are not inamby-pamby things; and they are not to be smeared over. After all, perhaps the American peninterest. History is reversed; instead of eager men sitting at the feet of Gamaliel, we find Gamaliel sitting at the feet of Those who know what they want. That Mr. Harding would "eat dust" Presidents who tower above us exhale

Harding is that kind of a man. His chief purpose has been to avoid making ensumies; he might easily perceive ask of Mr. Harding, not that the partially minums being nothing to anybody. One of the newspapers in his own Stain adminished the President on his return from a Florida fishing trip to "go lasek to Washington and seek to raise a good crop of real ensumies." Harding has been called an "average American"—whatever that may mean. He is perhaps all of that. mass. He is perhaps all of that.

Good fellowship, "sweetness and light" regularity, letting well-enough alone—all these are his is abundance. And they are "fine things." They made thin as the lead; he is a typical "liner"; he knows life to smile and to shake hands; he is "master" of one thing—the art of meaningless allitera may go golfing, take a week-end trig or sail on the Mayflower down the bay. His attitude toward executive questions Its a pity that the influence that remind us of Mr. Tafft—only the one could not stop the Board from taking dodges and the other adjudicated; one comid nor step the Board from taking steps to pave Main and Nash Streets absuld now be allowed to step in and make a mess of the job. It would be a great deal better not to pave any at all, that is in addition to the State Highway part. If it is not to be done as it should be. A job of this kind should be made permanent, and in hessing with other work already laid, lif the town isn't able to do the work as should be don't lets do it at all. the jurist is expected only to halance the evidence according to arbitrary rules, while a president's duty is to or-der, to perform, to execute. When men in power talk of "on the one hand, men in power talk of "on the one hand, this," and "on the other hand, that," what many of us would know is, whe upholding the hands of the people and lending them aid?
The ALLEN BROS. CO.

Harding is helpless because he has no capacity for lendership. He is afraid. He is saturated with the spirit of Hubbard's epigram: "To avoid criticism, say nothing, do nothing, be nothing." He is too kind-hearted to oppose or to offend. Just as his middle pose or to offend. Just as his middle name carries a "reverse English," so the first syllable of his surname is in appropriate. He should be called Soft-ing, instead of Mr. Hard-ing. Al honor to his warm nature! But is it not true that to accomplish things in this life, it is necessary to offend some body now and then? To be of service one must run counter to the wishes of many people every day, to give offense to those who stand in the way for sei-if the revenue is raised by any other method than a sales tax—but never behind the throne.—Ralph Waldo Emerson.

Although expressed SI years ago by the Sage of Comport in his essay on "Compensation." no words could convey a clearer conception of the present occupant of the White House.

Coming is as the peace and harmony Not one constructive piace of legislands. wring whether he favors the bill or

That Mr. Harding would "eat dust"
That Mr. Harding is pronouncement.

Mr. His
That the surrouse has been to avoid mak
Mr. His
That the surrouse has been to avoid mak
Mr. Harding not that the po-

UNCLE HANK

Has your wife decided whe

WHY-WAIT AND SEE?

se ago I received through the mails acircular-letter. It purported to discuss cooperative heting and persuade the farmer not to sign the contract, but "Wait and see."

ed a civilized or uncivilized people. "Wait and see" cannot be linked with progress, and see" is a dactrine so dangerous that the religious sects of our country condemn it, and ministers proclaim from the pulpit that "Walt and soe" will fill a seething hell with writhing souls.

"Walt and see" has imposerished countries, homes and peoples.

"Walt and see" has starved millions in distant lands, filled our asylums, county homes and orphan asy-

"Walt and see" is the mother of indolence, insultance and the father of evil.

Had the writer of "Walt and see" adopted it himsels he would not have written it, because "Wait and see" comes before the beginning of anything-before effort.

But, Mr., Farmer, why should you ". Walt and see;" Haven't you seen enough, What else can you see: Our opponents said the farmers could not be organized. We now have seventy-five thousand. They said we could not finance the Association; we have thirty million dollars as a beginner. They said we could uses; we now have two hundred and six houses, and will build one in Wilson

They said we could not get redrying and storage plants; we now have enough to handle three million pounds per day. They say we can't sell our tobacco; the Burley pool has sold to date two-thirds, and can

They say we will have to keep the tobacco five years. Did Kentucky! But they say to the farmer of North and South Carolina, "Walt and see," What else is there to see! You have seen every argu

Yes, they want you to "Walt and see," but what will you see! You will see yourself and family toll sixteen hours a day, facing sickness, death, hall, storching sun, drowning rains, fertilizer accounts and co, without insurance, without recreation, without time for warship or plea and at the last end of the year's tell see the except the truits of your labor, placed on a merciless market. re speculators can come in and help the

Of course they don't want you to organize and sell your crops in a business manner, but sell them on a clutted market and destroy in a minute a year's hope.

They want you to "Walt and see," because that will give them one more crop to pick from

In conclusion, will say to all, that as long as you like in this great country of ours, as long as a merciful God untries over you and shods His daily blentlines upon you, never step in the way of progress, nor practice (and by no means preach) the abundable and accursed dectrine of "Walt and see."—By F. W. Boswell. of Whom, N. C.

THE TOBACCO GROWERS COOPERATIVE ASSOCIATION

We Have Purchased

Entire Stock of Groceries belonging to The Allen Bros. Company

And extend a special invitation to their customers to buy all your groceries and meats from us. We are now delivering goods at your door. Telephone us your order and we will bring it to you.

Although we are delivering, our prices will concinue to be the LOWEST because we sell for CASH. Get a book of our trade coupons just as soon as they arrive and you will buy your groceries and meats cheaper and more conveniently than ever before.

Our Service is the Best. Try Us.

THE CASH GROCERY and Market

Phone 270 Louisburg, N. C.

MONEY TO LEND

We are in the businesns of lending money to farmers of North Carolina. We can make you affoan on your farm up to one-half of its value, plus one-fifth of the value of the insurable buildings located thereon, on long term, re-payable in small semi-annual installments.

It is not necessary to take stock.

You don't have to be farming your land in any particular manner.

There is no liability on account of default of follow-

No commissions are charged.

You may pay your loan back any time after one year by special arrangement or it may run for twenty years.

Maximum loan $37,500.00.

There is no red tape and no delays.

This bank will give as prompt service in closing these loans as it is humanly possible to give.

You can find out more about these loans by applying to H. M. Stovall, Cashier of The Farmers National Bank cf Louisburg, or G. L. Cooke, Cashier of The Citizens Bank, Franklinton, N. C., or Mr. G. M. Beam, Attorney, Louisburg, N. C., or write to

The Virginia-Carolina Joint Stock Land Bank

Elizabeth City,

North Carolina