HON. JOSEPHUS DANIELS SPEAKS

To Big Crowd At Franklin County Fair

ON WEDNESDAY—EDUCATIONAL DAY

School Parade Biggest Yet—Exhibits Fine and in Good Number—Live Stock Exhibit Better Than Usual—Big Midway And Lots of Fun For The Multitude.

"America will take up the torch to save itself and a stumbling world," declared Hon. Josephus Daniels, editor of the reliable News-Observer, and the World's Greatest Secretary of the Navy, in a most interesting and well received speech at the Franklin County Fair on Wednesday, when educational day brought thousands of men, women and children out to enjoy the annual occasion. For about twenty-five minutes the speaker held his audience in the strictest attention while he recited the error of America in the recent world war showing that instead of our being able to live unto ourselves and prosper we had experienced a very embarrassing reconstruction. In the beginning of his speech he paid quite a high and fitting tribute to the noble souls who had played so important a part in the life of this community, among the most influential and foremost he selected Nathaniel Macon. So imbued with the spirit of freedom its people broke away from King and went forth as one man. This same spirit has been handed down till today it may be said as Nat Macon said "there is no Tories in Bute." He pictured the beautiful spirit of America in the beginning and the accomplishments of the World War and contrasted with it the closing and reconstruction when America forgetting its responsibilities in the making of peace left Europe to take care of itself. He said ancients believed the seas were intended to separate Nations but the World War has taught us that the seas are to connect Nations. It is just as true of Nations as of individuals that we can not live apart from each other. He made clear the fact that it was this spirit of let Europe take care of itself as the real cause of our financial deffation in 1920 that we have not gotten over with yet. He predicted that America will rise and take up the torch and save itself and a stumbling world."

After the conclusion of his speech Mr. Daniels and a number of friends were entertained at lunch in the floral hall. The parade which took place just before the speaking was possibly the largest that has ever taken place here on a former occasion and reflected much credit on the school system of Franklin County and those who had it in charge. Fully twenty-five hundred children were in the line which reached from the residence of Mr. F. N. Egerton on Elm Street to the Fair grounds. In this parade there was many floats that presented a pleasing appearance and added to the beauty of the parade. Also several pieces of artillery from Battery B formed with the others. The crowd was greeted at the fair with a large, varied and attractive Carnival and the Ferris Wheel, Whip, the Merry-go-round and games and shows assisted in making the day one of great merriment.

The many displays in the floral hall were especially attractive and interesting and quite a large lot of exhibits were shown that convinced one that he can make anything he might wish, even a happy home, in Franklin.

The canning department showed the results of the long years of study and practice of the Canning Clubs in the various kinds of good-to-eats that were prepared for future use by the young ladies. No one could well look upon this display without realizing the true value to the County of this great work.

It fairly made one's mouth water to inspect the many good eats on display in the Pantry department, showing the specueran ability of the noble women of this grand old County.

And to the lovers of beautiful flowers the booth in which so many lovely flowers were on display was a veritable paradise.

The Needlecraft display was wonderful and gave evidence of the most expert skill on the part of its many contributors.

Possibly the most complete and most creditable exhibit was that of Rock Hill farm, which was under the management of Mrs. H. H. Mullen. This display contained a very large variety, including almost everything that can be made on a Franklin County farm. Also the display of Mr. G. H. Purgerson was a most creditable one. This display also had a large variety of garden and farm crops.

could find almost anything he wished that could be grown on a farm and all of fine varieties and specimens. The live stock exhibit was possibly larger this year than for many years and contained some exceptionally fine animals. This department attracted quite a lot of attention from Franklin County's many stock lovers. The poultry exhibit was especially good—there being many pens of fine birds, and also attracted much attention and admiration. The fair has been quite a success and the large crowds attending are liberal in their appreciation. Friday will be Co-operative Marketing Day and a large crowd is expected. Senator J. A. Brown and other good speakers will address those present on the big success of the two As. associations.

Dr. A. H. Fleming, the efficient Secretary of the Franklin County Fair Association, is receiving congratulations from his many friends for the fine fair he has given them this year. He deserves much credit for his untiring efforts.

GOLDEN BELT FAIR

In another column will be found an announcement of the Golden Belt Fair to be held in Henderson beginning Tuesday, October 10th. Mr. C. M. Hight, Secretary, is desirous of the people of Franklin County knowing that all departments of this fair are open to competition by Franklin County people and would be glad to have a large exhibit from this county. He tells us that they will have some fine horse racing, free attractions and good shows. On Friday night at eight o'clock they will have an Old Fiddlers Convention and every person who can play the fiddle is invited to go out and take a part.

WOOTEN-MACON

A beautiful wedding was solemnized Monday morning, Oct. 2, at eleven o'clock when Miss Sallie Lou Macon became the bride of Mr. E. S. Wooten of Kinston. The ceremony took place at St. Paul's Episcopal Church, which was tastefully decorated for the occasion in pot plants and cut flowers.

Messrs Martin Jones, of Wake Forest, and Richard Winn, of Henderson, acted as ushers. Mrs. O. Y. Yarbrough presided at the organ. The first in the bridal party after the ushers was the dame of honor, Mrs. T. P. Jones, of Wake Forest, wearing rose sash and a black picture hat and carrying yellow chrysanthemums.

Following her came the maid of honor, Miss Edna Beasley, wearing orange satin with a black picture hat and carrying carnations.

Immediately preceding the bride came little Miss Mary Fuller Beasley wearing white ruffled organdie. She carried a basket of flowers with the ring pendant from its gracefully curving handle.

The bride, wearing a becoming traveling suit of dark brown with accessories to match, entered on the arm of her uncle, Mr. T. P. Jones, of Wake Forest, who gave her away.

They were met at the altar by the groom, Mr. E. S. Wooten, attended by Mr. Edward Parrott, of Kinston, as best man. The ceremony was performed by Rev. John Hatley, using the service of the Episcopal church.

Out of town visitors who attended the wedding were: Mr. and Mrs. Richard Winn, of Henderson; Mrs. Roy Weldon, of Epsom; Mrs. Johnnie Wiggins, of Millbrook; Dr. Gill, of Henderson; Mr. Ralph Wooten, Miss Wooten and Miss Moore, of Kinston; Mrs. Geo. Cooke, of Franklinton; Mrs. J. B. Ellis, Mrs. Alvis Huskith and Miss Lucille Huskith, of Kittrell; Miss Louise Williams, of Wake Forest, and Mrs. Trillamen, of Kittrell.

OLD BELT WAREHOUSES OPEN

With 50,000 members and a large majority of the tobacco in the old belt, the Tobacco Growers Co-operative Association went into action last Tuesday, October 3rd, on 35 markets of Virginia and Western North Carolina.

The system of marketing, which has won the admiration of the growers in South Carolina and Eastern North Carolina, is certain to meet with success in Virginia and the old belt of North Carolina, where the solid sign-up and loyalty of the Association members has resulted in the formation of 750 local units to further the interests of the Association.

The markets which opened this week in Virginia were Danville, South Boston, Crife, Rocky Mount, Martinsville, Chatham, Gretna, Virgilia, Clover, Clarksville, Chase City, Lawrenceville, Keyville, Rice, Burkeville, Kenbridge South Hill, Alta Vista, Emporia, Alberta, McKinney, Petersburg, Blackstone and Drakes Branch.

In western North Carolina cooperative marketing is in full swing at Greensboro, Elkin, Reidsville, Madison, Mebane, Youngsville, Statesville, Stoneville, Walnut Cove, Mt. Airy and Leaksville.

The man with a loud hat usually talks through it.

SIDE LIGHTS OF THE GREAT WEST

Crossing San Francisco Bay, one of the largest and most beautiful land raked harbors in the world, we passed Goat Island rising several hundred feet abruptly from the placid waters of the bay, seemingly fortified, standing guard over the greatest city, and metropolis of the Pacific slope. Your scribe spent twelve days in San Francisco in 1920, attending the National Democratic Convention, then the city claimed a population of 375,000, now 620,000. Growing by leaps and bounds it bids fair to become the fourth city in the United States within the next ten years.

The American Bar Association is composed of more than 17,000 members and its charter provides that no negro is eligible for membership. This, the forty-fifth annual meeting, was the largest attendance in its history, 1,420 lawyers in actual attendance, every state in the Union being represented except New Hampshire.

Honorable Cordenio A. Severance, of St. Paul, Minn., President of the Association, delivered his annual address to a large and enthusiastic audience. His subject being The Constitution and Individualism. He emphasized the thought "that our governmental system, by protecting rights of the individual and thus giving free rein to the genius of a virile people has produced happiness and well-being, exercised a helpful influence abroad and must be defended against open or insidious enemies." Mr. Severance is one of the strongest and most virile lawyers of the middle west.

His firm have held seats in the Senate of the United States, Senators Davis and Kellogg. Your scribe has heard four annual addresses from the Presidents of the Association, but his address led them all in eloquence and classic expression of patriotic ideals. No greater defence of American institutions has been heard. His defence of the American Constitution will never be forgotten. He advocated a restricted immigration law. Quoting from a great American poet he said, "Oh Liberty White Goddess: Is it well To leave the gates unguarded? On thy breast Fold Sorrow's Children, sooth the hurts of fate.

Lift the downtrodden, but with hands of steel, Stay those who to thy Sacred partals come, To waste the Gifts of freedom. Have a care

Lest from thy brow the clustered stars be torn And trampled in the dust. For so of old The detroning Goth and Yandal trampled Rome. And where the temple of the Caesars stood The lean wolf unmolested made her lair."

Among the noted members in attendance were Chief Justice Taft who addressed an audience of 2,000 in the First Congregational church, and Vice President Coolidge, who also spoke to a large and enthusiastic crowd. Both of these prominent leaders mingled freely with the members in attendance, and the Chief Justice was the humorist of the Association.

Lord Shaw of Dunfermline represented the bar of England, and made a most instructive address on "the widening range of law." A French Judge M. Aubepin of the Paris Bar, whose name is hard to pronounce, represented France, his subject being Progress of Judicial Power in France. Judges of all kinds and degrees composed a large percentage of the members. Not like a story told by Judge Ratcliff, of Indiana, who said there was a crowd at the Hotel at a Hoosier county seat where a stranger asked the hotel man if there were and judges in the crowd, when he answered, "No but some dam good lawyers."

At no previous meeting have the social functions in connection with it been more elaborate and successful. Full evening dress was the general order of the nights. The President's reception at the Fairmont was a brilliant affair, and one long to be remembered. The ladies dinner at the St. Francis and the Annual Dinner and Banquet at the Palace was unique for its magnificent scale and the splendor of its appointments. The Post Prandial orations, led by the Hon. B. L. Hodghead, Chairman of the Committee on Arrangements made a most attractive speech, followed by Lord Shaw, who spoke the King's English to perfection. Then M. Aubepin the Paris Judge, who did his thinking in French and interpreted his thoughts into English. Chief Justice Taft, the life of every meeting, spoke of the possibility of going to London in 1924, and spoke of the worm weather and welcome that awaited it. Ex-Senator Cole, who has since celebrated his one hundred birthday, pioneer and former representative of California in Congress and the Senate, friend and supporter of Mr. Lincoln, who had a law office in San Francisco in 1852, looked and spoke as if he was not more than seventy years young; and Hon. J. B. M. Baxter, representing the Canadian Bar made an interesting talk. At this banquet, at midnight amid great applause President Severance turned the gavel over to his successor, Hon. John W. Davis, who made the most eloquent speech of the evening.

As guests of the San Francisco Bar Association, we were all taken on a motor trip to points of interest around the city and the wonderful parks.

Constantinople, Oct. 3.—The preliminary conference for the settlement of peace in the Near East began at Mudania today with the Allied Generals and Ismet Pasha, representing the Turkish Nationalists, present. The meeting was called to order at 3 o'clock in the afternoon, but was shorty adjourned to Wednesday to permit the attendance of the Greek representatives.

General Mazarakis and Colonel Sarryannis, who were yesterday appointed by the Greek cabinet to act in the Mudania conference in behalf of Greece arrived at Mudania on a Greek destroyer this evening, and will take their places at the conference table tomorrow.

Has a Free Hand

General Harrington, commander in chief of the Allied forces, will deal with the military question in the negotiations as he deems best, a free hand having been given him by his government in these matters. Subjects of a political or economic nature will be referred to the Allied High Commissioners, who will communicate with their governments. The commissioners will be in continuous contact with Mudania by wireless.

Greeks in Thrace

The Allied Ministers in Constantinople are understood to have drawn the attention of the Greek government to the necessity of keeping the Greek troops in Thrace under control so as to avoid the possibility of a conflict. This was due to representations of the Angora government that the Mohammedan population in Thrace were suffering reactions at the hands of Greeks, and the Greek troops are in a dangerous state of unrest.

Up to the present the Turks have made no real preparations for their withdrawal from the neutral zone, and according to an official report, their slight retirement today was not of appreciable depth.

MUSTAPHA KEMAL SAID TO BE AT ANGORA NOW

London, Oct. 3.—Mustapha Kemal Pasha arrived today at Angora from Smyrna, according to an Angora message received here from Reuter's Constantinople correspondent.

MILITARY MISSIONS SEND TO PUT DOWN DISORDERS

Constantinople, Oct. 3.—Three military missions composed of French, English and Italian officers left this morning for Adrianople, Lale Bargas and Dodoseto to investigate the charges of Turkish atrocities and to prevent unnecessary destruction of property. The mission also will assure the population that should the Kemalists occupy Thrace, it will be done under Allied observation.

REVOLUTIONARY COMMITTEE RECOGNIZES PATRIARCH

London, Oct. 3.—A Havas dispatch to Greek headquarters in London, states that the revolutionary committee in the Greek capital has decided to recognize Meletis Metaxakis, as Ecumenical Patriarch, head of the Greek church, in order to terminate church antagonism. The Holy Synod has promised to concur in this decision, these advices say.

TURKS WILL EXTEND TIME LIMIT FOR EVACUATION

London, Oct. 3.—The Turkish Nationalists will extend the time for the evacuation of refugees from Smyrna. Reuters' agency learned today.

Passed the Presidio, saw the concealed batteries, with great disappearing guns that made it impossible for an enemy ship of any kind to pass thru the Golden Gate into the bay of San Francisco. Saw the Golden Gate and the seal Rocks. Thru the park of more than a thousand acres every spot of which was a dream of beauty, and after more than fifty miles, wound up the trip on the twin peaks, 900 feet above the city. This drive and its wonderful scenes, shaded walks and drives, with the Eucalyptus trees that shed their bark instead of leaves, with flowers that sometimes covered the houses and all on such a magnificent scale, as would make the mythical Garden of Eden look like Mrs. Wiggs' "Cabbage Patch."

BIG DEMOCRATIC RALLY

TO BE HELD IN LOUISBURG

Decision of The Executive Committee At Its Meeting Monday—Effort To Put All Qualified Voters on Registration Books.

The Democratic Executive Committee of Franklin County met on Monday according to the call of Chairman H. H. Malone. Upon roll call it was ascertained that the townships were represented as follows: Dunns—A. A. Perry, Harris—J. B. King, Youngsville—Franklinton—J. A. Mitchiner, Hayesville—Sandy Creek—E. N. Williams, Gold Mine—W. D. Fuller, Cedar Rock—C. T. Dean, Cypress Creek—Arthur Strickland, Louisburg.

In addition to the Executive Committee quite a number of candidates were present, upon invitation and took part in the deliberations.

Chairman Malone stated the object of the meeting was to arrange for the coming campaign and called attention to two of the most important features—to get the names of all the qualified voters on the registration books and then to get the voters to go out and vote.

Fuller suggests getting the registrars to use some of their off time to visiting the homes and getting the registration complete.

J. R. Jones, candidate for Commissioner endorses Fuller's suggestion.

Fuller moves that the Township Committees arrange a campaign for registration carried unanimously.

E. N. Williams made plea for the social side of the campaign and suggested a big rally day with a barbecue and brunschwiler stew dinner.

A. A. Perry suggests having this rally day about ten days before election and that we hold a township rally in each township in addition. He later withdrew his suggestion for the township rallies.

A motion prevailed unanimously that a Big Rally Day be held in Louisburg about the 30th of October. The Chairman appointed the following committee to look after and arrange for the Rally Day and dinner: A. F. Johnson, E. N. Williams, G. H. Cooper, Arthur Strickland.

A scale of assessments upon all candidates to assist in defraying the expenses of the campaign was unanimously endorsed.

The question of moving the polling place in Dunns township was brought before the committee. Mr. Perry wanted the place changed back to Sutton. Mr. Perry reviewed the efforts that he had made to have it changed, but admitted that he had not had a meeting of his township executive committee and passed upon this question. A. F. Johnson, Chairman of the Board of Elections, stated to the Board that he had knowledge of the disapproval of the move by some members of the township committee and had told Mr. Perry that the Board of Elections wanted to do what the township committee wanted done and urged him to call his committee together and take action.

E. N. Williams stated that according to the plan of organization it was the right and privilege of the township committee to make recommendations for the government of their township and that he moved that the Board of Elections abide by the recommendations of the Executive Committee of Dunns township provided a building other than a store can be provided and full control of such building can be turned over to the election officials for the time to be used. The motion carried.

The question of the qualifications of J. B. Jones, the nominee for the Board of Education from District No. 3 was discussed. Since being nominated Mr. Jones has moved his place of residence to Louisburg in District No. 5. E. N. Williams, after stating that he had discussed the matter with Mr. Jones and had been assured that he would contend for the appointment regardless of the law, moved that the Franklin County Democratic Executive Committee ask Mr. Jones for his resignation, and in support of his motion called attention to the spirit of the law in distributing the membership of the Boards of Education and Commissioners and that if this appointment should be made District No. 3, composed of Hayesville and Sandy Creek townships would be without representation for six years. The motion was seconded by A. A. Perry. The point of lack of quorum caused no action to be taken at this meeting but the motion was arranged for a meeting of the Executive Committee at a later date.

No further business coming before the Committee adjournment was taken.
