Mr. H. H. B. Mask, Manager Field Department, Also to Speak—Every Farmer in the County Urged to Be Present

What will no doubt be the most important meeting for the farmers that has been held in Louisburg in many years will be the one announced to be held in the Court House in Louisburg at 2 o'clock in the afternoon of next Saturday, when Mr. T. Leopard, of Washington, N. C., will talk to the farmers on the subject of fertilizer and soil weevil.

Mr. Leopard is a very interesting speaker and has a most interesting message for the farmer who wants to benefit his financial conditions this year.

Mr. H. H. B. Mask, Manager of the Field Department of the North Carolina Cotton Growers Cooperative Association, will also be present and talk along the subjects of improved cotton seed and the problems of the community locals. These are important subjects and all farmers should hear them.

In addition to these it is expected there will be several local speakers present who will talk. The meeting is to be an open one and every person present will be expected to raise any question he wishes and have it discussed.

It is also expected to have an official present to take notes of all errors that have been made in checks and also of all members who have not received their checks for the second payment. COTTON ASSOCIATION GETS JUDGMENTS

Raleigh, Jan. 31—Five members of the North Carolina Cotton Growers Co-operative Association are permanently restrained from selling any cotton grown by them last season outside of the co-operative in an order signed by Judge E. H. Cranmer, of Southport, last Monday in Wake county Superior court.

These injunctions are the first secured by the big cotton co-operative and represent all the legal actions taken so far with the exception of six actions started recently to secure liquidated damages for cotton alleged to have been sold outside of the association.

W. H. Horne, of Edgecombe county, who is alleged to have grown five hundred bales of cotton last year, was one of the members enjoined in Judge Cranmer's order. Mr. Horne did not contest the continuance of the injunction nor did J. S. Procter, of Nash county, who is said to have grown 80 bales last season.

S. M. Crisp and G. M. Pittman, prominent Pitt county farmers, claimed that they had sold their cotton before the temporary restraining orders were secured, but Judge Cranmer ruled that this matter could be determined at the final hearing on the liquidated damages claim. Attorneys for the cotton co-operatives contended that the two men had merely parted with visible possession by transferring their cotton to a business firm of which they were partners.

Joel B. Lee, of Johnston county, alleged false representations in getting his signature to the contract. He asked for a removal of his case to the Smithfield court, but this was denied.

LOUISBURG HIGH HAS EASY WIN IN LAST HALF

The Louisburg High School quint added another scalp to their belt when they took the Nashville team into camp Tuesday night to the score of 32 to 14. Cooper and Fuller starred for Louisburg while G. W. Womble showed up well for the Nashville bunch. The game was tight and hard fought in the first half and when the smoke rolled away the score was 10 to 8 in favor of Louisburg. In the second period the Nashville defense cracked and the Louisburg shooters were able to cage the leather with incessant regularity while but two additional field goals were allowed Nashville.

MRS. STALLINGS ENTERTAINS

Among the social events of the season was a reception given by Mrs. Walter W. Stallings in honor of the J. O. W. S. club on Saturday evening Jan. 27, at Seven Paths.

The guest began to arrive about 8 o'clock and were met at the door by Mrs. Stallings.

After the guest had assembled the fun began when cards were given containing spaces for ten two minute dates, to be made by the ladies. Every one began to wonder how the dates with the older people would come out.

However each one seemed to enjoy it and were eager to find his partner for the contest. This was found by matching the names of flowers. The contest for the evening was on trees. The hardest tree to discover was the one that gives most pleasure to boys and girls. The winning couple for the evening were Miss Pearte Hopkins and Mr. J. M. Sykes, Miss Lucile Powell and Mr. J. C. Bowden.

The question then arose as to which couple would receive the prize. Luckily for both couples the prize was two sticks of candy, which was easily divided one stick going to each couple.

After the contest had been finished Mrs. Stallings assisted by Miss Sadie Stallings, served a delicious fruit salad.

This being the first reception given in honor of the club Mr. E. C. Sexton explained the purpose of the club and the work it hoped to accomplish.

The club was organized by the teachers of Cypress Creek township with Mrs. Samuel Rice as its president.

About ten-thirty the guests, after voting Mrs. Stallings a most delightful hostess, departed for their homes.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Sykes, Mr. E. B. Moore and Mr. E. C. Sexton, Misses Bertha Neal, Pearl Hopkins, Sadie Stallings and Lucile Powell. Messrs. C. E. Debnam, J. C. Bowden and Moses Sykes.

BASEBALL EXTRA

The game opened with Molasses at the stick and Smallpox catching. Cigar was in the box with plenty of smoke. Horn played first base and Fiddle on second base. Backed by Corn in the field made it hot for the umpire, Apple, who was rotten. Axe came to bat and chopped. Gigar let Brick walk and Sawdust flig the bases. Song made a hit and Twenty scored. Cigar went out and Balloon started to pitch, but went straight up. Then Cherry tried, but went wip. Old Ice kept cool in the game until he was hit by a pitched ball, then he ought to have heard Ice scream. Cabbage had a good head and kept quiet. Grass covered lots of ground and the crowd cheered when Spider caught a fly. Bread loafed on third and bumped. Organ, who played a fast game, put out Lightning. In the fifth inning Wind began to blow what he could do. Hammer began to knock and Trees began to leave. The way they roared Peanuts was a fright. Knife finished pitching and struck out six men. In the ninth Apple took Fiddle to take first base and then Song made a hit. Trombone made a slide and Meat was put out on the plate.

There was lots of betting on the game. But Soap cleaned up. The score was 1-0. Door said if he had pitched he would have shut them out.—The Red Triangle.

We are requested to announce that the Joseph J. Davis Chapter U. D. C. will meet with Mrs. W. H. Yarborough on Tuesday afternoon, February 6th, at 3:30 o'clock. All members are urged to be present.

MR. R. F. FULLER DEAD

Mr. R. F. Fuller, one of North Carolina's most successful and reliable horse dealers and one of Louisburg's most popular and substantial citizens died at his home here on Thursday afternoon of last week, about 3:30 o'clock, in his 61st year. Mr. Fuller possessed a high order of honesty and fair dealings and with his jolly and congenial disposition had made friends of his acquaintances. Being a man of fine business ability he had succeeded in laying aside a fair share of this world's goods, and had conducted a business that all had the utmost confidence in. He was a most kind and affectionate father and will be missed a great deal by the entire community.

He was preceded to the grave by his wife many years ago, but leaves four sons, Messrs. R. E. Fuller, of Louisburg, Perry W. Fuller, of Baltimore, W. N. Fuller, of Louisville, E. M. Fuller, of Henderson, and one daughter, Mrs. F. J. Beasley, of Louisville, besides three sisters, Mesdames C. B. Kearney, W. S. Strange and O. T. Bryant, of Franklin County, and three brothers, Messrs. S. W. Fuller and E. J. Fuller, of this county, and T. W. Fuller, of Rocky Mount.

Mr. Fuller was a member of Louisburg Lodge A. F. & A. M. and was a true mason, living the golden rule "do unto others, as you would have others do unto you."

The funeral services were held from the home of his daughter, Mrs. F. J. Beasley, on Church Street Friday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock and were conducted by Rev. J. A. McIver, pastor of the Baptist church, who using the verse "a good name is more to be chosen than great riches" paid the deceased a most fitting tribute. The remains were taken to Trinity church and there laid to rest by those of his wife. The pall bearers were Messrs. M. S. Clifton, W. H. Ruffin, W. W. Webb, H. A. Kearney, W. H. Allen and Dr. W. R. Bass.

A choir sang sweetly several selections at each service.

The large crowd present both at the home and the grave gave evidence of the high esteem in which the deceased was held by his friends.

The floral tribute was profuse and beautiful speaking a love beyond the power of words.

The bereaved children and relatives have the deepest sympathy of the entire community.

POST OFFICE EXAMINATION

The Civil Service Commission, we are informed, has rated the applicants who took the examination for postmaster at Louisburg, and the highest mark was made by Mr. E. F. Yarborough. We have no sympathy with Mr. Yarborough's politics, but if we must have a Republican postmaster, he is probably as acceptable to the community as any one that could be named. He is experienced in postal work, having been assistant postmaster for many years, and his ability and integrity have never been questioned.

WOMAN'S CLUB TO MEET

The Woman's Club will meet in their new club room in the Taylor building on Franklin Street on Tuesday morning, February 6th, at eleven o'clock.

MRS. G. M. BEAM, Sec'y.

THE SENIOR CLASS ENTERTAINED BY THE JUNIOR CLASS OF THE LOUISBURG HIGH SCHOOL

It was with much gaiety that the Junior Class of the Louisburg High School laid aside their school duties and entertained with a delightful banquet at The Franklin Hotel on the evening of the twenty-ninth, the Senior Class.

On arriving the guests were met by Miss Mattie Allen, the Junior Class Sponsor, and ushered into the hotel parlors where conversation and music were engaged in.

At about nine o'clock the guests were invited into the dining room in which the color scheme of green and white—these being the Senior Class colors—prevailed. A cut-glass basket of cut narcissus and maiden-hair fern adorned the center of the table and lighted green candles interspersed by small pots of lace fern added to the attractiveness of the long table. Pretty hand-made menu cards and dainty little glass baskets filled with green and white mints and a miniature white rose (the Senior Class flower) graced each banqueter's place.

Miss Louise Allen, President of the Junior Class, charming in her gracious manner, acted as toastmistress. Between the delicious courses, toasts; one "To the Senior Class" by Miss Louise Allen was responded to by Mr. William Webb, President of the Senior Class; one "To the Teachers" by Miss Lucy Burt was responded to by Miss Ethyl Robinson, one of the high school teachers; another "To the School" by Mr. Dunham Taylor was responded to by Professor W. R. Mills, Superintendent of the Louisburg Graded Schools, were delightfully enjoyed. It was with much interest that the banqueters listened to Mr. Mills, in his response, outline the past and present standards and achievements of the seventeen years of his work since its founding. He, too, expressed his hopes for the new and more ideal building which is to be begun in the early spring.

It was with much feasting that those present enjoyed the following Menu:

- Grape-Fruit Cocktail
Celery Green Olives
Creamed Chicken Peas
Hot Rolls
Pear Salad Saltines
Ice Cream Cake
Demi-tasse Mints

These enjoying the delicious banquet were: Misses Louise Allen, Anna Fuller Parham, Lucy Burt, Pearl Pearce, Lucy Timberlake, Lugenia Matthews, Ruth Perry, Lillian Perry, Victoria Adcock, Jewell Clark, Margaret Ogburn, Louise Griffin, Myrtle Harris, Elizabeth Clifton, Ethyl Robinson, Mattie Allen, Athleen Turnage and Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Mills and Messrs. Charles Elmore, Dave Pearce, Arch Wilson, Frank Wheelock, Ollie Smithwick, Russell Wilson, William Webb, Hugh Jones, Mack Stamps, John Pearce, John King, Dunham Taylor, Matthew Beasley and B. R. Simpson.

The guests departed at a late hour declaring that the Juniors were ever the most delightful hosts and hostesses.

SUNDAY SCHOOL RE-ORGANIZED

On Sunday, Jan. 28, the Louisburg Baptist Sunday School was re-organized along lines leading to an A 1 Standard Sunday School.

The nominating committee, appointed by the church the previous Sunday, made the following nominations which were unanimously elected:

General Superintendent Mr. W. R. Mills; First Associate Superintendent Mr. H. C. Taylor; Second Associate Mr. Willie Tharrington; Secretary and Treasurer Mr. T. W. Watson; Director of Music Mr. Lisle; Pianist Miss S. T. Williams; Historian Mrs. Wingate Underhill; Cradle Roll Superintendent Miss Virginia Perry; Superintendent Beginners Department Mrs. F. W. Wheelock; Primary Department Miss Onnie Tucker; Junior Department Miss Mattie Asten; Intermediate Mrs. Cleveland Foster; Seniors Mrs. T. W. Watson; Adult Department Mr. Mac Ferguson.

The school has been using the graded literature for a number of years and has been roughly divided into the above named departments, but the classification rules were not strictly enforced. Heretofore classification among the children has been determined more or less by the pupils' advancement in the day school, rather than by age, which is the basis used in the standard system.

Rainy and bad as the weather was Sunday there were one hundred and fifty-two present and the offering was $20.18.

The school received a great forward impetus from the institute conducted recently by Mrs. Hilliard. The work begun in the institute is being conducted in the Thursday evening prayer meeting under the leadership of the pastor, Rev. J. A. McIver. He is so anxious that there may be at least fifty students to finish the Sunday School Manual and take the examination on it.

Every Baptist in and around Louisburg, and every one of no denomination whose preference is for the Baptist, is most cordially invited and urged to come and join in making the Louisburg Baptist Sunday School one of the best in the state.

CHARGE AGAINST A. D. WATTS IS PROSTITUTION

A warrant charging Col. A. D. Watts, State commissioner of revenue, with "aiding and abetting" prostitution was issued here this afternoon by the police authorities of Raleigh. The charge, was based on a report made by patrolmen who said that they went to Col. Watts' quarters last night, after one of them had observed a negro man and two negro women enter the building, and there found one of the two women.

The negro woman directly implicated in the charge made against Col. Watts, according to the information lodged by the police, is Grace Grantham, who was said to have given Statesville as her home. A charge of prostitution was made against the Grantham woman and charges of "soliciting" were preferred against the other two negroes.

The negroes were released by the police last night without bond, it was stated, after being ordered to appear Saturday morning in the city court. The city prosecuting attorney, C. W. Beckwith, who instructed the issuance of the warrant, stated that the prosecution of the case against Col. Watts was not dependent upon whether the other defendants could be produced in court or not, and that he would proceed with the policemen as witnesses if they did not appear.

"If the facts reported in the morning paper are even substantially correct, warrants against all the parties will be issued in the ordinary course of business," City Prosecutor Beckwith told The Times early Monday in discussing what action he would take in consequence of a police raid Sunday night on the apartments of Col. Aston D. Watts, Commissioner of Revenue since May, 1921.

"I have not had time to go fully into the matter with the members of the police department who conducted the raid," Mr. Beckwith explained, "but from what Detective Danley told me, I am convinced that we have a prima facie case against Mr. Watts, Grace Grantham and Nina Bailey, mulatto women, and Robert McDuffie, negro man."

"The warrants I shall draw," he continued, "will be indictments for prostitution and soliciting, and the cases will be treated as would any other cases of similar nature. I mean by this that we could do no more with Blanche McCade for cursing the Governor of North Carolina than we could had she cursed an ordinary servant on the street."—Raleigh Times.

Governor Morrison Monday accepted the resignation of Col. Watts and appointed Hon. Rufus A. Doughton, of Alleghany county, a member of the present General Assembly and Chairman of the House Finance Committee, to fill the vacancy, and appointment was approved by the Senate Monday. Mr. Doughton took the oath of office Tuesday.
