

IN LOVING REMEMBRANCE OF LITTLE ANNIE RUE FOSTER

Where no farewell tears are shed. —A FRIEND.

We have lost our darling Annie. Oh how hard to see her go. But the angels came to take her...

Little Annie Rue Foster was the daughter of Johnnie and Mattie Murphy Foster. She was born March 29, 1922 and died June 13, 1923.

From the beginning of her sickness she was very sick. Skilled physicians were called in and all that earthly power could do was done for her.

While the somber curtains of grief shade your sky, the world seems empty and cheerless, the hearts know the dreary aching voice yet these parents have the consolation of knowing that the little sufferer is at peace.

"Twill not be long before they can cross the dark river and join Little Annie with the hosts of the saved on the other shore. The burial took place at Mrs. Lucy Fosters, grandmother of the child.

The bereaved ones have the sympathy of the entire community, and to the God who has bereft them we commend their keeping, and bid them say:

"His will be done." Dearest Annie thou has left us, And our loss we deeply feel, But 'tis God who hast bereft us, He can all our sorrows heal.

BURIED ALIVE

We have heard of "happy hunting grounds" for many things—but the storage battery graveyard is the latest.

Mr. R. C. Beck of the local Exide Service Station, when telling us of this said—"If folks could realize the cost of the batteries that are thrown into the graveyard before their time—that are buried alive—they would be more careful with their own."

Many times batteries are brought to my attention that are only a few months old—yet so far beyond repair that they must be "buried." And just a little care during their lives would have prevented it.

This generally is caused by negligence or home treatment for some suspected ailment.

If folks want to take care of their own batteries they should first visit the service station of some reliable manufacturer and learn how. Battery men are glad to furnish this information.

When they do this there will be fewer batteries "buried alive" in the storage battery graveyard. 7-20-11

TEXAS COTTON ASSOCIATION WINS AGAIN

Injunction Granted and Contract Upheld in Every Particular by the Texas Supreme Court

One of the latest attacks against cooperative marketing is the report which has been circulated rather freely by certain interests opposed to cooperative marketing that the Texas Farm Bureau Cotton Growers' Cooperative Association has lost before the High Court of Texas.

The following is a copy of a telegram received June 30, 1923, by General Manager U. B. Blalock, of the North Carolina Cotton Growers' Cooperative Association, from the Publicity Director, L. F. McKay, of the Texas Association:

"Texas Supreme Court today sustained cotton contracts in all particulars and upheld remedies of specific performance and liquidated damages."

(Signed) L. F. McKay, Dallas, Texas.

Considering who they are, we think the human race does much better than could be expected.

No home is complete without a few uncomfortable chairs to offer un-welcome company.

Every time they build a new railroad crossing the auto dealers order more cars.

Calvin Coolidge says pay more attention to culture. We say pay more attention to agriculture.
