LOUISBURG COL-

LEGE OPENS On Wednesday, September 5th

For Its One Hundred and Twenty-first pects for Coming Session.

On Wednesday, September 5, Louisburg College will again open its doors to the young women of North Carolia and adjacent states. The man-agement is making preparations for the largest enrollment in the school's history as already an unprecedented number of boarding students has enrolled. Practically every room in each of the dormitories is full and private residences adjacent to the campus will undoubtedly have to be used to care for the over-flow. The college is growing daily in popularity and worth, and we believe the time is not far dietent when Louisburg will boast the best if not the largest Junior College in the South ior College in the South.

During the summer months many ents have been made in the marrovements have been made in the school property. Quite a number of the rooms have been re-plastered and printed, and new furniture installed. The campus has been beautified and presents a most attractive appear-burg College, and audied with Frank

In the College department considerable new equipment has been secured, especially in the Science Deartment. Complete supplies and equip oilege Chemistry, and in the Home mics Department the labratory n overhauled and painted and new equipment consisting of a stove, electric plate, etc. have been provided. A new dining room has been provided for the students of these classes, a feature which will undoubtedly prove very popular with the students and the public in general.

The school of business has been much improved, quite a few bookkeeping desks, new typewiters, and other equipment having been secured. For the first time in the schools his-tory complete Commercial courses will be offered and diplomas will be granted to those who complete a pre scribed course. Already a large numual work in piano, voice, theory, etc., for a short vacation, from positions will be given and with the addition of honor and trust.

Of violin the School of Music will be The young ladies of the Fidelis one of the most complete in the South. As quite a number of the young people in the town, both boys and girls, have hight. Games were played and inexpressed a desire to take violin, the management has decided to open this department to anyone who desires to take work, especially those of Grammar School and High School age. CEDAR ROCK NEWS

The Cedar Rock people have enjoyd, thus far, a most pleasant summer. There has been very little sickness and no deaths. The crops are good, and the people feel encouraged and ber of students have enrolled in this department and it bids fair to be one of the most popular in the college.

Another addition that will mean much especially to the local comnunity is that of the Violin Depart-others from their respective places of ment in the School of Music. The us-leaching, and still others, who return

WEDDING BELLS AGAIN PEAL FORTH

Miss Rochelle Gulley, of Nashville, Becomes Bride of Mr. John Rochester Earle, of Louisburg.

Nashville Baptist Church was the scene of an impressive and beautiful scene of an impressive and beautiful marriage on Tuesday evening at 8.30 o'clock, when Miss Rochelle Gulley, a deservedly popular and attractive young lady of this city, was united in marriage with Mr. John Rochester Earle, a prominent young business man of Louisburg, and when scores of local citizens and quite a number of admiring friends from distant towns and cities attested their appreciation of the contracting parties by their presence. presence.

For the occasion the church had been artistically decorated with pot-ted plants and native flowers and the interior presented a most striking scene of beauty, the adornments being simple, yet in ideal harmony with the natural attractiveness of the inerior.

Some time before the wedding party arrived at the church friends had gathered to secure points of vantage in witnessing the events soon to follow and when the hour for the cere-monies arrived practically every avail able seat was occupied.

While the wedding party was gath-cring in the vestibules, Mrs. S. V. T. Chamblee, who possesses worderful skill and is recognized as an organist skill and is recognized as an organist of great ability, presided at the beau tiful pipe organ and rendered "La Chanson," by Hoffman, the entinent composer. This was followed by the rendition of a vocal selection, "Sweetheart," (Kidder) by Mrs. C. Walton Johnson, (nee Miss Karen Poole,) of Portsmouth, Va. They entered the church from the right and left doors and traversed the right and left aisles to the altar, where they crossed over, as-cended to the rostrum and stood facing the audience. These young ladies wore handsome dresses of rainbow colors chiffon taffeta and each carried a dainty shepherd's crook adorned with dainty bows of rainbow ribbons.

Mrs. O. P. Winstead, sister of the bride, of Petersburg, Va., and who was maid of honor, entered the church from the Sunday School room and stood just to the right of Rev. Paul Gulley, brother of the bride, who was e officiating minister stead was handsomely gowned peach crepe chiffon and carried beautiful boquet of varicolored astors and as she paused at the altar, down the center aisle came little Jasper Godwin, Jr., of Clayton, and carrying on a handsome white satin pillow the wedding ring. The little ring bearer was clad in a suit of snow white satin was clad in a suit of anow wanted and stood to the left of Rev. Gulley. As the rirains of the grand old "March" grow louder, yet sweeter under the deft touch of the organist, the bride entered the front door and lean ing on the arm of her brother, Mr. M. Clifford Gulley, and with a bewitching smile on her fair and radiant face, proceeded slowly down the center aisle to near the altar where she was met by the smiling groom who was ed by Mr. Malcolm McKinne, of Louised by Mr. Malcolm McKinne, of Mr. Malcolm McKinne, of Louised by Mr. Malcolm McKinne, of Mr. burg, who was best man.
