"Miss Topsy Turvey"

"Miss Topsy Turvey"

The play presented to us last Friday night by the Hollister players was very much enjoyed. Topsy Turvey and Frank were continually keeping us wondering what prank they would play next and Ned, a negro, was a ready prey to their jokes as was all members of the cast. The old Deacon showed us a typical tightwad and Miss Spriggs who became his second wife to fill Jennie's place in his heart, life and housework, soon turned the joke and housework, soon turned the joke with the aid of Topsy and they lived happliy?? ever after with the wife as boss. The English Lord was the subject of many jokes but came out all right in the end with Topsy as his fi-ance, "Ah don cher know."

Our school children certainly are worthy of the best desks to be had. We should investigate the kind they have to sit on every day.

B. Y. P. U.
Our B. Y. P. U. for Dec. 2nd was enjoyed by all. There was a large attendance and the program was splendid. All parts were spoken except one. That was for Leona Raynor and she didn't get it in time to get it up and Elizabeth Fuller read it. Next time lets get every part up and tell it if its not but two words. That is better than nothing. Lets see who will win out now in these last few weeks.

Mr. C. S. Polson and daughter, Miss Mina Polson and son have occupied the Gold Mine house known as the Sturgess home place. Mr. Polson is Wood's foreman for the Hollister Lumber Co. We welcome these good people to our community and hope they will enter into our community enterprises with a vim and push which will mean much to them and us.
