Dillon, Feb. 27.—A wedding of general interest and one of the most beautiful of the winter was solemnized Thursday afternoon when Miss Tillie

Estelle Braddy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Braddy, was united in marriage to Clifford E. Smith of Florence. The entire lower floor of the handsome Braddy home was thrown open to more than a hundred friends and relatives.

A color scheme of white and green was used in the music room where the ceremony was performed and pink and green in the gift room, living room and reception hall. Carnations, narcissi, ferns and palms were used. The softly shaded lights and the perfume of cut flowers made this happy event seem as if spring was just around the corner.

The center of beauty was the ceremony room, where an improvised altar of white, containing candelabra, was banked with ferns and palms. At the appointed hour, Miss Mary Davis of Summerton, in white georgette, with rose corsage and Misses Eula and Beulah Braddy, in exquisite peach colored georgette with rose and sweet pea corsage, began the bridal music. Cadman's "At Dawning" and Campan's "I Live and Love Thee" were especially beautiful.

The little ribbon bearers, Maxie McLaurin and Edgar Braddy, carrying baskets of snapdragons and sweet peas, bore the ribbons through the spacious rooms, forming an aisle for the wedding party. Maxie wore accordion pleated georgette and Edgar a white suit. Dr. B. H. Kirby of the Methodist Episcopal Church then took his place. The ushers, R. A. Braddy and O. L. Bradshaw of Lenoir, N. C. took their places at each side of the altar. Miss Allie Braddy Sprunt and Elizabeth Love, of Atlanta, entered together. After them came Misses Gladys Smith and Hazel Green of Orangeburg. They wore afternoon dresses of georgette and silver and gold with slippers and haubeaux to harmonize. They carried arm bouquets of Killarney and American Beauty roses. The maid of honor was the bride's youngest sister, Miss Lelia Braddy. Her costume was of chiffon. The little ring bearer, Flora Thompson, carried the ring in the heart of a rose.

The bride entered on the arm of her father, L. C. Braddy. Being of a distinct blond type of beauty, her gown of silver lace over soft blue georgette, was most becoming. She wore a picture hat of silver and carried bride's roses, showered with lillies of the valley. They were met at the altar by the groom and best man, D. L. Cannon, of Roanoke Rapids, N. C. where the impressive ring ceremony was used. As the bride ascended the stair, she threw her bouquet, which was caught by Miss Lelia Braddy.

Miss Braddy is deservedly popular with both the older and younger sets of Dillon, where she was reared. Possessing both beauty and a charming personality, she is loved by a large circle of friends in South Carolina and Georgia. She is the daughter of L. C. Braddy, prominent business man and one of the oldest bankers of Dillon county.

Since her graduation from Columbia where she was an honor student, she has been secretary of the Association of Colleges of South Carolina, an honorary position.

Mr. Smith is a North Carolinian, educated at Wake Forest College and now is district sales manager for the Carolina Power and Light Co.

HERE'S WHAT PEOPLE SAY ABOUT TANLAC

"If it had not been for Tanlac I would still be a sick, discouraged woman, for nothing else seemed to do me any good," says Mrs. Edward Gibbs.

All the advertising in the world and all the sales efforts combined could not have made the great success for TANLAC that has been attained, unless this reconstructive tonic possessed merit of the greatest degree. Over 40 Million Bottles of Tanlac have been sold and the demand today is greater than ever before.

That TANLAC possesses merit and has brought relief to hundreds of thousands of persons is attested by the great number of testimonials that have been received by the company from people in every state of the Union and every province of Canada. Here are excerpts from a few of the 100,000 statements on file:

Mrs. Edward Gibbs, Lancaster, Pa. "For 2 years indigestion deprived me of nearly all the pleasure of living. If it had not been for TANLAC I would still be a sick and discouraged woman, for nothing else seemed to do me any good."

Mrs. Mary A. Benson, Seattle, Wash. "Following an operation my stomach and nerves seemed to give way and I became almost helpless. As a last resort I tried TANLAC. I began to improve from the very first, gained 29 lbs., and today am feeling fine." O. E. Moore, Kansas City, Mo.: "My stomach seemed to pain me constantly, food seemed to do me no good, I would bloat up with gas, lost my strength, and could not sleep or rest. I was on the downgrade all the time. Tanlac corrected my troubles and put me in excellent shape."

Thomas Lucas, Petersburg, Ontario: "Well, sir, buying TANLAC was the best investment I ever made, for it built up my health and strength to where I haven't a complaint in the world."

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph E. Kaako, Detroit, Mich.: "For more than a year our three children, age 2, 4 and 6, had been so peaked and lifeless that we were worried about them. Their stomachs were upset, appetites poor, the color had left their cheeks, their nights were restless and during the day they would just hope around, taking no interest in play or anything else. They began to improve with the first dose of TANLAC, and today there are no more healthy children in Detroit."
