Campaign For Louisburg College Is Approaching Victory

$120,000 Reported To Date. Workers Gather for Final Push To Send It Over The Top

CO-OPERATION OF EVERYBODY NEEDED TO BRING SUCCESS

The $150,000 Campaign in Franklin County For Louisburg College Has Passed the $120,000 Mark And Only $30,000 Remains To Be Subscribed.

At the meeting of the workers Thursday July 10, they voted enthusiastically to continue the Campaign for several days until the whole $150,000.00 shall be subscribed. The frequent rains of the past two weeks have interfered seriously with their activity in visiting the people throughout the county.

Several hundred prosperous and public spirited men and women have not yet been called upon for their subscriptions and the workers feel confident of raising the full amount as soon as they can complete their visits.

The $30,000.00 still needed must come from three sources.

First Those who have not yet been seen. When the workers call upon you, receive them cordially and subscribe generously.

Second. Those who have been solicited, but who have not contributed. Are you sure you did right in refusing to give to this cause? Ten years from now will you be proud you had no part, at this crucial hour, in building up a Christian College in our county.

Third. Some of those who have already contributed and who would rather subscribe more than to see the Campaign fail.

Louisburg College and Franklin County is at a time of crisis, when the generosity and vision of all our people will lead us to greater prosperity and a richer life. In the time and eternity to come let us all be able to point back to this time and say "I did my full share."

HULL SAYS DAVIS BEST FITTED FOR IMPENDING FIGHT

Pre-eminently Qualified To Lead Forces Against Wholesale Corruption

SAYS C. W. BRYAN IS FINE RUNNING MATE

Democratic Chairman Declares Davis' Views and Character Are As "Broad As The Continent." No Hope of Relief Under Present Rule of Republicans

Washington, July 12.—Cordell Hull, chairman of the Democratic National committee, in a statement issued here tonight, declared John W. Davis, the Democratic Presidential nominee, is pre-eminently "the man to lead this fight against wholesale corruption and public immorality" in the government.

"The Democrats," the statement said, "have an unbossed, free-for-all convention that will go down in history, and nominated an outstanding ticket. In character, initiative, courage and constructive statesmanship, John W. Davis has not a superior in this generation. Clean, efficient and liberal government for the people of the United States will be guaranteed by the election of John Davis."

SPECIAL EDITION OF THE TIMES

This special edition of the TIMES is the first extra edition of the paper in some time. There have been stirring events of world consequence during the past few years which might have been worthy of an extra edition, but we did not publish an extra.

We consider the present situation in Franklin County another to warrant an extra.

On July 1st a Campaign was launched in Franklin County for $150,000.00 for Louisburg College. This amount is required in order to keep this historic institution open.

The time set for the close of the campaign was July 10th. That time has passed and the Campaign is $30,000.00 short of its goal. The reason for this lies in the constant rains which have prevented the workers from seeing everybody.

These workers have determined to spend enough more time on the job to enable them to visit everybody and to complete the job.

VICTORY MUST BE SECURED! The cooperation and generosity of all good citizens will secure it.

The purpose of this extra is to inform every man and woman in the county of the situation, so that everyone will know his or her duty in the matter.

Louisburg College Has A Real Leader

Furnishes Opportunity For Great Growth

W. Davis and Charles W. Bryan.
Davis the Man.

"Mr. Davis is pre-eminently the man to lead the fight this year against the wholesale corruption and public immorality existing at Washington during the Harding-Coolidge administrations, and to speedily effect a thorough house-cleaning in our governmental affairs. It would be idle and futile to consider any other questions or principles without first establishing the government upon the bed-rock of sound public morals and official honesty.

"This righteous undertaking would be impossible under a continuation of the present administration, because the same reactionary leadership which is responsible for the shameful conditions of official graft and corruption dominated the recent Republican convention and would still be in control of another Republican administration and further, because the present administration has done nothing and shown no inclination to remedy the conditions complained of. Therefore, there is no ground for belief that it would do any different if continued in power.

Sound and Liberal.

"I have known John W. Davis intimately for many years. His views and his character are as broad as the continent, and no person more accurately typifies all the sound, liberal and progressive ideas and doctrines best calculated to promote every phase of our business, economic and social affairs than Mr. Davis.

"Governor Charles W. Bryan is a thoroughly aggressive and practical Governor of a Western State who has given his people an exceptionally progressive administration. No more capable or deservedly popular candidate for Vice President could have been selected.

"The ticket of Davis and Bryan will strongly appeal to the intellectual honesty of every lover of good government and every detester of the extremely low standards of public service which have been set by the Republican administration in the past three and one half years. I am sanguine in the belief of an overwhelming victory for honest and clean government in November."

Mr. W. H. Ruffin visited Hendersonville this week.

Mr. C. C. Byrne, who has been in South Carolina in the interest of Co-operative Marketing, has returned home and again taken up his duties with the local Co-operative tobacco warehouse.

The main-spring back and underneath the Campaign for Greater Louisburg College is President A. W. Mohn. Many a man, confronted with the choice of "Build or Bust" which confronted our Louisburg College two years ago would have wrung his hands helplessly and said "She'll have to bust."

Not so with President Mohn. He declared that 122 years of service to the girls of Franklin County constitutes a trust too sacred and valuable to give up without a struggle to the death.

So he outlined the program of growth and development. First he convinced his trustees, then the Board of Education of the Conference.

Then he started to organize the Campaign in Franklin County. For months he could find no one who believed that Franklin County could be persuaded to give the College $150,000.00. Gradually he persuaded the leaders of the county to organize and try it. One by one he inspired them, until now most of the biggest men and women in the county are giving their time and energy day and night to making the campaign succeed.

The 75 workers in the campaign have been so fired with the tremendous value of Greater Louisburg College that there is not one of them who does not believe that the full $150,000.00 will be subscribed this week.

This comes from having the right leader at the right time. Under such a leader, the money and efforts of the rest of us will produce results beyond our dreams of a year ago.

North Carolina's marvelous advance since 1900 can be traced to a leader with a vision of education. Gov. Chas. B. Aycock aroused us to the need of education, he was elected Governor on an educational platform and from that day to this North Carolina has marched onward and upward at a pace that has astonished the world.

For twelve years and more after Aycock's inauguration there was a school house a day built in this State. North Carolina took hold of the wings of the morning and soared into new heights of prosperity, riches, enlightenment and civilization. We had a leader and he led us aright.

Franklin County now has an opportunity to press forward. By helping to build up Louisburg College we will build a new prosperity and happiness for ourselves and our children. The kind of education which Louisburg College gives to our daughters is invaluable, it is bound to produce a richer and finer community.

We have a leader in President Mohn who can build a great institution here for us; if we will furnish the brick and mortar. He has done it before in other states, in Kentucky and Florida. He is being sought after not by colleges elsewhere, for his kind of leadership is rare. He can do it for us. Let us take advantage of this courageous leadership and enable this Builder to build for us and our children.
