Mrs. Jules S. Bache

Recent portrait of Mrs. Jules S. Bache, wife of a New York banker, whom the collector of the port there has assessed $26,000 for failure to declare as dutiable, clothing and jewelry valued at $18,000 which she brought from Europe. Mrs. Bache had made no attempt to conceal the goods, taking the stand that she had the right to bring personal belongings into the country free because she was a resident of Paris for eleven months in the year, having kept up a home there since 1900.

SAVE THE BROOD SOWS

Although Dec. 22, faced with the prospect of a cold in recent years, but it is the method of selling them that is really the thing to be considered. It is not the price that counts, but the quality of the stock. During the winter months, the farmer is not able to get the best of his brood sows, and it is a pity that they should be sold at a low price. It is better to keep them until the spring months, when they can be sold at a higher price. This is especially true of the brood sows that are in good condition and have a good record of producing piglets.

HOW DOCTORS TREAT COLDS AND THE FLU

To break up a cold over night or to cut short an attack of grippe, influenza or sore throat, physicians and druggists are now recommending Calotabs, the nameless Calomel tablet, that is purified from dangerous and sickening effects. Those who have tried it say that it acts like magic, by far more effective and certain than the old style calomel, heretofore recommended by physicians.

One or two Calotabs at bed time with a swallow of water, that's all. No salts, no nausea nor the slightest interference with eating, work or pleasures. Next morning your cold has vanished and your system feels refreshed and purified. Calotabs are sold only in original sealed packages, price ten cents for the vest-pocket size; thirty-five cents for the large family package. Recommended and guaranteed by druggists. Your money back if you are not delighted.—adv.

The desire for a large car seems generally more prevalent than the desire for a large family.

Don't forget that the leader of the orchestra was content to play second fiddle first.

It's Easy To Decide

When you are dining at a restaurant, it is easy to decide what to eat. The menu is usually well arranged and the waiter is always ready to help you. This is the same principle that should be applied to the selection of a real estate agent. You should choose one who is experienced and has a good reputation. This will make it easy for you to decide on a property to buy or sell.
