FARMERS QUESTIONS

Involving Farm Problems Affecting Franklin County. Answered by Cole Savage, County Agent

"I should like to have my tobacco seed re-cleaned but I have choice seed and do not want to loose them. What assurance have I that I will get my own seed back?" C. G.—Louisburg, Route 3.

Your tobacco seed are labeled carefully with your own name and address and that of your county agent before going to Raleigh for re-cleaning. In Raleigh they are not opened until they are to be re-cleaned. Upon re-cleaning they are packed immediately and your name replaced on them. Thus they are kept separate from all other seed and your own choice seed are returned direct to you. The objects of the extension service is to serve you, hence this care to return your own seed to you.

"My pupils want some agricultural information for writing themes on rural subjects. Where can I get it?" Teacher.

The agricultural library of the county agent is at your service. This includes books, bulletins, pamphlets, booklets, maps and charts on various subjects such as hogs, horses, sheep, cattle, corn, cotton, tobacco, peanuts, hay, pruning, spraying and many other agricultural subjects. This service is yours for the asking. See your county agent.

"I want to get some of the latest bulletins on farming. Where can I get them?"

You do not state what bulletins you want but if you will call at the county agents office he will be glad to help you. He has several bulletins on-hand for distribution and it may be that you can get what you want in his office. He has also a list of the U. S. Department of Agriculture bulletins and lists of bulletins from several State Experiment Stations, and if he does not have the particular bulletin you want he can get it for you. Call on him.

"If I should call for the county agent and find him not in what shall I do?"

Leave your message on the pad provided for the purpose. It is hanging on the office door of the County Welfare Officer with the title "Leave Word Here." A pencil is attached ready for use.

Poem by Uncle John

As we travel our part of the way, with the process of life in the wane, we should try to see a happy an' gay, in the face of concomitant pain. . . . For the neighbors are hungry for a bit of— they crave in our substance a bask; shall we fret at the envious, bosome nicks, an' deny 'em the pittance they ask?

I reckon—a shiny, ball head ain't viewed by its owner with pride. When our hirsute adornment has fled, there's facts that can't well be denied. . . . But—a song that peals forth in its joy from lips that don't whisper complaint, proclaims that the singer's a boy—though the Alma-nick grows that he ain't!

I've reached the conclusion most trite, which ain't inconsistent with sense—that, our burdens grow more an' more light, with the increase of smiles we dispense. . . . I can't quite agree with the guess that age is all barren an' drear, in a world we were destined to bless, while the neighbors are glad we are here!

STALLINGS—MAY

A quiet but beautiful wedding was solemnized on Friday December 26 at 3:30 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Howell on Church street, when Miss Nellie Grey May, niece of Mrs. Howell, and Floyd Stallings were quietly married. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. A. McIver, pastor of Louisburg Baptist church. Beautiful music was rendered during the ceremony by Mrs. A. B. Perry. The impressive ring ceremony was used and was witnessed by only a few relatives and intimate friends of the young couple.

Mrs. Stallings is the youngest daughter of Mrs. N. R. May, of Franklin County, near Bunn.

Mr. Stallings is a prominent young farmer also of Franklin County of near Pilot, and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ras Stallings. Mr. and Mrs. Stallings will make their home on the home place of Mr. Stallings father near Pilot.
