TAR DROPS

Cotton sold in Louisburg yesterday for 25 1-2 cents a pound.

Sheriff Hunt, of Oxford, was in Louisburg Wednesday. He was assisted by Deputy Sheriff W. N. Fuller, in arresting Grant Privett, who was wanted in Granville in connection with the killing of Clyde Cannady.

Squire A. W. Alston bound George Jones, colored, over to the Superior Court Wednesday under a $5,000 bond for burning a tenant house belonging to F. W. Wheelless on the 9th of December 1924. He was arrested by Officers Pace, Bledsoe and Thomas. Failing to give bond he was taken to jail.

TWENTIETH CENTURY BOOK CLUB.

The Twentieth Century Book Club met for a most charming meeting at the home of Mrs. F. J. Beasley on Church street, Wednesday afternoon, Feb. 19, 1925.

The guests were received in the hall and ushered into the sitting room where an interesting program was rendered. Mrs. A. B. Perry read a very interesting paper on "The Rhine River." Mrs. H. H. Perry read "Lo-hengrin and Elsa The Beautiful." Mrs. Whitaker sang a solo with Miss McClellan at the piano. Miss McClellan gave the Current Topic for the day which dealt with Modern Slang and Its Origin. Miss Roseland, of the college faculty then rendered two delighted selections on the piano which were enjoyed by all.

The hostess, assisted by Mrs. J. B. Beasley and Mrs. Whitaker served de-lightful refreshments in three courses.

The programs and favors carried out the color scheme of Red, White and Blue and even to those who could not glimpse the picture of George Washington on the piano knew whose memory we were honoring.

The club then bade goodbye to Mrs. Beasley and her invited guests to meet again March 4, with Miss Susie Hayes.

TESTIMONIAL

Four Oaks, N. C.
 Nov. 23, 1923.

Gentlemen:

I have used your formula for two years. I used 800 pounds per acre on three acres this year and received net from warehouse $1,750.00. The tobacco was easy to cure, as the leaves were uniform in ripeness. There is nothing like it in my estimation for the production of fine quality tobacco.
